

Scranton Happy About Support

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. William W. Scranton says Republican convention delegates "in greater numbers than I expected" are lining up behind his presidential candidacy.

Kennedy's Condition Improves

Bright, Alert, He Asks for Papers

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's condition was described today as "extremely satisfactory" by his attending physician.

Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, who has been caring for the senator since he suffered a broken back in an airplane crash Friday night, said in a morning bulletin that Kennedy is "bright and alert and asked to see the morning newspapers."

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his wife, who suffered less serious injuries in the accident, are also hospital patients. They were expected to remain at the Cooley Dickinson Hospital the rest of the week.

Was Talking to Moss
Bayh said Sunday that Kennedy did not have on a seat belt at the time of impact and was half standing talking to his aide, Edward Moss, 41, one of the two men killed in the crash.

The senator is resting on a special canvas rigging instead of a regular hospital bed. Known as a "Foster frame," it takes the place of a more uncomfortable, unwieldy plaster cast which for years was a must for persons with fractured vertebrae.

The frame will keep Kennedy, 52, as comfortable as possible while surgeons determine whether surgery will be needed for the three broken vertebrae he suffered in a plane crash Friday night in which two persons died.

Recovery to Be Full
Though the freshman Democratic senator, elected 19 months ago to fill his brother's unexpired term in the U.S. Senate, faces six to eight months of recuperation, doctors stress he will recover completely, barring unforeseen complications.

Also at Cooley Dickinson Hospital were Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his wife. They were in good condition from less serious injuries suffered in the crash but were expected to be held at the hospital the rest of the week.

Can't Be Moved
Kennedy cannot be moved for another 10 to 12 days, Brig. Gen. Henry Murphy, head of the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, said Sunday night.

He and Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, who has been attending the senator since he was brought into the hospital early Saturday, said Kennedy continues to show "definite improvement." Doctors had said previously that there was no neurological damage and that Kennedy escaped any paralysis from the broken back.

Kennedy also suffered two broken ribs and fractures of three transverse processes, which extend from the vertebrae and give the spine support.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy visited her brother-in-law Sunday. (Continued on Page 6, Col. 3)

and South, says he thinks the major swing to him by delegates now favoring front-running Sen. Barry Goldwater will start in about a week and a half.

Scranton gave no figures on shifts so far in his appearance Sunday on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation."

Has Eye on Columbus

He planned to stay in Harrisburg, Pa., today, but had an eye on Columbus, Ohio, where the 58-vote Ohio delegation is scheduled to meet.

The delegation includes at least 15 Goldwater supporters but is nominally pledged to Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes on the first ballot. A key to Scranton's success is to assure that such delegations stay uncommitted so that Goldwater doesn't go over the top on the first rollcall at the GOP convention at San Francisco.

"If he doesn't win on the first ballot, it would be very difficult for him to win at all," Scranton told newsmen Sunday before he returned to Harrisburg from Washington.

Success, He Says
While in the capital he conferred with the nine-delegate District of Columbia delegation. He called it "a very successful meeting" but declined to elaborate.

The latest Associated Press survey of GOP convention delegates gives Goldwater 694 first-ballot votes—39 more than the number needed for nomination. Scranton is credited with 138 votes.

A spot check of GOP delegates from Missouri, Nevada, Utah, Kansas, Nebraska, Tennessee and Georgia showed Goldwater's strength remained what it was before he voted against the civil rights bill.

Busy Schedule
Scranton's schedule this week includes trips to New Jersey, Delaware, West Virginia, Ohio and Michigan, which together have 103 delegates uncommitted or behind favorite sons.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., who will be permanent chairman of the San Francisco convention, said today Illinois might indicate whether Scranton can take delegates away from Goldwater.

The 58-delegate group, headed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, meet next Tuesday to hear Goldwater and Scranton state their cases. At present, Goldwater is credited with 37 Illinois votes, while 19 including Dirksen and GOP gubernatorial candidate Charles H. Percy are uncommitted.

Dem Development
There were these developments on the Democratic side: —President Johnson returned to Washington well pleased with three days spent in California. Democratic leaders told the President they expected the (Continued on Page 10, Col. 6)

Uptown Business Officers Change Thursday Night

A dinner meeting of the Uptown Kingston Business Men's Association will be held Thursday at 7 p. m. in Hoppey's Restaurant, Wall Street.

Co-chairmen of the meeting are Harold Kaye and H. Van Wyck Darrow. Anyone who has not been contacted and is desirous of attending the dinner may call one of the co-chairmen.

This is the annual dinner meeting at which time the change in officers takes place. George Svirsky, retiring president, will relinquish his duties to the new president, Adrian Kaplan.

CELEBRATES 102ND BIRTHDAY—Mrs. Perry (Ella) Loomis of Phoenixia was 102 years old yesterday. Born in Town of Olive June 21, 1862, Mrs. Loomis is still very alert in spite of her advanced years. She was guest of honor at a party given at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Kay Schnakenberg of Kingston, a principal in a section of the Town of Olive since covered by the first airplane flight and the spectacular deeds of Admiral Dewey. An active citizen throughout her life, Mrs. Loomis also served as a Freeman correspondent for the Town of Olive. She has a daughter, Miss Harriet Loomis of Phoenixia, another granddaughter, Mrs. Jacquelyn Finch and three great-grandchildren.

2 Drownings Push State's Toll to 23

Twenty-three persons were victims of accidental deaths in New York State over the weekend, including an 18-year old Dutchess County youth and an 8-year-old Greene County girl who died in drowning mishaps.

A Poughkeepsie man was killed in a motorcycle accident during races at Middletown.

Wingdale Drowning
South Millbrook State Police said John Monette of Poughkeepsie, L. I., drowned at about 1:40 p. m. Sunday while swimming in Lake Ellis near Wingdale. Troopers reported Monette started to swim across the lake and when he was about 25 feet off shore he shouted for help and then went beneath the surface.

State police summoned members of the department's skin divers organization and also members of the Dutchess County Skin Divers Club.

Before they arrived at the lake, Waldemar Kasriel, who was at the lake at the time used his scuba equipment and searched for the body. Troopers said Monette was taken from the water within an hour. The spot where the youth drowned was 40 feet deep, it was said.

Dover Plains firemen assisted state police with unavailing artificial respiration. Monette was pronounced dead. His body was taken to a Pawling funeral home.

Starts Grappling
Leeds State Police, assisted by deputy sheriffs, volunteer firemen and civilians, today continued to grapple in the Hudson River in the vicinity of Four Mile Point, between Coxackie and Athens for the body of a girl believed to have drowned Sunday night.

Troopers said eight-year-old Lynn Capewell and her father, Guy, of Athens went to the river to swim early last night. At about 8 p. m., an unidentified child showed to Capewell and told him his daughter had disappeared.

Johnson invited Inonu and Papandreou in the wake of reports that Turkey planned to put troops ashore on Cyprus. The President then ordered Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to Athens and Ankara to express this government's concern over the situation.

No Preference Here

Nocturnal Events Open With Movie In Forsyth Park

The 1964 nocturnal season of the Kingston Recreation Department will get under way Tuesday evening with the showing of the movie Naked Jungle at Forsyth Park starting at dusk.

The film stars Charlton Heston and Eleanor Parker, and will be shown Wednesday at Hasbrouck Park and Thursday at Colonial Gardens.

The department plans to have at least one such nocturnal activity a night, Monday through Thursday, from now until late August, according to Andrew J. Murphy III, superintendent. Other scheduled events are band concerts by the Kingston Concert Band and a number of park dances.

Neutrality Stressed For Khrush

Red Leader Gets To Sweden Today

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev sailed into Sweden on a chilly Baltic wind today. He was told straight away that Swedes are dedicated to their neutrality.

He also was met by newspaper demands for information about a Swedish diplomat captured by the Russians in 1945.

Promptly, the Soviet leader tried to warm up the atmosphere.

He came, he said at dockside, on "a mission of friendship and good neighborliness" that fully appreciated Sweden's neutral policy. He wanted "sincere talks" with government leaders, he said, to strengthen good relations.

Heavy Security
"I do not think we will have anything to argue about."

Many Swedes are not keen about Khrushchev's coming here. The government mounted heavy security. There have been threats against his life.

About 5,000 spectators watched Khrushchev's arrival from across the harbor five miles away. At dockside were the official government reception groups, honor guards and the diplomatic corps, minus the U.S., British and French ambassadors—and, so far as newsmen could tell, the Red Chinese ambassador.

No Change Intended
Premier Tage Erlander, a Socialist, made it plain in his welcoming address that Sweden has no intention of changing its neutral policy, which he said has the objective of peaceful foreign policy.

After the ceremonies, Khrushchev drove off in a 1949 Lincoln limousine, the car which is said to have been fitted with bulletproof armor to take him around Sweden.

Khrushchev and his wife, Nina, came ashore in a Swedish motor torpedo boat after sailing through the Baltic Sea from Denmark in the Soviet liner Bashkita.

Make Demand
In big headlines and outspoken words they demanded an official statement from him on the fate of Raoul Wallenberg, Swedish diplomat who was arrested by Soviet troops in Hungary and has not been heard of since.

What About One House? Asks Carlino

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph F. Carlino, state assembly speaker, says the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision on legislative reapportionment makes one wonder if the state should consider a single legislative house instead of senate and assembly.

Speaking Sunday on the WCB-TV program, "Newsmakers," Carlino said that if the same basis (population) is used to fill seats of both houses, "why do you need two houses?"

Roosevelt Leaves Way Clear for VP

Under Secretary of Commerce Franklin Delano Roosevelt Jr., in a strong address Sunday night in Ellenville, urged all Americans to erase the scourge of discrimination and to eliminate the pockets of misery and poverty in this country.

Speaking to more than 500 leading Democrats at the Fallsview Hotel in Ellenville on the occasion of the annual Ulster County Democratic Committee dinner, Roosevelt also emphasized that "... skills are the most important things to teach our children today."

At a press conference prior to the dinner, Roosevelt was asked for a statement about the possibility of his being nominated Democratic candidate for vice president. He stated he was "very flattered" but emphasized the decision lay with the convention, the President and the wishes of President Lyndon B. Johnson. Roosevelt, however, left the door open to a nomination by concluding "... if asked, I will serve."

Candidates Present
The dinner was also attended by the Ulster County Democratic candidates for office. They are: John Parete, candidate for county treasurer; Herbert Weinsoff, candidate for district attorney; Robert R. Mandia, candidate for State Assembly; George A. Majestic, candidate for State Senator; and Joseph Y. Resnick, candidate for Congress.

The guest speaker was introduced by Aaron E. Klein, county chairman.

In opening his address, Under Secretary Roosevelt said he was "... very sorry for the Republican Party today. Eisenhower can't make up his mind whether to go right or left. He had trouble making up his mind for eight years in the White House. Goldwater, if nominated, will not be able to find the main stream of American thought much less the main stream of his own party."

Roosevelt touched briefly upon Scranton and Rockefeller. About Nixon, he said: "... in politics, (Continued on Page 10, Col. 6)

Battle Is Continued Six Hours

Security Forces Finally Win Out

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Indonesian guerrillas made one of the biggest attacks of the Borneo jungle war Sunday night, only 24 hours after the collapse of the second Malaysian summit conference, a security forces spokesman announced in Sarawak.

Five Gurkhas were killed and five others wounded in the six-hour battle near the frontier about 50 miles west of Kuching, the spokesman said.

The number of guerrilla casualties was not known. The dead and wounded were reported carried back across the frontier as security forces forced the guerrillas to retreat.

The spokesman said the attack on the Gurkha patrol continued for six hours in some of the fiercest fighting of the anti-guerrilla campaign.

Tougher Stand
Government officials predicted a major stepup in the Indonesian guerrilla campaign following collapse of the peace conference Saturday in Tokyo.

Radio Indonesia voiced a tougher new stand against Malaysia.

The State Security Council in the Malaysian Borneo state of Sarawak scheduled an emergency meeting. The situation on the frontier is grave, Chief Minister Stephen Kalong Ningkan said. Ningkan said, however, that British and Malaysian security forces could handle the situation if Indonesia tried to send more guerrillas into Sarawak.

Futile Sessions
Indonesian President Sukarno who stepped out of the Tokyo summit meeting, then returned for a final futile session Saturday, has not commented on the conference breakup.

The official government news agency Antara said Indonesian guerrillas "will continue their struggle in north Kalimantan (Malaysian Borneo) as Indonesia's determined answer to neocolonialist 'subversion and encirclement tactics.'"

Foreign Minister Subandrio declared Indonesia considered collapse of the Tokyo negotiations "satisfactory" because Indonesia was no longer bound by previous commitments.

"We now feel free to carry on with this confrontation policy," he said.

Continues Efforts
Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal, whose efforts brought Sukarno and Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman to the conference table continued his efforts for peace.

An aide said Macapagal would mail pleas to both Indonesia and Malaysia to send their foreign ministers to another meeting to seek an end to the undeclared war.

Rahman said the talks collapsed because Sukarno "was not prepared to give anything." He said Indonesia had failed to fulfill the requirement for negotiations, withdrawal of her troops from Malaysian Borneo.

3 Outfits Used To Check Blaze On Paltz Farm

Firemen from three communities battled a fire Sunday afternoon that destroyed a large barn and threatened other buildings including a residence on the property of John Schreiber on Schreiber Lane, New Paltz.

New Paltz Fire Chief Peter Savago was in command of volunteers from his district, Clintondale and Modena as they fought the fire of undetermined origin.

It was reported that some farm machinery and other articles were destroyed. During the height of the early afternoon blaze, heat from the burning barn blistered paint on the Schreiber home and threatened other nearby buildings.

Through the efforts of the volunteers, the fire was confined to the barn. A milk house, tool shed and other nearby frame buildings were saved.

The fire was discovered in the 35 by 60 foot barn shortly before 1 p. m. yesterday.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Any program titled "The Missing Bank of Rupert X. Humperdink" has to be broad comedy, or an attempt at it. Using the same process of deduction, any comedy with John McGiver in the cast is likely to be funny.

Sunday night, unhappily, McGiver's considerable skills were no match for the impossible script that carried the ridiculous title on NBC's "Show of the Week."

McGiver was cast as an irascible, high-living bankrupt with a taste for blondes, quadruple martinis and shady deals.

As the show opened he was being dunned by his most recent ex-wife and trying to remember the name and location of a country bank where, 25 years before on a drunken spree he had opened a $50,000 rainy day account under a name also forgotten.

Somehow he remembered the name of the town and the action then moved to the bank and that well-worn classic character—the shy, quiet bank teller who is quietly dipping into the accounts. The $50,000 account of Rupert X. Humperdink was one of his best sources.

The two collide, with the country bank teller ultimately outwitting the city slicker. A good dependable comedy theme. Unfortunately it was played at a pitch of hysteria and confusion as if sheer noise would make up for the total lack of really good lines.

Ah, well, it has been a very bad year for hour-long comedies in television.

"That Was the Week That Was" on Friday night looked and sounded pretty much the way it has on other Fridays, before its director, Marshall Jamison, resigned in a "policy disagreement" with producer Leland Hayward.

Although Hayward would not be specific about his areas of discontent with the show, he repeated that he "prefers the use of the rapier to the bludgeon"—and it is hard to deny that "TW3" often has been brutally blunt and sarcastic here wit and satire would have been more appropriate.

NBC's "Sunday" recalled, on its 10th anniversary, the Army-McCarthy hearings, with a few well-remembered highlights of the Senate hearings, coupled with short interviews with some of the participants looking back a decade. The program is uniformly an intelligent and interesting feature treatment of the news.

USDA Says Wool Deductions Will Continue in '64

USDA announced that deductions for financing self-help promotion program of wool and lamb producers for 1964 marketing year will continue at same rate as in the past. Deduction rates are one cent per pound from shorn wool payments and five cents per hundred pounds of live weight from unshorn lamb payments.

The 1964 marketing year is calendar year January 1 through December 31. Payments for that marketing year to be made beginning in April 1965. Promotion program is conducted by American Sheep Producers Council, Inc. under agreement with Secretary of Agriculture providing for advertising, sales promotion and related market development activities on wool and lamb as authorized under the National Wool Act.

Present agreement covering the four years for which the Act was extended in 1961 was approved in producer referendum held in 1962. The 1964 marketing year is third of those four years.

USAF Enlisting Up to June 26; Competition Low

Sergeant William Rice, local Air Force recruiter, has announced that he has been authorized to enlist men for the USAF up to June 26, at which time all shipping will be stopped until July.

Sgt. Rice explained that he had been authorized to exceed his enlistment ceiling in June and those men enlisting now "will find the competition not quite so keen as during July, August and September when enlistments are very high."

He warned that there is a possibility that some of the men who can qualify will be ineligible to enlist at a later date. "Even under the current program, some high school graduates have failed to qualify. The mental standards are changing and it might be well for the forward looking person to analyze these facts and enlist now," Sgt. Rice continued.

The Air Force recruiter can be contacted at the Community Theatre Building.

Financing the Council's activities the latest year for which complete figures are available amounted to approximately $2.8 million.

Dinner Is Slated To Honor Resnick At Poughkeepsie

A prominent Ellenville resident, who combines leadership of several large industrial firms with wide community service, will be honored July 13 at the Hellenic Center in Poughkeepsie by friends of the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation.

The well-known business and philanthropic leader is Joseph Y. Resnick, of Diane Drive, Ellenville, and the occasion will also mark his 40th birthday.

Resnick attended Ellenville High School and during World War II was a radio officer in the Maritime Service. In 1947 he helped organize of the nation's largest firms producing TV antennas, Channel Masters Corporation, of which he is now Chairman of the Board. He is also a founder of Questron America, Inc. and last year was elected Man of the Year for the Sullivan County Hall of Fame.

Resnick is widely respected for his community and philanthropic activities. He has served as a member of the Ellenville School Board and was campaign chairman for the Rip Van Winkle Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He is a founder and officer of Boys Town, Jerusalem. Resnick contributed to the building of the new Veterans Memorial Hospital in Ellenville and his firm has built a baseball stadium for community use.

The Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, inspired by the late President Kennedy and chartered by Act of Congress, is dedicated to continuing the work which Eleanor Roosevelt would be doing were she alive today. Proceeds of the dinner will support the Foundation's programs for human rights, world peace, cancer research, and help to emotionally disturbed, underprivileged children. The Foundation will also build two Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Wings to the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park.

Resnick is married to the former Ruth Lehrer and his four children attend Ellenville's central schools.

"Here, we are deeply concerned with the effect this program can have upon our Ulster County people. The RD Symptom Alert has no money-raising aspect. It's geared exclusively to information and education," Dr. Schwartz emphasized, "and is produced entirely by our TB and Health Association as a public service financed by Christmas

State Police Sergeant Edward C. Matthews will be guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Ulster County Magistrates Association to be held Thursday night, June 25 at the County Court House.

Sergeant Matthews will explain the new laws that are to become effective this year in regards to Vehicle and Traffic violations.

Thursday's meeting will be the last session of the association until September. Samuel Stokes, president, urges all magistrates to attend as important matters are on the agenda.

Plans will be made for the summer outing. Business that must be transacted before the summer recess will be discussed.

Dr. Schwartz reminded the group that WGHQ, WKNY and WBAZ have placed a wide variety of specially prepared RD alert announcements in their programming and expressed the association's gratitude for this invaluable aid and support. He also noted that the association's weekly "Health in Action" radio program on WGHQ has given full coverage to the Respiratory Disease problem. The association's "Health for All" weekly columns in The Kingston Daily Freeman also have been concerned with Respiratory Disease information.

Dr. Schwartz noted that the RD Alert has the full support by the New York State Department of Health. The department's "Program Plan for Chronic Respiratory Disease" gives strong official approval of the shortness of breath-chronic cough type of symptom oriented public information effort.

EQUALITY OF EDUCATION

The big need in American public schools today is to establish equality of education, says Francis Keppel, who is commissioner of education in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

This does not necessarily mean desegregation, nor giving every child the same quality or amount of education. Paradoxically in Keppel's opinion, it means a deliberate inequality — on the positive side.

"It is time," he says, "that we recognize that children who have been deprived the most need the most, that in their schools they need more, not merely as much, as in other schools."

All too often education has been hesitant and immobile in the face of new challenges, Keppel maintains. He proposes six measures which he believes would make education "a creative agent for change" and not merely a "preserver of stability":

Begin working with children as young as 3 and 4 in nursery schools — "a powerful chance to cancel out deprivations that will otherwise affect every aspect of their lives."

Discard convenient assumptions about the disadvantage child's level of interest; instead, enrich all children's "horizons of experience" in such things as art and music and nature study.

Keep the schools open for perhaps 12 or 14 hours a day and 12 months a year, and offer programs for adults as well as children to make the schools a "full-time resource for the whole community."

Establish a firm and working alliance between the school and home—bring the parents in as partners in the educational enterprise "with an intensity unmatched in history."

Bring the schools into closer alliance with no longer isolated and apart from the community resources so that they are munity they serve.

Create a corps of dedicated teachers who have the "warmth and insight which no legislative act can accomplish."

There is little that is revolutionary about Keppel's recommendations. Some of them, such as parent-teacher co-operation have long been employed in most schools.

What would be revolutionary would be their adoption—with an "unmatched intensity"—in the nation's forgotten schools, whether they are in the slums behind Main Street or hidden in the hills beyond State Route 1.

NO ULTERIOR MOTIVE

A great sociological advancement of this election year is the discovery by both political parties that women are important.

President Johnson, who somehow had projected the image of a man who regarded the opposite sex primarily as dancing partners, is becoming increasingly convinced of their inherent right and ability to hold important governmental posts.

He is, accordingly, naming women right and left to high level jobs.

The Republicans can take a hint. So GOP members of the House Ways and Means Committee are now outraged over the fact that our ladies, heaven bless them, are still paying wartime federal excise taxes on such essential feminine accouterment as lipsticks, beauty creams, cosmetics, jewelry, purses and furs.

"It is difficult to understand," these congressional cavaliers remark acidly in shocked disbelief, "why an administration which professes to be so interested in furthering the career of the American woman should be so opposed to the repeal of these taxes which fall so heavily on American womanhood."

An impartial observer has to rate this as gallantry at its best. Sir Galahad, Sir Walter Raleigh or even Cary Grant couldn't have done better. And you can bet that LBJ and Democrats all down the line are squirming. You can't enjoy fighting chivalry!

The nicest thing about all this, really, is that you just know it has not occurred to either the dotting Democrats or the enrap-

'These Days'

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

ONCE AGAIN, THE VIEW FROM Ruritania
A while ago this column speculated upon what the foreign minister of a country, called Ruritania so as not to raise any hackles, might think of U. S. foreign policy, which seemed to be bent on rewarding enemies and doing dirt to friends. Our conclusion was that the Ruritanian would logically consider that the safest posture in this world would be to be firmly "neutral" against the U. S., meanwhile showing friendship for Khrushchev, Castro and Tito.

Well, time passes, and the foreign minister of Ruritania must be pricking up his ears. Could it be, so he must be asking himself, that the day is approaching when it will be safe to trust the U. S. once more?

The answer to this question must, at this point, be tentative. But the foreign minister of Ruritania, a fact-minded gentleman, could make something out of the pattern of the past six months that would be at least partially reassuring to him.

Item One: The appointment of Thomas Mann to coordinate our Latin American policy, which the "liberals" derided at the time, has resulted in a good deal of honesty in dealing with our anti-Communist friends south of the border. There has been no bewildering compromise with Leftists in Panama. In the case of Brazil, we had the good sense to recognize the regime which nipped a projected Castroite takeover of the country just as it was about to generate steam. In the case of Cuba, we seem to be letting the exiles do considerable pinpricking from unnamed bases, presumably in Central America, without cracking down on them as they move in and out of Miami.

Item Two: There is no disposition on the part of the Johnson Administration to get out of South Vietnam. Senator Wayne Morse calls it "McNamara's War," but he hasn't yet convinced President Johnson that the time has come to bring the boys home and let Southeast Asia go down the drain. As a matter of fact, Johnson has been stiffening about holding the line against Communism in that strategic part of the world. Goldwater scoffs at the "pickled" aircraft we have been sending the South Vietnamese, but at least they have wings and can fly. The story is that McNamara has become really engaged in South Vietnam because he has taken a personal liking to the new South Vietnamese boss, General Nguyen Khanh, even to the point of playing tennis with him. It is not normally a good rule to base foreign policy on personal likes and dislikes, but why look this particular gift horse in the mouth? The point is that McNamara has thrown away his computers and slide rules and made a moral commitment to stick by his friends.

Item Three: The fact that eight American jet planes have destroyed Communist gun emplacements in Laos after the local Pathet Lao had shot down American reconnaissance planes is the most reassuring turn in recent U. S. policy. By serving notice to the Laotian Left and their Red Chinese backers that we are prepared to give it for fat in the type of warfare the Communists have chosen to wage against us, we have redeemed our honor. And in bombing the Laotian Communist headquarters and letting the enemy wonder whether it was intentional or just a mistake, we have shown the world that psychological warfare is not the exclusive property of the Communists. Cheving on the foregoing items, the foreign minister of Ruritania might indeed decide that the U. S. is worth having as an ally and a protector. But the view from Ruritania must still reckon with some strange utterances by people who have the ear of Lyndon Johnson. There is the recent article by McGeorge Bundy in the April issue of "Foreign Affairs," for example. This article contains an incredible passage about Laos. "It was in Laos above all," so Mr. Bundy writes, "that one could see the advantage to both sides of even the most incomplete disengagement, as against a tightening and sharpening of confrontation."

Reading that sentence, the foreign minister of Ruritania might consider that if his country trusts the U. S. it runs the risk of being "neutralized," too, with the Communists getting from one-third to one-half of good Ruritanian real estate. A nice prospect. Better to keep the U. S. at arm's length as long as Mr. Bundy is around. (Copyright, 1964, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Any of a number of Causes

Can Give Child a Headache

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—Our 11-year-old son complains of a headache on both sides of his head. He says he gets it often, but has not wanted to talk about it. Is this serious?

A—There are many causes for headaches. If your son gets them often he should have a thorough examination. Common causes include fatigue, emotional upsets, eyestrain and chronic sinusitis. From this distance, I can be sure of only one thing; these are not migraine headaches. Although migraine usually starts in childhood, it affects only one side of the head.

Q—What would be the side effects of cortisone when given to a 2-year-old child over an extended length of time?

A—Much would depend on the cause for which this drug is given. In general, prolonged use might cause moonface, abnormal fat deposits, waterlogging, pimples, growth of hair on the face, dryness of the skin, thinning of the hair on the scalp, poor resistance to infection and delayed wound healing. I'm sure your doctor would not give this drug to a 2-year-old for long periods without good reason. He would probably keep the dose to the smallest amount that would give the needed effect. Discontinuation of the drug when it is done, must be gradual.

Q—My son has agammaglobulinemia. What is it and what is the treatment?

A—This is a deficiency of gamma globulin in the blood. The condition is congenital and, like color-blindness, may be transmitted by the mother, but is seen only in boys. Because gamma globulin helps us to fight infections, children with this deficiency get repeated infections and have a hard time to get rid of them.

The victims are especially susceptible to infections involving their joints. Injections of gamma globulin are given to help the victim overcome an infection, but the effect is not lasting and no permanent cure is known.

Q—Is it safe for a mother with asthma to breast feed her baby?

A—It is not only safe, but preferable. When babies develop asthma and other allergies, they usually get them from early infections or cow's milk.

tured Republicans that their tender solicitude may bring out a few more feminine votes for the side that gets there fastest with the mostest.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Newest U. S. strategy for Southeast Asia: hold up on attacking North Viet Nam; instead, try for a gambit that would play Soviet Union and Red China against each other in Laos and North Viet Nam.

U. S. use of force in North Viet Nam now might pull Russian's Khrushchev and Red China's Mao together on a common Southeast Asian policy. American diplomats reason. So the carry-the-war-to-the-North plan is being shelved for the present, kept ready as a threat. (It could be pulled off the shelf at a moment's notice.)

U. S. STRATEGISTS ARE PRETTY WELL CONVINCED the Soviet Union (through anti-Americanism) can't afford to have Red China gain paramount influence over Southeast Asia. Our diplomatic planners want to encourage that attitude.

A six-nation conference on Laos of the type proposed by Poland (attended by Britain, the Soviet Union, Poland, Canada, India and Laos) would put Russia in an inside leadership position and leave Red China outside and fuming. So the United States is backing these talks.

But one trouble with the Russians, as U. S. policymakers see the situation, is that they lack the courage to really buck the Red Chinese.

So when the conference convenes, the United States hopes to put the Russians on the spot as one of the two chief co-sponsors of the Laotian neutrality treaty. Our diplomats will produce a series of detailed aerial photographs showing conclusive evidence of treaty violation by the Pathet Lao, the Red Chinese and the North Vietnamese.

These pictures were taken by the Navy planes the United States recently put into Laos to fly reconnaissance. The United States may broadcast the pictures internationally, parade them before the United Nations.

GETTING THESE PICTURES was the real reason for putting reconnaissance planes into Laos; the Lao nationalist and conservative armies had been unable to supply the proof Americans believed necessary to influence world opinion dramatically.

U. S. diplomats believe the Russians wouldn't be happy about being exposed internationally as openly backing a military take-over of tiny Asian Laos by foreign (North Vietnamese and Chinese) Communists after sponsoring a neutrality treaty — especially when this take-over is against Russian interests.

This "exposure" would hurt Khrushchev's hopes to be considered the champion of small independent countries in Africa and elsewhere in the world.

The Russian story has been that the fighting in Laos is a revolt by unhappy peasant Lao-tians themselves, with no foreign Red interference.

AT THE SAME TIME IT WAS PUSHING the picture evidence, the United States would give the Russians motive to play ball and see that the truce is observed or watch the United States take military steps. The United States will not specify to the Russians what those military steps would be. American threats would be accompanied by discreet showings of force to make them convincing. Planners are working to get other nations to join in these threats and shows of force.

If the Russians should go along, and were successful, they would gain prestige in Southeast Asia (while leaving the door open for continuing native Communist fighting and for less blatant but nevertheless serious penetration of Laos from North Viet Nam).

But U. S. diplomats are willing to gamble that such a gain in Russian prestige would be less harmful to our aims than either continued Pathet Lao-North Vietnamese open military attacks in Laos or direct U. S. military action.

Quick Quiz

Q — From whom are the Negroes descended?

A — Noah had three sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The Bible says they founded the three great races of mankind. Ham was the second of the three sons. His name is often used by scholars when talking about African peoples.

He liked a horse in the fifth race called Centerville. It was the 7 horse. A horse named Billro was the 6 horse in the sixth race. The bell captain thought that was odd. His Kathleen was 7; his Billy was 6.

He got out of line and made the suckers' bet. He bet $2 on 7 and 6, the first half of the twin double. The BR was $18.83. While John was making his bet, Helen bet a hunch horse. The BR was $16.58. They met at the fence, and John watched it in silence. Centerville won handily, and paid $7.80 for $2. Helen's horse lost. McGrady always talks quietly that he had risked $2 on the twin double, and that the first one had just won.

Helen said: "Oh my God," as though some solemn miracle had come to pass. He said that his selection in the 6th was Billro, on account of little Billy. It was a rank outsider. Mrs. McGrady bet $2 on the nose. The bankroll was now $14.58. She and Alfreda stood at the rail and pounded and punched it as the horses thundered into the stretch. Billro won. He paid $66. The BR was $80.58.

Helen was hysterical. "Do you realize," she yelled, looking at her silent husband, "that you have the first half of the twin double? Do you realize what this means? We're practically rich."

McGrady shook his head. He didn't feel elated. "We still have to pick the winners of the eighth and ninth," he said. He jerked

There they met a man who said he'd give the McGrady $300 for the ticket. But he didn't have it. He took them to George Berger, who runs a travel bureau at the Diplomat. Berger said he'd buy half the ticket for $175. McGrady shook hands on it. "If this thing comes in," he said, "I also want your word that you'll give us a couple of free tickets to Europe." Berger nodded. They shook hands again. Berger said he didn't have the $175 with him. He'd pay it when they got back to the hotel. McGrady agreed. Then an argument started about who had the right to pick the winners of the 8th and 9th races. A big argument. The horses for the 8th were on their way to the post. . . .

Virginia School Dilemma: The Court or the People?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — A Federal court judge actually has threatened to put members of a County Board of Supervisors in jail unless they vote this week to appropriate money to reopen public schools and levy taxes to pay for them. The county board will do so, but under formal protest that the money is being illegally appropriated and that the action being taken is contrary to the specific wishes of the people as expressed in a public petition when the books were first closed.

This unprecedented situation may prove to be the climax of the whole controversy over segregation of public schools. For Judge Owen R. Lewis is acting at the direct behest of the Supreme Court of the United States. This is the first time in American history that a Federal court has told any legislative body how its members should vote and what funds it should appropriate.

Responding to public sentiment in the community, the Board of Supervisors of Prince Edward County in Virginia decided five years ago to close all public schools. Tuition grants were authorized by the state of Virginia for parents in all counties who wished to send their children to private schools. There was no discrimination in the grants as between white and Negro parents.

But now another Federal court judge in Virginia John D. Butzner Jr. has just ruled that parents in Surry County cannot continue to receive tuition grants for their children who attend private schools where racial discrimination is practiced. The public school attended hitherto by white children has been closed while the public schools attended by Negroes are the only ones open.

The Supreme Court of the United States in its guiding opinion for the lower court judges has stated that the public schools must be opened in Prince Edward County, because in nearly all of the other counties in Virginia public schools are open.

Does this mean that the Supreme Court of the United States at any time can threaten members of Congress, too, and tell them that, unless they cease to differentiate between different sections of the country in the matter of their appropriations, they also could go to jail for refusal to abide by the court's wishes?

Certainly the members of the local board in Virginia's Prince Edward County have been struggling in the last few days with a strange dilemma — to obey a court order or the wishes of the people of the country. If they decide to go to jail, would many people throughout the United States "demonstrate" in their support and extol them as martyrs? It seems to be popular nowadays for some citizens to dramatize controversial issues by street demonstrations so as to arouse public opinion, even if it means going to jail in behalf of certain causes. Adlai Stevenson, who twice ran for the Presidency of the United States on the Democratic ticket, said a few days ago in a college commencement address that "even a jail sentence is no longer a dishonor but a proud achievement."

It is reported that several citizens in Prince Edward County are already preparing to file suits in state courts to enjoin the county from trying to collect taxes illegally imposed and in disregard of the actual wishes of the county supervisors themselves. It would be charged that the appropriation was made under duress and is a form of blackmail.

The principle of local autonomy also is at stake. If cities and counties, for example, are to be regarded as merely administrative units of the state and their councils or Board of Supervisors are not to be considered autonomous, the question arises as to why the Supreme Court did not impose its decree on the Governor or the state Legislature, which presumably has complete power over the counties and cities.

The Prince Edward County ruling accentuates the far-reaching power assumed by the Supreme Court to prescribe how education shall be operated. Education has always been considered a state function in the Supreme Court decisions since the Republic was founded. Now, however, the rulings indicate that restrictions upon financial aid given private schools and colleges by Federal, state, county or city governments may be imposed by the Supreme Court.

Thus, apart from the interference with the operations of the public school system, a new controversy has been opened by the Supreme Court. It revolves around the right of the court to use the 14th Amendment to compel county governments to levy taxes and appropriate money for a specified purpose. This right, which heretofore been completely free from such interference, has always been considered to be, under the Constitution, the prerogative solely of legislative bodies.

The Killing—Part One

Helen said she'd like to have a day off. Kathleen was almost over chicken pox. The care of four children, ranging from 7 years of age to fifteen months, can crack a mother. John D. McGrady looked up from the morning paper and said: "How about the truck?" Helen liked the idea. Her husband said that Gulfstream would close tomorrow. Helen called her sister Alfreda and said they'd meet in front of the grandstand.

It was a hot day. Waves of heat shimmered from the roof of the McGrady house in Miramar, Florida. John was glad he had the day off. He is short and dark and slender, with patent-leather hair and the casual conversation of the Metropolitan New Yorker. As bell captain at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood. The pay is about $45 a week, and the tips average $60 a week.

McGrady is no gambler. He is careful with pennies. So is Helen. They bought the little house in Miramar for $11,990 five years ago. They owe $7,000 now. By the time they found a baby sitter, and gave the little ones lunch, it was 1 p. m. "We'll never make the first race," John said. Helen grimaced at the clock. "I wanted to bet the daily double," she said.

When they left home she had $25 in cash. John had $6. "Out of this," John said, driving east to Route One, "we have to leave enough for a couple of beers." She said he could have the beer. They got to the big track at 1:45 and paid $4 for grandstand tickets. The McGrady's now had $27. The first race was over.

The place was jammed with the last of the Florida finery as the season closed. Helen is a big pleasant woman, a little pale from Lebanon. She met her sister Alfreda behind the fence at the finish line. The women talked, and Helen bet $2 on a horse in the second race. He came in third. The BR was $25. She was still talking as she bet $2 in the third. The horse was out of the money. The McGrady's had $23.

John went to a bar under the grandstand and got a beer for 42 cents. "It's hot out there," he said to the bartender. The man took the money, and said nothing. The BR was $22.58. Helen picked another horse to win in the 4th. He lost. The BR was $20.58. The ladies were asked if they wanted a cold drink. They said no. Helen said she'd like to bet $2 on the twin double.

"Hat!" John said. "We can't pick one race. How can we pick four in a row?" Helen said: "Try it, Johnny. We don't get to a track three times a year. Why not take a big gamble?" He shook his head. "Because it's a sucker's bet, that's why."

The crowd began to saunter to the mutual windows. They queued up like lambs who supervise their own fleeing. McGrady lined up at the $2 win window.

He liked a horse in the fifth race called Centerville. It was the 7 horse. A horse named Billro was the 6 horse in the sixth race. The bell captain thought that was odd. His Kathleen was 7; his Billy was 6.

Kennedys Stay While There Are Jobs to Do

AUBURN, N. Y. (AP) —The largest crowd ever to attend a Democratic function in Cayuga County Sunday night heard a pledge from Sen. Edward Kennedy that his family intends to remain in public life "as long as there is a job to do."

The Massachusetts senator was injured seriously in a plane crash Friday night and his speech was read to the 1,279 persons at a fund-raising dinner of the Cayuga County Democratic Committee.

He had written: "Some people have asked whether, after all this has happened, the Kennedys intend to remain in public life. The answer is, as long as there is a job to do, we intend to do it."

Kennedy's speech did not elaborate on what had happened, but it was clear that he referred to the assassination of his brother, President John F. Kennedy.

"We intend to devote ourselves to the principles and programs of which the President lived and eradication of the hatred and extremism that took him away," he wrote.

Orleans County Fire Damage Over $100,000

ALBION, N. Y. (AP) —Damage may exceed $100,000 in a fire that destroyed two buildings and caused heavy damage to a third in the business section of this Orleans County community. Five firemen suffered minor injuries in battling the early morning blaze Sunday.

Twenty persons were forced to flee apartments in the buildings.

The fire broke out in the rear of Perfecto Dry Cleaners, next to the community fire station. The dry cleaning shop and the adjoining Navarra Restaurant were destroyed.

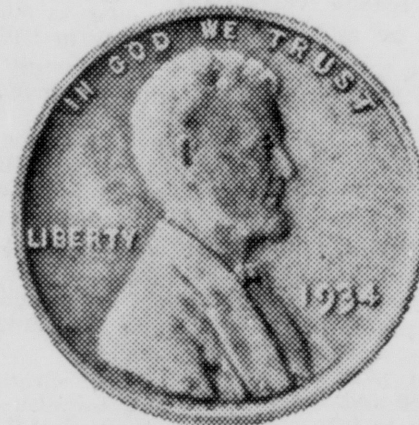

The nearby offices of the Orleans Republican American, a

Dutchess Driver Races Trooper, Faces 4 Charges

Pursued by a state trooper at speeds in excess of 95 miles an hour late Sunday night, Howard Adams, 40, of Route 44, Town of Pleasant Valley, was arrested on four charges and ordered confined to the Dutchess County jail pending sobriety.

South Millbrook State Police said Adams was charged with speeding, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, resisting arrest and second degree assault.

According to authorities, State Trooper Dennis Ferrick spotted a car driven by Adams speeding west on Route 44. The trooper pursued the vehicle at speeds up to 95 miles an hour and overtook it at the Sharon Turnpike intersection.

While Trooper Ferrick was arresting Adams, on charges of speeding and drunken driving, authorities said, the motorist punched the trooper in the stomach as he snapped the handcuffs on the man.

While the two were engaged in a struggle, Trooper C. F. Coran, who was off duty was passing with his wife, went to assist in the arrest. Adams was subdued.

Adams was scheduled for arraignment later today before Justice of the Peace C. Allerton Morey, Town of Washington. He was ordered held in the county jail pending a court appearance.

Physicians Tough When It Comes To Own Physicals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The average physician is as fearful as anybody else when it comes to getting a physical examination, say doctors attending the American Medical Association convention.

"Getting a doctor to a physical examination is harder than breaking a wrestler's arm," said Dr. Harvey Widroe, of Berkeley, Calif.

The thousands of doctors attending the weeklong convention are urged to take extensive physical checkups by a special clinic, without charge. In past years, such clinics have done a poor business.

Plane Upturned By 'Chuck Hole; Pilot Uninjured

A 32-year-old Poughkeepsie pilot narrowly escaped injury at 4:15 p. m. Sunday when his 1945 Aerona plane struck a wood-chuck hole and flipped over in an open field on the property of Charles Hoffman south of Red Hook and west of Route 9.

Rhinebeck State Police said John Andrew Toth Jr., of 11 Grubb Street, Poughkeepsie, took off from the Kingston Airport shortly after 4 p. m. for a flight to Palen Airport in Red Hook. The plane's motor developed engine trouble and Toth made a forced landing.

He told troopers he had tried to reach a cornfield but lost altitude and the aircraft hit the hole and overturned. Toth was uninjured. The plane was righted and secured pending examination by the Federal Aviation Agency investigators.

Trooper Michael O'Hara said it appeared the plane escaped with minor damage.

Homemade Rocket Explodes Injuring Boy

A 13-year-old Orange County boy was injured Saturday when a homemade rocket exploded prematurely as he attempted to attach a fuse.

Newburgh State Police said Peter Karrassic, Lakeside Road, Town of Newburgh, was treated for lacerations of the arms which required six sutures.

Police said the boy and two companions were attempting to try out the rocket in a barn owned by Peter's father. They had placed a carbon dioxide cartridge in a pipe on top of broken matches and the injured boy was trying to force the fuse in the pipe when the cartridge exploded.

Cleaners Burglarized

Local police were notified this morning of a burglary at Tops Drive-in Cleaners, 520 Albany Avenue. No money was reported missing, and check on clothing to determine if any was missing was not completed this afternoon. Entrance was gained by the breaking of a side window. A safe in the building was not touched.

ENDS UP IN DITCH—This was a result of a mishap Friday night on West O'Reilly near Belmont Street. Officer Junius Harris inspects the convertible driven by John D. DeKoskie, 20, of 26 Snyder Avenue, who said he swerved to avoid an oncoming vehicle. Edward Prendergast, 19, of 69 Brewster Street, was treated at Kingston Hospital for a cut over the right eye. DeKoskie was charged with failure to keep right, and was fined $5 in city court Saturday. Police said skid marks indicated the car had traveled at considerable speed.

Neutrality

government demanded his return. The Russians for years maintained that they knew nothing about Wallenberg but in 1957 admitted he had been imprisoned in Russia and claimed he died in Lubianka Prison in Moscow in 1947.

Subsequently the Swedish government found increasing evidence that Wallenberg was alive. He was said to be in a prison in Vladimir, 12 miles east of Moscow, as late as 1954.

Asks Postponement

The Soviet leader sent a radio message from his ship requesting a postponement of political talks scheduled for this afternoon.

Khrushchev gave no reason. But Swedish officials privately hazarded the guess that he was a weary man after his visit to Denmark.

Tage Erlander, Sweden's Socialist premier, said on the eve of Khrushchev's arrival that the country would not be diverted from its neutralist policy and would oppose any attempt to change "the status quo in Europe."

Foreign Minister Torsten Nilsson stressed the point at a government reception Sunday night—indicating that Sweden would present the same bland face to Khrushchev's political salesmanship that Denmark showed him.

Awaiting the Soviet premier were 5,000 Swedish policemen, many of them armed with newly issued pistols. It was Sweden's biggest security drive of modern times.

Leaflets and posters denouncing Khrushchev as a murderer and hangman were scattered through the streets of Stockholm. Some flayed Khrushchev as the "Butcher of Budapest."

Kennedy's

as did other members of the Kennedy family.

Pressure Improves

Kennedy and Bayh, 36—the two youngest members in the U.S. Senate—had their first meeting Sunday since the crash.

Kennedy was taken out of oxygen as doctors reported his blood pressure and breathing considerably improved.

Kennedy was en route from Washington to the Massachusetts Democratic convention in Springfield when the plane crashed in an apple orchard in Southampton.

Killed instantly was the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, 48, of Andover, Mass. Kennedy's aide, Edward Moss, 41, also of Andover, died about seven hours after the crash.

Paltzman Contest Airman's Permit; Can't Stand Noise

A New Paltz Zoning Appeals Board official made known Saturday that "a couple of complaints" have been filed by residents opposing issuance of a permit to an airport operator in Libertyville Road.

Abram W. Paradies, chairman of the town Appeals Board, said an application for a permit filed by Carl E. Confer, operator of the airport, will be discussed and probably acted upon at a hearing Wednesday night in the Town Hall.

Dr. Edith C. Russell, Libertyville Road, stated she will attend the hearing with other area residents. Dr. Russell reportedly said, "No one wants to live next to that sort of racket."

The airport has been in operation since 1958. It has a 2,300-foot runway and maintains a flight school. Confer has expressed doubt whether the airport needed a permit since it was in operation before zoning was started in the town.

Paradies said the airport has been operating without a permit due to an oversight.

Two Are Injured In Cycle Mishap

Jerry Quick, 41, and his wife Augusta, 37, of Kerhonkson were taken to Kingston Hospital Sunday night by George J. Moylan ambulance when they were treated and released.

Both suffered injuries when the motorcycle which Quick was operating west on Route 213 about 500 feet west of the Marlborough School struck crushed stone on the highway and he lost control.

Quick suffered an injury to his ankle and his wife received body abrasions and contusions. BCI Investigator Charles Teele and Michael Mahoney of the Ellenville station, who were traveling just behind the motorcycle, reported the cycle was traveling at about 15 miles an hour where crushed stone which had been placed in the center of the road in a construction area had apparently been scattered by passing traffic and rolled into the driving lane. The operator struck the crushed stone and was thrown from the motorcycle.

Marbletown Home Gutted by Fire

The home of E. Van Dyke Basten on Route 209 in Town of Marbletown was completely gutted by fire Saturday afternoon.

Origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Basten left the premises shortly after noon. About 3 p. m., as William Lanier was passing the premises he observed smoke coming from the place and ran to a neighboring home where a call was sent to Mutual Aid.

When the firemen arrived they found the fire well advanced in the one story frame house and the Marbletown firemen summoned aid from Hurley Department, which responded with two trucks.

Chief John Decker said the cause of the fire was unknown and there was no estimate of the loss. Saturday evening about 6:30 o'clock the Marbletown firemen were called back to the scene when the fire was rekindled.

At 3:02 p. m. Sunday Rosendale firemen were summoned through Mutual Aid for a brush fire and forest fire. Aid was sought from Binnewater, Tillson, Rifton and St. Remy.

Mutual Aid also reported a car fire in Ellenville Sunday and also a brush fire in New Paltz across from the Veterans of Foreign Wars home in the north end of the village.

Several other grass and brush fires were reported over the weekend through Mutual Aid.

Brush Fire Checked

Firemen checked a brush fire near 389 First Avenue Sunday. Units from Central Station and the Union Company answered a call at 6:04 p. m. A booster line was used.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The way most Americans are handling their pocketbooks these days is pleasing both the merchants and the economic score keepers. That doesn't always happen.

ing more—which gratifies the merchants and the dealers—but not too much more—which reassures the statisticians and the planners.

This is a lot different from what many were predicting a while back.

At first some economic experts worried out loud lest Americans go on a buying binge when federal income tax rates were cut. February retail sales did make an unusually good showing, just ahead of final congressional action.

Early reports showed March retail sales down a bit and April's even slower. This worried those who feared the consumer wasn't going to come through nobly and help send the economy to new heights with his spending.

Now the Department of Commerce has revised its figures. It finds that April retail sale really went up instead of down. May figures climbed still higher to a record $21.7 billion. Latest preliminary reports show that in the last four weeks sales of both durable and nondurable goods rose 6 per cent above the like 1963 period.

The increase relieved the minds of the merchants, at least the lucky ones who shared in the gains they had been counting on. It also comforted the economic planners who want the tax cut to give the economy a nice boost.

Just as pleased are those who find the increased consumer spending well below the splurge level. No boom has developed, nor is one foreshadowed as yet.

Bankers also are keeping an eye on the trends in consumer debt. At Morgan Guaranty Trust Company, New York, it's noted that the total of such debt apparently increased less during the April and May advance in retail buying than it did in the first three months of the year. The bank thinks "this augurs well for continued retail strength as the year wears on," because it puts consumers in a good position to spend after making monthly installment payments.

This ability to spend still worries some, despite the consumer's performance so far.

The economist of the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, New York, agrees that "the inflationary and anti-inflationary forces in the United States are well balanced at present." But he sees inflation as seemingly gaining ground.

Local Man Named 2nd Term Leader Of Hospital Group

Robert M. Schnitzer, administrator of Kingston Hospital, was reelected president of the Hospital Association of Southeastern New York at the annual meeting in Newburgh June 18.

Also reelected were Louis E. Breglia, administrator of Vassar Brothers Hospital, Poughkeepsie, vice president; and Evald Borskoef, administrator of Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, secretary-treasurer.

The Association's membership includes 23 hospitals in the six counties of Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan and Ulster. Its purpose is to coordinate the services of these hospitals and to foster a closer relationship between the hospitals and other health and welfare agencies.

Principal speaker at the annual meeting was Dr. Jack C. Haideman, president of the Hospital Review and Planning Council of Southern New York. He described plans for coordinating future expansion of hospitals in the Council area to insure equitable distribution of hospital beds and measures helpful to controlling rising hospital costs.

State, sponsored by the American Legion.

The youths will elect city officials today and choose a governor Thursday. Mock legislative sessions Thursday and Friday will end the program.

Cites Violations Of Wildlife Law

Division of fish and game personnel in Region 8 have received many more reports than usual of persons who have picked up young protected wildlife, an act in violation of the conservation law.

Region 8 comprises Ulster, Dutchess, Orange, Sullivan, Putnam, Westchester and Rockland counties.

Warren H. McKeon, regional supervisor, warns residents and vacationers against attempts to possess fawn and raccoons, animals particularly guarded by the state restriction.

Woodchucks, opossums and similar species may be taken legally and owned as pets, the supervisor adds.

Keating Says CR Vote Hurts Barry's Chances

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., says Sen. Barry Goldwater's vote against the civil rights bill has hurt Goldwater's chances of election, should he win the GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater's negative vote "places him with a tiny minority of Congress in opposition to the Republican leadership in both houses," Keating told a news conference.

He said the Arizona senator's stand might gain him some support in southern and border states but would cost him votes in New York City, the Northeast and the Far West in a presidential election.

Keating was in Syracuse Saturday to attend the Intercollegiate Rowing Association regatta and to speak to a service club.

Barry Trims Johnson

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater was favored over President Johnson by nearly 2½-to-1 in a poll of area newspaper readers, asked to choose between the two.

The Arizona Republican, considered the front-runner for the GOP nomination, got 1,667 votes to the Democratic president's 707. Only Johnson and Goldwater were listed on the ballot.

The results of the poll, which covered 25 counties, were released Saturday by the Syracuse Post-Standard.

PORT EWEN NEWS

Village Activities

All members of the Port Ewen Fire Department will meet at the firehouse Wednesday 7:30 p. m. to receive instruction on water rescue and drowning procedure. Lt. A. F. Van Driever of the New York State Police will be instructor.

The Cub Pack 26 trip to the National Scout Museum at New Brunswick, N. J., was reported a huge success.

Uniform inspection for Troop 26 Boy Scouts will be held Tuesday. Parents will see that badges are properly placed on clean, regulation uniforms.

Saturday 9 a. m. Troop 26 will conduct a paper drive through Port Ewen, Clay Road, Sleightsburg and New Salem to Route 213. Residents should put all papers, magazines and rags securely tied on porches for pick up.

Troop 26 Court of Review and parents night is set for June 30 at 7:30 p. m. at the Port Ewen Reformed Church Hall. Boys will receive badges and awards. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers Club Auxiliary.

Area Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Signor Sr. of Clay Road will celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary June 23. They have a son Lowell Jr. of Winterhaven, Fla. and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkin of Port Ewen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pisek and Mr. and Mrs. J. Drake of New Jersey spent the weekend at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Secor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent. Mrs. Drake, formerly Miss Jessie Vincent, is a niece of the late H. H. Vincent. They also attended the 25th anniversary dinner of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rockefeller.

The only upkeep recommended for cedar closets is an occasional dusting.

Sails to Other Side Drawbridge Opens, Car

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—Just like those chase scenes in the movies, a car sailed from one side of an opening drawbridge to the other last night, police reported.

Raymond Spinosi, 28, of Scranton, Pa. was approaching the U. S. 1 bridge over the Housatonic River when the bridge began to open.

Unable to stop, Spinosi's car went over the top and landed upright six feet away on the other section of the bridge. He was uninjured but his car was damaged.

Police said a lever which unlocks the bridge mechanism apparently tripped accidentally.

Investor Forum

Harry C. France

The Government and Stockholders

Within the past 30 years, the Federal debt has increased by more than 1,000 per cent. At the same time, the Dow-Jones industrial stock averages have advanced 1,000 per cent.

Is this a coincidence? In some respects it is. But the relationship deeply concerns all investors. Debt pumped into our banking system creates money and as the volume of money grows, its purchasing power declines and the deterioration of the dollar causes prices, wages, costs, and taxes to increase.

Congress is about to approve a higher ceiling on the Federal debt. With the United States Government spending more than it takes in (despite confiscatory taxation), a proposal has been made in Washington to boost the debt ceiling to $324,000,000,000!!!

With a population of around 190,000,000 in the United States, such a debt averages $1,700 a person. A family of four in terms of this debt, owes $6,800. America is building up for our children and our children's children a colossal future debt. Years ago, when the Federal debt hit $80,000,000,000 I spent a day in Wall Street talking with the top officers of five inter-national banks. All thought the debt was too high and our leading world bankers thought that America might keep a debt of $100 billion afloat.

An right now, it is three times that size.

Individuals buy on three-year credit. And credit managers usually demand that the recipients of such credit have good jobs and steady income.

But Uncle Sam violates all such principles. He has been borrowing his head off for 30 years and, as a consequence, his debt has boomed for three decades.

Despite his credit standing and his taxation power, he cannot hold back the forces of inflation which undermine the purchasing power of the dollar.

And investors, seeking some refuge from the operation of these forces, are buying common stocks.

My belief is that the higher the Federal debt goes, the higher stock prices will advance.

There is little logic in that statement. But the psychological forces in the hearts and heads of millions of dollar owners will cause them to search out values that will somewhat protect the buying power of their money.

Almost daily, I am asked: "Are General Motors, General Electric, Du Pont, Union Carbide, Morgan Guaranty Trust, First National Bank of Chicago, United States Steel too high in price?"

The answer is no, if the present Federal deficits continue and tax schedules remain as they are.

Volume on the New York Stock Exchange is rising. More and more investors are turning to this great institution to buy the best equity values in the world. This is logical procedure.

And millions of stockholders, fearful of the future of the dollar and hedged in by large capital gains taxes, refuse to sell a share of stock in which they have large profits.

That is the picture today.

The Forum

(Q) From a sample letter: "For 20 years, I have had $50,000 in banks. Is it too late to buy stocks?"

(A) How pathetic! Fifty thousand dollars invested in prime common stocks 20 years ago would be worth $250,000 today. No, it isn't too late.

Complete Fiscal Exams Of 3 Saugerties Units

ALBANY—State Comptroller Arthur Levitt today announced the completion of the examination of fiscal affairs of a number of towns, villages, schools and other special districts throughout the State, including three in Town of Saugerties.

The Saugerties units are Centerville Fire District, Glasco Fire District and Consolidated Health District.

Copies of the examination reports have been sent to the clerk and other officials of the units of government examined. Since the reports are a part of the public record, they are available for review by interested citizens.

A copy of each of the reports is also on file at the Department of Audit and Control in Albany and is available for public inspection.

Suit Preference Cues Work Well

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

South should have opened one heart, instead of one spade. He had no real reason to go on to four spades after West's double and his partner's jump to three, but he was most unfortunate to wind up going down four tricks when Arthur Robinson and Bob Jordan of Philadelphia discovered a perfect defense. Of course, South could have reduced the carnage several ways, but the defense was really beautiful.

East's ten of clubs forced South's ace at trick one. South led a club to dummy's king. East played the three. When South led the club queen from dummy, Bob (East) played the six spot.

South discarded a diamond and Arthur (West) ruffed. He studied a while in order to figure out why Bob had played the six instead of the five. It couldn't be a come-on. Bob knew that Arthur held no more clubs. Hence it had to be a suit preference call for a heart lead. Arthur led the ace and then the nine of hearts.

Bob ruffed, then studied that nine of hearts lead, decided it was a suit preference for a diamond and put Arthur in with the queen.

This time Arthur led his lowest heart, the three. Bob ruffed again, studied a while and decided there had been a suit preference call for a club. He led his jack. South ruffed with the queen, and Bob overruffed with the king.

Then he led his last heart, and Bob was able to overruff dummy's nine with the ten.

Culver, service officer; Meyer Kaplan, welfare officer; Albert G. Gruner, athletic officer; and William F. Hanley, trustee for three years. The executive committee includes Frank T. Roedel, George C. Heppner, James M. Turner and Gilpatrick. (Freeman photo)

Director Surveys UR's Development For Area Realtors

At the regular business meeting of the Ulster County Board of Realtors held at the Governor Clinton Hotel last week, Ralph Marallo, Relocation Director of Urban Renewal, gave a talk of the progress made and answered questions pertaining to Urban Renewal.

Lawrence J. MacAvery, chairman of the nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1964-65. The slate is Robert Kershaw, president; Peter Weider, first vice-president; Adele Royael, 2nd vice-president; Reta Frederick, secretary; and Ralph Carpino, treasurer. Election of officers will be held at the September meeting with installation in October.

Peter Weider, delegate to the New York State Association Convention, submitted a report. Raymond Korzeniorfer, regional vice-president of the Lower Hudson Valley area also reported.

President Dewey Logan announced he would appoint a committee for the installation banquet to be held in October. A committee meeting will make arrangements at a future date.

There will be meetings during July and August.

Boy Injured When Bicycle-Car Crash

A Sunset Park boy was injured at about 10 a. m. today when his bicycle was involved in a collision with a car on Plainfield Street near the entrance to the Wallace Co. rear parking lot.

Deputy Sheriff Carl Swenson said Thomas Harry Kaiser, 11, son of Mrs. Laura Kaiser, of Pine Place, Sunset Park, was taken to Kingston Hospital by Doctor's ambulance. He suffered multiple bruises and abrasions of the head, left leg and right foot, and a possible fracture of the left knee.

The deputy stated the boy rode his bicycle from the parking lot into the path of a car driven by Mrs. William Hanley of 165 Wrentham Street, who applied the brakes of her car as soon as the boy appeared in front of it, but was unable to avoid the mishap.

Sentencing Postponed

Kenneth A. Payne, 20, of 15 Crescent Street, Medford, Mass., charged with third degree assault Saturday afternoon, pleaded guilty in city court today, and sentence was put over to June 25 to permit a pre-sentencing investigation. Bail of $200 was not immediately posted.

Police said the charge was lodged by Mary E. Fuller, whose address was not given.

Faces Speeding After Motorcycle, Car in Collision

A driver was charged with speeding after a car-motorcycle mishap and two persons were injured in two others over the weekend.

Vincent H. Rudolph, 39, of 102 Hone Street, was charged with speeding after the car he drove and a motorcycle operated by Jacob C. Senor Jr., 26, of Colonial Gardens collided on Broadway near O'Neill Street early Sunday.

Gloria Mary Senor, 24, of Colonial Gardens, was treated at Kingston Hospital for hip and arm injuries. She was taken there by Doctors' Ambulance.

Rudolph pleaded innocent in city court today and trial was set down for July 23. Police said different versions were given as to how the accident happened.

Officers Ira Hadel and Oscar Gray investigated.

Stephen Connelly, 12, of 51 Jefferson Avenue, was treated at the Benedictine Hospital for leg and foot injuries when the bicycle he rode and a car driven by Irving Wilpan, 51, of 314 Main Street, were involved in a mishap on Main Street near Lafayette Avenue, reported at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Sally Bissett, 17, of 53 Mountain View Avenue, suffered a neck injury in a two car mishap on Pine Grove Avenue at 7:15 p. m. Sunday. She was treated by a doctor.

The one car was driven by Benson A. Krom Jr., of 77 Valentine Avenue, and the other by Philip Gerlach, 43, of Brabant Road. Officer Thomas Coffey investigated.

Keep Watch on Liner Fire

HOBOKEN, N.J. (AP)—Firemen kept watch over the smoking ruins of No. 2 hold on the Grace Lines freighter Santa Ana today while Coast Guard officials prepared to try to find out what caused the day-long blaze.

The fire, which almost caused the docked vessel to capsize, was brought under control 10 hours after it broke out Sunday. Sixteen firemen were injured.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market resumed its advance early this afternoon led by steels, autos and rails. Trading was fairly slow.

The trend was higher from the start of the session. Trading in steel issues was lively as industry orders held up well at a time when a summer lull is normally expected. U.S. Steel was up around a full point and Jones and Laughlin even a little more than that.

The noon Dow Jones industrial average was up 2.18 at 827.43.

Supervisors Pass Erwin Road Plan; Awaits State OK

The Erwin Plan for the improvement of town highways in the Town of Plattekill was approved at last week's meeting of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors. Under the plan the town will receive over $37,000 in State aid.

According to Supervisor Joseph Martorana, the plan calls for improvement, repair and reconstruction of 16 miles of town highways over a period of 7 years starting in 1965. Earlier this month the Town Board of the Town of Plattekill approved the proposed plans. The County Superintendent of Highways also indicated his approval and the plans must now be approved by the State District Engineer and the State Superintendent of Public Works.

Under the proposed highway improvement program, all work will be under the control and supervision of the Town Superintendent of Highways, subject to inspection by the County Superintendent and the State District Engineer. Roads will be rebuilt to meet the minimum State specifications as to width, depth, shoulders and materials used.

Supervisor Martorana, commenting on the plan, stated that although the initial cost of reconstructing town roads may be higher because of the higher road-building standards, the difference will be reduced considerably, if not completely, upon the receipt of state aid and the lower annual maintenance costs over the years. In addition, the plan provides a long range plan to meet the residential, commercial, and industrial needs of the community.

Martorana added also that the improvement of town highways will keep pace with the improvement of County and State highways presently underway in the township.

Town roads to be improved under the program include South Street, Bedell Avenue, Unionville Road, Hull Avenue, Freetown Highway, Cotter Road, Jenkins Lane, Old Mill Road, Cliff Avenue, Allhusen Road, Mowbray Road, and Church Street. Primary consideration was given to highways used by school buses and rural mail carriers.

Town roads not included in the plan will be improved and maintained under general highway repairs. It is contemplated that participation in the Erwin Plan will result in building better and longer-lasting roads in the Town of Plattekill.

Ulrich Reelected

Seated with the guest speaker at the head table were the Democratic candidates, Mrs. Jackson of Newburgh, reelected financial secretary; Charles F. Fales, Stony Point, reelected recording secretary; Henry Kemmel, Beacon, treasurer.

The next Hudson Valley convention will be held in Ticonderoga the third week in June 1965.

The Associated Press reported that among the heat victims, the most seriously ill were taken in ambulances, fire trucks and a school bus to Glens Falls Hospital, about nine miles away.

Others were treated in a first aid room at Lake George Central School, and an emergency headquarters and in private homes.

Most of those stricken were young band members. Others were volunteer firemen and spectators.

Paul J. Hatchford, captain of the Lake George Emergency Squad, estimated that up to 300 persons were overcome Saturday as the temperature climbed to 94 and the humidity ran high.

About 50 to 60 persons were treated at the hospital. The only two admitted were released Sunday.

Driver Fined Today In Kingston Court

A driver charged with speeding as a second offender was fined $50 in city court today and four others booked for speeding were fined a total of $50.

Thomas Byrnes, 54, of 29 Mary's Avenue, paid the $50.

Clarence Wynkoop, 35, of Van Buren Street, charged with speeding and lacking a license, was fined $15 on the former and the other charge was dismissed when he produced the license.

Charged with speeding and fined $10 each were Stanley Earle, 41, of Bridge Street, Wallkill, and Dale Brenner, 23, of Rosendale. Dolores Doyle, 35, of Cortekill, was fined $15.

Scranton Happy

Democratic national and state tickets to poll decisive margins in the state in November.

—Wisconsin Gov. John W. Reynolds, who won the Wisconsin presidential primary as a stand-in for the President, released the state's 46 convention votes to Johnson. The delegation voted to "abide by President Johnson's decision" on his vice presidential running mate.

—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, returning to his Waverly, Minn., home after Senate passage of the civil rights bill, received a sign-waving welcome Saturday from civil rights supporters. New figures in the Minneapolis Tribune's copyright Minnesota Poll showed he had forged ahead of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy as a vice presidential favorite of Democrats and independents.

—Kennedy, who has been considering running for the Senate in New York, was attacked indirectly by another possibility for the nomination, Rep. Samuel Stratton of upstate New York. In a prepared speech for a Boys State meeting at Hamilton, N. Y., Stratton decried "the growing tendency to focus on nationally famous personalities as candidates for public office, rather than on those with more plausible local reputations but less nationwide glamor."

—Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace, bringing his independent presidential campaign to North Carolina, told a news conference at Raleigh his mission was to "get the liberals off the backs of the people."

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

Lack of Bonds Exempt From State, Federal Tax

Q — "Will you please recommend an investment of $25,000 in bonds exempt from both Federal income taxes and similar levies in my own state? I would like to get the best possible return with safety. I am in the 38 per cent income bracket."

H. P.

A — In your bracket I think you are wise to consider tax-exempts. There appears to be, at present, a dearth of bonds such as you stipulate.

I am going to take the liberty of suggesting some general market issues, wholly exempt from Federal income taxes, but subject to such taxes in your own state. I believe the difference in taxable equivalent yield will not be great.

I suggest Dallas (Texas) Independent School District 3.10's due 1988, offered to yield 3.15 per cent (taxable equivalent, 5.08 per cent). I like also State of California 3 1/2's of 2,000 on a 3.55 basis (taxable equivalent, 5.73) and Port of New York Authority 3 1/2's of 1995 selling at 100 (taxable equivalent, 5.63).

Q — "My wife and I bought 100 shares of Magnavox. After rising for a while, it fell a few points below our purchase price. Do you think this is only temporary, or do you advise sale?"

R. S.

A — I'm very sorry indeed that you have a loss in Magnavox. This is a very strong stock that saw earnings decline in 1963 for only the second time in the past decade.

The reason for the drop was twofold. Magnavox is a very smart merchandiser, but last year it appeared to lag its competitors in the strong color-TV business. Also, military orders fell off, which contributed to the earnings decline.

I believe that net will be up this year, with bigger production of color-TV sets and a rise in military business. For these reasons it is my opinion that the decline in Magnavox is temporary.

I advise you to hold your stock for recovery.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Plan Daylight Marches

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Negro integrationists planned new daylight demonstrations today while preparing to attack a state ban keeping them from marching at night.

The new round of events was planned after simultaneous demonstrations by whites and Negroes. The bands of about 120 Negroes and more than 300 whites passed each other on opposite sides of the street Sunday in one of the more dramatic encounters of this city's recent racial unrest.

The street between the two groups was filled with state and local police who were conveying each parade.

"Only a Few Minutes from Wherever You Live"

Stamp Hobbyists Eye Soviet Space Activity Through Current Issues

BY CHARLES M. MCCARTHY
Freeman Staff Writer

Soviet Russia — which manufactures its history by secrecy — either wittingly or unwittingly is letting the world know about its space activity through the medium of stamps.

And even the philatelist — stamp hobbyist — has to check and double check his facts to determine the accuracy of the stamp.

Recently the Soviet Union issued a stamp bearing a medalion with three profiles next to a picture of a monument. Apparently there was little attendant information about the stamp, although a stamp is understood to commemorate an historic event, or person.

All the evidence there was pointed out that "P. F. Fedoseenko, I. D. Usyskin and A. B. Vasenko" were being memorialized by Russia, but apparently even informed philatelists didn't know why.

An Old Honor
Stamp hobbyists Lowell Hellard, and Mrs. Hellard, of 99 West Chestnut Street, however, weren't satisfied. Determined to find out through the medium of Hellard's king-sized space collection, they turned up this fact: the recently-issued Russian space stamp commemorated the erection of a monument to Messrs. Fedoseenko, Usyskin and Vasenko — who died in a stratosphere balloon accident in 1934.

The stamp had the collectors stumped.

A qualified specialist, writing in a stamp collector's publication, repeatedly posed the question that, with the "superb organization of Soviet space shots, which are planned down to the finished stamp issue for release on the date of the attempt, complete with portrait of astronaut and planned time of flight, duration, and orbital inclination, there must be some fascinating 'unissued'."

"Unissued" here means stamps which have been minted but not yet issued on the stamp market for circulation.

Never Took Place
The curious thing about it all, the writer said, was that stamps were ready for issuance, but they commemorated space shots that never took place due to last minute technical difficulties or went off and failed, perhaps claiming lives. Brothers Fedoseenko, Usyskin and Vasenko, he theorized, must have been three astronauts who met the latter fate and a stamp commemorating their demise indicated that a memorial was being erected in Saransk — some 350 miles from Moscow, and where newsmen seldom are found.

The Hellard research, however, determined that while the director of the Soviet Post Office firmly denied that any Russian astronauts had lost their lives,

STAMPS TELL THE STORY.—Mr. and Mrs. Lowell E. Hellard, of 99 West Chestnut Street, check over voluminous stamp collection to determine latest activities in Soviet Union. Hellard, Kingston High School industrial arts teacher, and Mrs. Hellard, are both stamp collectors and belong to Stamp Trappers Society of Kingston. They have kept up to date with secrecy-ridden Soviet space activity through medium of commemorative stamps put out by USSR. For instance, through extensive research they learned that commemorative stamp (inset) marked dedication of monument to three Soviet men who died in stratosphere balloon accident 30 years ago. Other stamps indicate Russian space progress not yet chronicled in modern history such as landing on moon and plants. Hellard collection will be on display at World's Fair. (Freeman photos) and considered the thought as an "infamous slander" on the USSR, the three men memorialized in the Saransk commemorative stamp had indeed lost their lives in a space experiment 30 years ago — and Russia was about to commemorate that historical fact — in 1964.

Consider Some Cases
Through issuance of stamps, Russia has also showed its "world leadership" in space by commemorating a space shot before it literally "gets off the ground."

Consider some cases: Russian Astronaut Yuri Gagarin, as presumably recorded in history, became the first man in space when he was successfully launched by the Soviet Union on April 12, 1961. Informed stamp collectors have learned through research, however, that the stamp commemorating the event was printed in March 1961, a month before the actual orbital flight — and issued one day after the flight!

Other stamps issued by the USSR indicate that Russia is not only the world leader in space-ology, but has apparently conquered time as well as space. For instance, there are stamps issued in the Soviet or its satellite countries showing man in space without benefit of capsule a la Buck Rogers; cosmic rockets, television satellites, rockets to Mercury, the Sun and Venus, around the Earth, to Mars, Jupiter and Saturn and—in spite of the fact that the Soviet has publicly announced that it has decided not to land on the Moon until 1970—a stamp inferring that the hammer and sickle have already been implanted firmly on the Big Cheese.

Other Things to Learn

There are a number of other interesting things to be gleaned from the collection of Hellard, a Kingston High School industrial arts teacher. For example, "Cosmos 3" was launched on April 24 last year, one of 12 orbited by the USSR that year. The unmanned space vehicle was placed into orbit to study temperature, density and wind in the upper layer of the ionosphere. The stamp was printed before the launching; the USSR has officially commemorated the event,

Cuban Schools Teach English as Required Course

By RICHARD DAW

HAVANA (AP)—The teacher's questions boomed out in clear, crisp English:

"Whose classroom is this?" The answer from the 15 students came back in unison, in English equally clear and crisp: "It is ours."

English is the only required foreign language in Cuba's school system.

"You shouldn't be surprised that we require the study of your language," the teacher told a U.S. visitor. "It's only logical."

"Why should we allow ideological differences between our government and yours to affect our teaching of a language that is so necessary these days in international dealings and advanced technological study?"

All Cuban students must begin studying English in the seventh grade and continue through the ninth. From the 10th through the 12th grades those who have demonstrated an adequate knowledge of English may switch to French.

Experimentation is being carried out with classes in Russian for the same grades. Students who want to learn Russian also may do so in special language schools where many other languages also are taught.

The experimental classes in Russian are being held at the Education Ministry's sprawling complex of headquarters and school centers called Liberty City.

Situated on the edge of Havana, Liberty City used to be Camp Columbia, the main base of dictator Fulgencio Batista's army garrison.

About 7,000 students attend school there now.

The education they get is, like that throughout Cuba, Socialist-oriented. They are taught that the Soviet Union is the leader of the free, peace-loving world.

$333 for Noise

TOKYO (AP)—A district court ordered Tokyo's metropolitan government today to pay $333 damages to a family for making too much noise.

Judge Tetsuichi Ishida ruled that Kazuyoshi Ishikawa and his family had been subjected in 1955 to undue physical and mental anguish by day and night noise from subway construction 60 feet from their home.

but no one seems to know where Cosmos is in 1964.

Much of the information on the Soviet Brothers Three was obtained from the 1964 combined edition of the Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue, regarded as the philatelist's "Bible." Sure enough, it said, the three stratosphere balloon boys were victims of the failure and had indeed been memorialized in commemorative stamps.

Some other fascinating facts about Russian stamps: Some stamps issued by the USSR and circulated in the world market, can't be sold in Russia.

American Astronaut John Glenn is commemorated on Russian stamps in the "fast" company of Gagarin and Gherman Titov.

Other American astronauts such as Cooper and Grissom et al, are similarly commemorated on Soviet stamps in the company of other Russian astronauts such as Pavel Popovich, Andrian Nikolayev, F. Byosky, and Valentina Tereshkova, although there is little doubt as to whom is truly the conqueror of space. These stamps are issued from such countries as East Germany, Albania, Roumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland Czechoslovakia, mostly considered as Soviet satellite countries.

The Soviet and other countries agree to recall certain stamps when it is politically and mutually appropriate, such as when a political "leader" is no longer considered expedient to the political cause of the moment.

From the evidence, then, it appears that Russia has mastered the cosmic forces; for their stamps leave little doubt about it. Perhaps the Soviet then, will tell the world in six years, when it has landed on the moon — by printing a stamp. That is, unless it already has landed there and has decided it will wait 30 years to print a stamp to commemorate the event.

Hellard's collection of USSR and satellite countries stamps numbers about 3,000 or some 200-300 short of all those issued through current months. Both he and Mrs. Hellard are members of the Stamp Trappers Society which meets the second and fourth Tuesday of the month at the YWCA. Mrs. Hellard said she and her husband have received notice that their collections will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

It Will Take Time, But—

Courts, Congress Aim to Do What Was Original Purpose

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was supposed to have been done almost 100 years ago. But the Supreme Court was different then.

The mood of the nation and the times were different. And Negroes? They had no power, hardly a voice.

The civil rights bill which Congress is going to pass now is in essence a repetition of what was tried after the Civil War. If it had worked then, the history of America would have been different.

Before the war Southern "black codes" imposed penalties on Negro slaves not only for crimes but as human beings. They couldn't testify against a white man; it was a crime to teach them to read.

The Civil War, and the 13th Amendment of 1865, abolished slavery but new "black codes" began to appear. The freedmen weren't free men. The codes put restrictions on them that did not apply to white men.

Strong-willed men in the Republican — run Congress, overshadowing both the president and the Supreme Court, rushed through two additional amendments, the 14th and 15th.

The 14th, making Negroes citizens, said no state could deprive them of the privileges and immunities of citizens; and the 15th said no state could deny citizens the right to vote.

Thus Congress sought to free Negroes—there were 4 million slaves at the time of the war, 27 million whites—in their social and political life. Negroes now number about 20 million in a population of 192 million.

To make Negroes' citizenship real Congress backed up the amendments with a series of civil rights acts: the protection of all laws in all states, assurance of voting rights, protection against the Ku Klux Klan, and so on.

One in particular, passed in 1875, said Negroes must have equal treatment in inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters and amusement places.

But, despite all this effort by Congress, by then Southern states had begun passing segregation laws. And in the North, Negroes didn't get equal treatment. They were discriminated against everywhere.

It took eight years after that the Supreme Court five cases of discrimination which they felt, violated the law. For example, the case of a Northern theater which refused to admit Negroes.

By then the Northern politicians were getting tired of the struggle to get Negroes equal treatment. The Supreme Court reflected this mood.

This was how it interpreted that 1875 act: It was only intended, the court said, to forbid states to pass laws denying Negroes equal treatment; the law didn't apply to discrimination by individual white people.

Southern states piled up segregation laws and in 1896, the Supreme Court blessed such laws by reasoning that was fallacious on the face of it: the court said Negroes could be segregated so long as they got equal treatment with white men.

The treatment was, and became, very unequal. Between 1875 and 1957 Congress passed no more civil rights acts. From 1896 until 1954 that separate-but-equal doctrine of the court remained the law of the land.

In time, a long time, Negroes once again began to seek action by the government to get treatment truly equal. Any appeal for the first half of this century was hopeless. Negroes hoped the court would undo the 1896 ruling.

But it never did until 1954. It knocked out, beginning in the 1930s, various forms of unequal treatment, like back seats on a bus. But until 1954, it never declared the 1896 court wrong by saying the principle of segregation was wrong.

Then it did so in its ruling banning public school segregation. Stimulated by that, Congress passed a civil rights act in 1957, and another in 1960.

These were mainly aimed at protecting Negroes' right to vote. Contrary to the 15th Amendment of 1870, Negroes were kept from voting in many areas.

Now Congress is about to pass one more civil rights act, once more to strengthen Negroes' voting protections and, among other things, prohibit discrimination against Negroes in motels, hotels, restaurants and places of amusement if those places affect interstate commerce.

It's a little iffy and fulfillment will take time. But Congress and the court now are trying to do what neither did well in those turbulent years almost a century ago.

Aluminum Workers To Return to Jobs

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—About 3,100 workers, idled since May 23 by a work-load dispute, were scheduled to begin returning to their jobs Monday at the Aluminum Co. of America plant here.

Members of the Aluminum Workers International Union Saturday night approved a settlement negotiated Thursday in St. Louis. A spokesman for Local 420 at Massena said the agreement passed by a narrow margin in a vote by some 2,000

Alcoa employees.

The dispute involved reclassification of workers in six pot-rooms and had threatened to spread to nine other Alcoa plants in the nation.

The company agreed to idle one of the pot-rooms on each shift to avoid reclassification of personnel, under the settlement reported Sunday.

Alcoa also agreed to make, within six weeks, a month-long work-activity study of crews in three small pot-rooms.

SAUGERTIES NEWS

West Saugerties Rebekahs Hold Friendship Night

The Rebekahs of West Saugerties last week honored Mrs. Augusta Schirmer on her 50th wedding anniversary and Lillian Compitello received a gift for her 25th anniversary at a Friendship Night gathering in West Saugerties Odd Fellows Hall.

This concluded the meetings for July and August.

George J. Burghard, grand senior warden of the Grand Encampment of the State of New York, sent a letter of thanks to Anna Yakin, past district deputy president of Ulster County, for her cooperation and also to West Saugerties Lodge for donating to the Cancer Fund.

Lodges representative were from Bearsville, Highland and Saugerties. Among the dignitaries were Florence Gippert past assembly musician; Irene Rusk district deputy president of Ulster District 1 and her marshal, Helen Schaefer; Velma Clearwater, past president of the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant and many past district deputy presidents.

Members were reminded of the 47th anniversary of the Vineyard Rebekah Lodge on Thursday 8 p. m.

Roberta Whitaker notified the attending Past Noble Grands that there will be a meeting on July 7 at the Highland Lodge.

Ulster County will again be honored by having one of their group, Anna Yakin, receive the Decoration of Chivalry, sometime in the fall.

The evening ended with an entertainment. Barbara Lounsbury, Ethel Jehle, Jean Emmons, Verna Collins and June Lewis, were in a dancing skit and the girls portrayed the Beatles.

The entertainment was in charge of Margaret Siegel, pianist. Mildred Schuchard of Lodge 34, accompanied on the accordion. Sherman Myers on his guitar.

Noble Grand Marie Post, narrated "This Is Your Life" Augusta Schirmer. Community singing was then held. The meeting was climaxed by the Noble Grand reading a poem entitled "Friends."

Members will be called when the Quilting Bee will start.

Lodge was officially notified that Helen Ouker of Phoenixia, was elected district deputy president of Ulster District No. 2.

TO SPONSOR DRUM CORPS—Saugerties Jaycees announced today that the Paulettes, an all-girl drum and bell corps of New York City will be one of three units scheduled to perform at the field day exercises July 4 at Cantine Memorial Field. The others are the Criterions of Kingston and Boy Scout Troop 12 Indians. The Paulettes composed of a 12-girl percussion line, 18-girl glockenspiel line and 12-girl color guard will be sponsored by Saugerties Savings Bank. The three bands will present a one-hour performance after the parade. John M. Robbins, (center), secretary-treasurer of Saugerties Savings Bank presents check to John Southam, Jaycees finance chairman. Richard Cyr, Jaycees president, is at right.

Baptist Church Vacation Bible School Slated

First Baptist Church of Saugerties will conduct a seven-day vacation Bible school beginning Tuesday and continuing through July 1.

The theme for the school is "Around the World with Christ." Sessions will be held daily from 9:30 until 11:40 a. m. Parents desiring to have their children come direct from the Main Street School on Tuesday are asked to send a note with their child to the teacher indicating the same.

Adult supervision will escort the children from the grade school to the church on that day. Classes will be held for children and young people ages 2 to 18.

The teachers for the seven day period are:

Pre-school, ages 2-3 — Mrs. Alberta Cody and Mrs. Nadene Henry; Pre-school, ages 4-5 — Mrs. Sandra Sterritt, Mrs. Linda Cody and Mrs. Carolyn Beck; Primary — Mrs. Pat Bjorkman, Mrs. Martha House, Mrs. Inez Newberry, and Mrs. Leona Snyder; Junior — Mrs. Joan Reynolds and Mrs. Joan Yee; Senior — Pa. o. Brooks Henry and Mrs. Muriel Finger.

All children throughout the area are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served daily under the supervision of Mrs. Jessie Myers and M. Craw. Nursery care will be in charge of Mrs. Sneow and Mrs. Ruth Craw.

Centerville Home Unit's Luncheon Slated Wednesday

Arrangements for a luncheon 12 noon Wednesday at Beekman Arms, Rhinebeck were discussed at last week's meeting of Centerville Unit of Home Demonstration Department held at Centerville Methodist Church Hall.

From there the members will visit the Vanderbilt Mansion, the Roosevelt Estate, and the county store.

Mary Kamps, who is in charge of the sewing screen project, gave her report. A finished screen was brought in by Margaret McCall. The first group lesson was given at Marje Bishop's home. The next lesson will be announced at a later date.

In the fall Marje Bishop will give the lesson on decorative pillows.

Katherine Helm will be chair-lady of a special luncheon to be given on the first meeting in September, for all past presidents of the unit. The unit was started in 1944, with 25 members.

Brush, Dump Fires

Centerville and Cedar Grove volunteers responded to a brush fire at West Saugerties and two calls at the Quarryville dump off Route 32 and Blue Mountain Road.

The brush fire alerts a pumper truck from each unit at about 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Centerville and Cedar Grove units responded Saturday night and early Sunday mornings to quench a flare-up at the Quarryville dump.

Dear Abby . . .

The Game's The Same!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am an American Airlines stewardess and I love my work, but my problem is the same as every other airline stewardess I know. When a male passenger wants to make conversation with us, he asks two questions:

(1) How do you like flying?

(2) Aren't you afraid to fly so much?

Abby, if we didn't like flying, we wouldn't fly. And if we were "afraid," we wouldn't be flying for a living. I'll bet I answer those two questions fifty times a day! You would do thousands of airline stewardesses a big favor if you would suggest a few more original questions. Please?

MISS A. A.

DEAR MISS A. A.: I was about to suggest: (1) Are you going with anybody? (2) What are you doing tonight? But they are probably more common than the two questions you mentioned. You can't blame a man for wanting to strike up a conversation with an attractive girl. Yours is a great job! Where else can you find men who are already strapped in?

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell your doctor that you would like another medical opinion without implying that you do not trust his judgment? Is it all right to ask him to recommend another doctor or are you expected to find your own? If you should decide to change doctors, is it nifty to ask your old doctor to give your new doctor your records and X-rays? I would like to know how all this is handled as I am very stupid about such matters.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Any patient who would like another medical opinion has the right to tell her doctor so. If she has a doctor in mind, she may request that he be called in. Otherwise her doctor will recommend one. If she should decide to change doctors, the physician in service will (or should) graciously send her records and X-rays to her new doctor on the latter's request.

DEAR ABBY: What in the world is the matter with a certain big store here in town? This is the second run-in I've had with them over their fouled-up bookkeeping. I went on my lunch hour and stood in line to pay ten dollars on my bill, which paid me up in full. Then I got a bill from them showing that I still owed them $9.90, but a credit was put through for TEN CENTS! Now, Abby, you know perfectly well that no store will accept a TEN-CENT payment on a bill! Well, I took my receipt AND my lawyer with me and went down there and told them off but good. Believe it or not, they are still looking for their mistake. Tell your readers to hold on to their receipts. Mine saved me.

Ten From County To Visit Cornell For 4-H Congress

A space-science demonstration, opportunity to gain some understanding of the arts, and a hootenanny are scheduled for the 1,000 4-H boys and girls attending Club Congress at Cornell University, June 24-26.

Ten are attending from Ulster County including Lillian Bogart, Stone Ridge; Jean Gaffney, Kingston; Sharon Legg and Leslie Piastro, Flatbush; Theresa Stopczynski, Lincoln Park; Mildred VanAllen, Hurley; Barbara Williams, Sawkill; Robert Fisk, Kingston; William Ronk, Highland and Ivan Pece, Hurley.

Prof. Wilbur F. Pease, State 4-H Club Leader, N. Y. State College of Agriculture at Cornell, says the program has been planned to give older youth more insight and understanding of 4-H Club work, keener appreciation of the values and opportunities gained through advanced study, and the incentive to "Learn, Live, and Serve Through 4-H."

All delegates to this 38th 4-H Club Congress will hear and see Frank Lucarelli of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration demonstrate how a satellite gets into orbit and stays there. He will also describe the present activities of his agency and their plans for the future.

Mrs. Evelyn Millis Duvall, author and consultant on family life, will address the group on the topic "Growing Up in Today's World." She is director of the Adolescent Study Course for "P-TA Magazine" and has written "When You Marry," "Being Married," and "Family Development."

On Thursday, June 25, each delegate will choose two activities from among 18 offered, ranging from the arts to financing an education, scientific feeding of livestock or performing a laboratory experiment using stretch fabrics. Tours of the campus, the Veterinary College and the traditional citizenship and candlelighting ceremonies are included in the three-day schedule. Accompanying the group will be Miss Patricia Larsen and Mr. Robert Cousins, 4-H Summer Assistants.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Today is Monday, June 22, the 174th day of 1964. There are 192 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1807, the American frigate Chesapeake, sent to sea without a single gun in condition to fire, was halted by the British frigate Leopard. Capt. James Barron refused to have his ship searched for deserters and the Leopard opened fire. Unable to defend his ship, Barron was forced to surrender.

On this date: In 1773, Dominican friars entered the territory of what now is California and established the first settlement.

In 1812, Napoleon ordered his armies to attack Russia.

In 1937, Joe Louis became world heavyweight boxing champion.

In 1941, Nazi forces invaded Russia.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower described Japan as the key to the defense of the western Pacific and warned it must not fall to the Communists.

Five years ago — Argentine President Arturo Frondizi's cabinet resigned following the discovery of an unsuccessful plot by retired military officers to oust Frondizi.

Director Elected To Library Frat

Don Sager, the new Kingston City Library director has been elected to membership in Beta Phi Mu, international library science honor fraternity.

Membership is granted to professional librarians who have shown both high scholastic and leadership qualities.

Sager also holds membership in Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalism fraternity, and Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity.

Though much of Edgar Allan Poe's best work is concerned with terror, sadness and despair, the poet was a pleasant companion who talked brilliantly, chiefly of literature, and who could read his own poetry and that of others in a professional manner. He had a sense of humor, often apologizing to visitors for not keeping a pet raven.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Looking through some old Kingston Weekly Freeman, I ran across one of Jan. 7, 1904, at which time Woodstock was without fire equipment, as they wrote, except primitive hand buckets. They felt they were fortunate that they had streams of water everywhere throughout the town. They wanted a gasoline fire engine to be kept in the center of the village and with a team of good horses nearby. They could then be reached by a telephone call from Shady or Van Dale some three miles away and could arrive within 20 minutes. The engine could pump two streams of water on the fire. They also wanted a hook and ladder in Woodstock in 1904.

In the Jan. 7, 1904, there was a fine picture of young Mayor Morris Block and his annual message. He had one item on street and public building lights. He wrote that in 1892 the city of Kingston first was lighted by electricity, the annual cost for this service was $12,918, while the year which just passed (1903) it was $20,400. In 1892 service consisted of 66 arc and 87 incandescent lights. In 1904 they had about 133 arc and 475 incandescent lights. That was just 60 years ago, I wonder how many lights Kingston has today and what it costs to light the city and the government buildings.

The rich were also rich in 1904 like they are today. Col. John Jacob Astor of Rhinebeck and his wife and children and small party of friends were departing on Jan. 20, 1904 on their palatial steam yacht, Nourmahal for a trip around the world.

On Jan. 14, 1904 there was an item in the paper on the voting by Highland for a new school house, and it seems it came to more than the people expected. Instead of $13,000 appropriated it was to take nearly $20,000. They also anticipated that the coal bill to be not far from $300 a year as it was expected to take some 60 tons of coal to heat the building annually. They also thought it would cost more for janitor service. At the time Augustus Wynkoop received about $100 a year, but they felt with steam there may be much more work to do. They also had to hire five teachers instead of four. But as they wrote in 1904, "this is the age of improvement."

Many questions arise about the old postal card of the central Post Office building. Ground was broken for the Central Post Office on Monday afternoon, Oct. 31, 1904, some 60 years ago. Exercises were held under the auspices of the board of trade who met at the city hall and marched in a body to the site of the new post office. The marchers were headed by Muller's Band. Major James H. Everett was president of the board, and speakers were Mayor Morris Block and Congressman George J. Smith. A silver spade was used by the above men and also by John H. Gregory. I wonder where the silver spade is now. The building was finished and thrown open for public inspection June 30, 1908 and hundreds of people visited it. That evening the staff of clerks moved in, and on July 1, of that year, the work of receiving and dispatching mail from the new building was started.

Red Skelton Puts Serious Self on Public Exhibit

By MIKE GAVIN

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Comedian Red Skelton kicks off his 40th year in show business today with a "straight act" he's been working on secretly since 1943.

The 50-year-old comic puts a collection of his oil paintings on exhibit at the hotel where he is midway through a six-week engagement.

The showing, featuring 50 works completed in the past year, will run to July 14. Red's description of how he started painting sounds like one of his routines.

"I went into a big Chicago department store and just happened to notice some paintings they had on display there. I asked a clerk about one that looked to me like a bunch of blotches. He said, 'Ten thousand wouldn't buy that one.'"

"I told him I was one of the ten thousand and went out and bought my first set of paints that afternoon."

Skelton's paintings fall into three categories — portraits of animals and clowns, elongated caricatures of people, and still life.

Very shy about his painting, he has never attempted a serious portrait of a person—aside from a few clowns in heavy makeup.

His wife, Georgia, who studied art in Los Angeles, came up with the idea of the exhibit.

Skelton was hesitant about putting his serious self before the public, which has applauded his antics since he went on stage at the age of 10.

Skelton grimaces while he makes laughing remarks, but he is keenly sensitive to criticism—whether it comes from another artist, an entertainer or a workman at the hotel.

He works rapidly, sometimes on three or more canvases at one time. He paints indoors, outdoors, even standing in the shallow end of his pool with an easel on the bank.

"When something starts bothering me about a picture, I work on another one until I can figure out what's wrong with the first one. Sometimes I don't find out for weeks. Sometimes I just don't find out."

In Las Vegas, Red does most of his work out-of-doors, wearing a straw hat and a plastic raincoat over bathing trunks. The raincoat is a weight-losing device in the 95-degree desert heat.

"I know my stuff isn't good now. Maybe it never will be, but at least people will be able to say, 'I don't like the mouth' or 'The ears are too big for that face.' Nobody will ever walk away from something I do wondering what it's supposed to be," Red says.

City Library Adds New Books On Gardening

A group of new books on gardening is available from the Kingston City Library. It is a special collection on flowers, fruit and vegetable growing as well as flower arranging and lawn care.

This is one of several collections being made available through Mid-Hudson Libraries, the five-county library system with headquarters in Poughkeepsie.

The collection includes: "The Secret of the Green Thumb" by Henry and Rebecca Northern reveals, in non-technical language, the scientific facts underlying gardening.

Anyone Can Grow Roses, by Cynthia Westcott, not only explains the secrets of rose growing but guides the reader in choosing the proper combination of species.

Herbs, How to Grow and Use Them, is a guide to all those who have wanted to start an herb garden but never knew how. Louise Evans Dooel's delightful book is just the remedy.

The Lawn Book covers every aspect of planning, planting and caring for your lawn. Dr. Robert Sherry, in this guide, aims at dispelling misconceptions concerning lawn care.

Are You Your Garden's Worst Pest? by Cynthia Westcott, poses the interesting theory that some people work their garden to death. Antidotes are given.

Your Garden Soil begins at ground level to solve the reader's gardening problems. The author, R. Milton Carleton, combines scientific fact and experience for interesting reading.

Her Garden Was Her Delight, by Buckner Hollingsworth, covers one of America's forgotten pioneers: the famous woman gardener. The story unfolds in 1607 with Mistress Pearce and carries through with the score more women to bring the reader up to 1952 with Mrs. William Starr Dana.

The World of Roses endeavors to show that the world could do with more roses. Written by Bertram Park, it is filled with beautiful color photographs.

Shrubs and Trees for Home Landscape, by James Bush-Brown, reveals, despite the handicap of his name, the value and beauty of selected foliage for the yard.

These and many more titles are available now at the Kingston City Library, your idea center. The library is open weekdays 10:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. and Saturdays 1 to 5 p. m.

Coin, Currency Display Is at Rosendale Bank

A collection of United States currency and coins will be on display at the National Bank of Orange and Ulster Counties, Route 32, Rosendale for five days starting June 24.

Leif G. Anderson, assistant vice president of the bank, announced today that the exhibit is made up of eight frames of currency and three frames of coin and includes specimens of money issued or minted from colonial times to the present.

The nation's earliest history is reflected in specimens of the currency issued by the Continental Congress to help finance the Revolution. Overissue of this currency caused its rapid depreciation and gave rise to the expression "not worth a continental." The problems of the Civil War are reflected in the "shipplasters," or fractional currency which had to be issued by the North to replace coin, which had become scarce. Confederate currency will be displayed also.

Of unusual interest is the collection of Federal Reserve notes including the seldom seen $10,000 denomination. The set of notes was printed especially by the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Washington, D. C. for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York through whose cooperation the collection is being placed on display at the Rosendale bank. Each note in the series, although a genuine reproduction is engraved on one side only.

The making of a quarter, il-

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETIES • CLUBS • PERSONALS

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST A. SCHIRMER of West Saugerties celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 14 while attending a reunion of the "54 Club" at Canoe Island Lodge, Diamond Point on Lake George.

The club, comprised of past district officers, matrons and patrons of the Order of the Eastern Star of New York State during the year 1954 was at the same time observing its tenth anniversary. About 120 members and guests were present for the reunion.

Because their parents were out of town on their wedding date, Mrs. Edward Strohsahl and Mrs. William Daum, daughters of the Schirmers, will hold a 50th anniversary open house on Sunday, June 28, 4 p. m., at the Strohsahl residence, 122 Market Street, Saugerties. Friends are cordially invited to attend. (Photo Workshop)

Personals

Miss Adele Lehtonen, of Allan L. Hanstein, Inc., was honored by her co-workers at a luncheon held Friday in the Kirkland Hotel. Miss Lehtonen is leaving the Hanstein Agency to be married to Henry J. Bruck Jr., and will reside in Syracuse. Those attending the luncheon were: Edna Jeghers, president, Catherine Perry, Helen Lucas, Sally Chaffer, Ronnie Kugelman, Philis Sior, Pat Hassett, Nina Wagner, Jeanne Rivenberg and Barbara O'Connell.

Cape Melody Tent Lists Stellar Shows, Borge, Armstrong

HYANNIS — Any star shining in Hyannis skies throughout the evenings of June 29 to July 4 will find itself hard-pressed to outshine the performance of MY FAIR LADY, which will catapult the Cape Cod Melody Tent into its 15th sparkling season.

The schedule for the Melody Tent, which is usually a mecca for Ulster County residents summering at Cape Cod, reads like a "Who's Who" of Broadway hits for the 10-week season.

Besides a stellar attraction of musical hits, the Melody Tent this year also will present such favorites as Victor Borge, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington and the Dave Brubeck Quartet during the tent's famed "Sunday Evenings at Hyannis."

Richard Roger's newest Broadway hit, NO STRINGS, opening on July 6, will be followed by an incomparable trio of two-week runs: the enchanting CAMELOT, July 13; a return engagement of the season opener, MY FAIR LADY, July 27; Rodgers and Hammerstein's poignant SOUND OF MUSIC, Aug. 10.

Rounding the season into a perfect musical sphere will be that rousing favorite, THE STUDENT PRINCE, Aug. 24 and Rodgers and Hammerstein's memorable FLOWER DRUM SONG, Aug. 31.

This summer the Tent's famed "Sunday Evenings at Hyannis" features five artists of unparalleled renown. The Dave Brubeck Quartet (July 26), Victor Borge (Aug. 2), Louis Armstrong (Aug. 9), Richard Dyer-Bennet (Aug. 16), and Duke Ellington (Aug. 30) will each perform for one night only on the designated dates.

Certain to delight the hearts of children are the Friday matinees of special shows for youngsters which include such favorites as "Hansel and Gretel," "Zippy, the World's Greatest Chimp," "Rapunzel," and "Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves."

Women Republicans Hold Final Meeting; FairChairmen Named

The Ulster County Women's Republican Club held its final meeting of the season June 18 at the Governor Clinton Hotel with Mrs. William A. Krum presiding officer.

It was announced that Mrs. Gus Parker and Mrs. C. John Bechtold will be co-chairmen of the organization's booth at the forthcoming Ulster County Fair. Mrs. Raymond LeFevre spoke on the proposed Grow Program and named the chairmen of the projected committees. They include Mrs. Leroy Crosswell, Mrs. Bertha DeWitt, Mrs. Fred DuBois, Mrs. Eleanor Bruhn, business and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, senior citizens.

The club voted to send Mrs. Krum, president, to the New York State Federation of Women's Republicans Clubs in Niagara Falls August 20-21.

Miss Patricia Larsen, assistant county 4-H club agent was guest speaker. She introduced area 4-H participants modelling dresses and suits personally created.

Models included Susan Schoonmaker, wearing an afternoon dress; Caroline Nickerson, suit and blouse; Lillian Bogart, coat and dress; Linda Larsen, dress; Genevieve Switz, leather suit and blouse; Martha Nickerson, suit and blouse and Carol Larsen, dress.

Sharon Lee DeLisio Exchanges Marriage Vows With James E. Joy; Papal Blessing

Miss Sharon Lee DeLisio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeLisio of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Woodstock, N. Y., exchanged marriage vows with James Everett Joy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Everett Joy of Collingswood, N. J., on Saturday, June 20 at 11 a. m.

The wedding took place in St. John's Church, West Hurley, before a nuptial mass. Officiating was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Austin V. Carey, pastor.

Music for the occasion was provided by Mrs. Aleksander Narel of West Hurley.

Mr. DeLisio gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length wedding suit of white raw silk. The skirt was sheath style and the semi-fitted jacket had bracelet length sleeves. Her silk illusion bouffant veil was held by a pillbox of silk covered with Alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and ivy.

The bride was attended by Carolyn Mae Dees of Little Rock, Arkansas. She was dressed in a modified Grecian style floor length gown of powder blue de-lustered silk. A matching silk flowered puffed headpiece was also worn and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and ivy.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Ann DeLisio, the bride's sister; Miss Evelyn Spina of Long Island, and Miss Reba Rettiz of New York City. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the honor attendant except in shell pink. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses.

John Galotto of Hawthorne, N. J., was best man. Ushering were John Fannham of Stamford, Conn.

THANK-YOU NOTE NECESSARY?

Q: My husband and I were guests recently at a buffet supper given by one of our office associates and his wife. I had met our host several times before but it was the first time I had met his wife. When we left I told her we had a lovely time and thanked her for asking us. My husband thinks I should have telephoned or written her a note the next day to thank her again for inviting us. Will you please tell me if this was necessary?

A: Not at all. Your thanks when you left were quite sufficient. If you and your husband give a party sometime in the near future, you should invite them to it.

Introductions at A Large Party

Q: When giving a large party, I never know quite what to do about introductions. I am referring to the arrival of guests who are strangers to most of the others already present. Is it necessary to take them around and introduce them to each and every guest?

A: You introduce the first few arrivals to each other, but after your party has grown to a point where this is no longer practical, you need only introduce the new arrivals to those who happen to be standing near you.

Uncle to Give Bride Away

Q: My father is dead and my mother's brother will be giving me away. After answering the minister's, "Who giveth this woman to be wed," does my uncle take his place beside my mother in the front pew? If so, must his wife also be asked to sit in the front pew or is she seated elsewhere with other relatives?

A: If you possibly can, seat your aunt in the front pew beside your mother on the inside, and after he gives you away, your uncle would take the aisle seat next to your mother.

Saugerties Church Is Scene of Wedding For Nancy Quackenbush, John D. Dooley

On June 13 at 3 p. m., marriage vows were taken by Miss Nancy Lou Quackenbush of Saugerties and John Desmond Dooley of Malden-on-Hudson. The wedding took place in St. Mary of the Snow, Saugerties. Officiating was the Rev. John Hamilton, assistant pastor. Mrs. Charles Dickman was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Quackenbush and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Brendan Dooley.

Altar vases of white gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the family pews were marked with white satin bows. Mr. Quackenbush gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory peau de soie and Alencon lace in chapel length. The lace bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. The skirt was a modified A-line and was caught at the back waistline with a rose of matching material. The French silk illusion veil was fingertip length and shirred to a flower headpiece. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, ivy and stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Halpert of Saugerties was the honor attendant. She wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with embroidered pink rosebuds at the waistline and a butterfly bow at the back. Her headpiece was a shell pink picture hat and she carried deep pink roses.

Miss Roseanne Dooley of Malden-on-Hudson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Spada of Glasco, served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the maid of honor except in shell pink. They carried roses.

Brendan H. Dooley of Walham, Mass., the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Ushers were Joseph Benjamin of Saugerties, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Richard Benjamin of Saugerties.

A reception was given at the Flamingo Restaurant for approximately 110 guests.

The bride was graduated from Saugerties Central High School, class of 1960. She is a graduate also of Cortland State Teachers' College and a member of Alpha Sigma Sorority. Her husband is an alumnus of Charles E. Gordon High School, Yonkers and attended Ithaca College. He is a retail specialist for Atlantic Oil Refining Company.

When Mr. and Mrs. Dooley return from their wedding trip through the south, they will be at home at 249 Manning Boulevard, Albany.

Rhinebeck Wedding Is Announced Here; Lana Rita Mehlig Weds Bruce Cookingham

Miss Lana Rita Mehlig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Mehlig, Rhinebeck, and granddaughter of the late Dr. Charles P. C. Mehlig, New York City, and Bruce Holt Cookingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Cookingham, Rhinebeck, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Cookingham, Rhinebeck, were married at the Good Shepherd Church in Rhinebeck at nine o'clock Saturday, June 20. The Rev. Msgr. John J. Joy officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Elsa Casey was organist and accompanied the soloist Mrs. Rita Fichera. The altar was decorated with arrangements of white delphiniums, carnations and white pompons.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory peau de soie accented by ecrú Alencon lace. It was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, capped sleeves, and a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of ivory illusion was caught by a circlet topped with a wreath of miniature rosebuds and she carried a cascade arrangement of call lilies and English ivy.

Miss Carole Mehlig, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Cookingham, sister of the groom, of Lebanon, Ind., and Miss Jane Erickson of Rockport, Mass. Their identical full length gowns were champagne colored peau de soie trimmed with embroidered sash of tiny colored roses. The headpieces were pastel blue circlets with a cluster of roses set inside the band, matching shoes and each bridesmaid carried a cascade of pink delphiniums with English ivy. The maid of honor carried blue delphiniums and English ivy.

Miss Susan McKeefrey, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. Her floor length frock was blue tulle over blue taffeta. Her headpiece was a band of blue delphiniums. She carried a bouquet of pink and blue delphiniums and English ivy. Jeffrey Decker served as ringbearer. William McKeefrey, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Ronald McKeefrey, brother of the bride, and Robert G. Decker.

The reception was held at Norrie Point Inn, Staatsburg. After a wedding trip to New England, the couple will reside in Peabody, Mass. For travel, the bride selected a bone two piece linen suit with matching pillbox hat and accessories and a corsage of blue delphiniums and blue lily of the Nile.

A graduate of Academy of St. Ursula, Kingston, 1962, the bride is enrolled in Boston University, class of 1966, where she is an English major.

Mary — Have you ever had your ears pierced?
Jean — No, but I've often had them bored.

In a family burial plot near Newfield, Me., is a gravestone, engraved, "Ariclean, daughter of Abram and Lucinda Dugan, Died Feb. 31, 1851." — Cappy O'Toole, Lincolnville Center, Me.

It was in the days when theories were potent and experiments alluring that my little third grade children wondered why Columbus didn't fall off when he got to the other side of the earth. They couldn't see what held him to the earth. With hollow spheres, magnets, and needles I tried to explain gravity.

The next day I asked them to write about what we had discussed. The cork penholders were compressed by determined fingers. Anxious voices asked for the spelling of this word or that. Surely the lesson had been a success. They understood gravity. They understood every day and all day, these patient little plodders, yet none of them got from this lesson as much as Roy, big of eye, ponderous of body, slow of wit. He made inky scrawls, the first unforced work he had ever done. His heavy hand, ink-blackened and earth stained, rose:

Roy — How do you spell poverty?
Teacher — Poverty, Roy?
Roy (proud that as last he had remembered something) — Poverty, the thing you told us about, the thing which holds a man down to earth.

Hollywood News, Views

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What do movie beauties think of the proposed topless bathing suit for women?

None appears to be embracing the idea, although some opine that the fashion might catch on.

The controversy began when a New York fashion house featured swim suits without the conventional top generally associated with feminine beach wear. Orders poured in from many stores, but beach clubs, sheriff's offices and several million males were placed in perplexity.

Is the fashion for real?

Several film figures were asked how they felt about the nude deal.

Vivien Leigh: "The women in Japan bathe at the seashore without bothering with a top, so why shouldn't women be allowed to do it in California? There should be an age limit on those who are eligible to wear the style."

Debbie Reynolds: "I don't think the topless suit will catch on. Reality can seldom measure up to men's imaginations. You can put me down as saying I think the fad will be a flat bust."

Kim Novak: "All or nothing at all."

Felicia Farr: "Bosoms are for boudoirs."

Angie Dickinson: "They're just great—to wear while shampooing one's hair in the privacy of one's home."

Elke Sommer: "I hate them. I go around nude at home, but I wouldn't wear one of those. Show a man too much too often and he'll get tired of it."

Connie Stevens: "I suppose they're okay if you have the figure and the nerve. Anyhow, I'm playing it safe and keeping my husband (Jim Stacey) home from the beaches this summer."

Mamie Van Doren: "I already own a topless suit but I have no intention of wearing it in public."

Back to the Igloo?

Consider the Eskimo — for warmth or for cooking, he builds a fire right on the floor in the middle of his igloo. The smoke goes straight up and out through a hole in the top. Usually this businesslike arrangement works fairly well. For the most part, the Eskimo breathes clean, warmed air.

But sometimes in the spring, just before breakup, wet snow will fall into the fire or some special weather condition will prevent the "chimney" from functioning. Then the inner wall gets black with soot, and the Eskimo and his family must put out the fire or go choking and stumbling into the fresh air outside.

Civilized nations, with all the scientific resources at their command, naturally are doing a more efficient job than the Eskimo. They are smoking up not single dwellings, but whole cities. The smoke that pours out of home and factory chimneys, automobiles exhaust pipes, bonfires of burning leaves, and tobacco in its various forms, is filling the air with hydrocarbons, sulphur dioxide, and other noxious gases. So full, in fact, that only a moderate flight of fancy is needed to predict a day when we'll all have to go choking and stumbling into outer space. Unfortunately there's no air there, either.

Individual courtesy in disposing of our aerial refuse isn't really enough. Superburning of gaseous wastes renders them harmless and is more efficient, but the necessary chimney attachment seems expensive to a lot of people. Clean air legislation is as necessary now as were laws providing clean pure water 50 years ago. Check your own furnace, chimney, and car exhaust first; then do what you can to make it a community clean-up. If there is a cleaner air committee in town, find out how you can help its efforts.

Mikoyan in Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan began an 11-day visit to Indonesia today, apparently anxious to curtail Red China's influence in Indonesia's Communist party.

in April by Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights.

Since then, the individual armed services have moved to put the order into effect.

Fitt told The Associated Press it was found there were 24 or 25 forms that still carried racial listings. "In most cases, they shouldn't have," Fitt said.

The Pentagon's civil rights chief has been carrying on a campaign for nearly a year to eradicate all traces of racial discrimination within the military establishment, and to ease discrimination against Negro servicemen in areas surrounding military bases.

Affected forms included personnel security questionnaires, reports of transfer or discharge, statements of personal history, evaluations of WAC or WAF applicants, Navy applications for enlistment, certain medical records and others.

These included papers relating to casualty reports and disposition of a serviceman's remains.

Also allowed to carry racial designations are "wanted" posters and other forms connected with men AWOL or deserters from the armed forces.

Ricky Barthel Wins Herdegen Memorial Golf Tournament

Ties 63 Record Set At Woodstock Course Bunning Hurls Perfect Game; Yanks Move Into First Place

Richard Barthel of Twaalfskill captured the Herdegen Memorial golf tournament and on his victorious journey tied the 63 course record set at the Woodstock Country Club.

Barthel, a member of the New Palz College team, overcame an eight-stroke lead at the half-way mark to win the tournament by a two-stroke margin over defending champion, Buzzy Costello.

Following his 63-seven under par-round at Woodstock, the young sharpshooter from Twaalfskill went to the final round at the Shawangunk Club on Sunday with a lead of one stroke and posted a 70 to go two strokes up over his closest rival, Costello.

Youth was not to be denied as the two college stars led the field in the 72-hole Ulster County Golf Championship. None of the 23 finalists could come within 10 strokes of the two leaders who battled for the traditional green coat that goes to the champion.

Highlight of the tournament was Barthel's brilliant performance on Woodstock's well-groomed links. The young teacher to be fired seven birds and eleven pars. His 282 total score was put together with 71-78-63, 70 at Twaalfskill, Wiltwyck, Woodstock and Shawangunk respectively.

About 100 people encircled the 18th green as the new champion held out his last putt, but the real turning point of the final day's play came on the 12th hole. Costello had gained the lead, he had lost after 54 holes of play and was in front by one stroke only to find himself trailing by two as the result of a double boggie six as Barthel scored a birdie three. Both players had approximately the same 50-foot shot to the sloping green.

but the big break came when Barthel's chip dropped into the cup and Costello needed two putts.

Leon Randall, the Wiltwyck veteran who has won every title in the Hudson Valley, finished in third place with 294. Bill Van-Aken of Woodstock was fourth followed by Bostic. Making a fine showing at 302 was Neil Pauker of the Kingston High School team. Jimmy Turk finished seventh ahead of George Hughes and Harold Van Aken, who tied for eighth spot.

Monticello DD 3-1 Pays $46.40

MONTICELLO, N. Y., June 22—Miss Fillbaster, a seven-year-old bay mare reined by Carl Ernst, went gate-to-wire to win tonight's opening dash at Monticello Raceway in a brisk 2:04.2 to set up a $46.40 daily double payoff on the 3-1 combination.

The 8.5 favorite Sunny Barbara copped the second half of the DD in 2:05.1 for driver Jim Grundy.

Miss Fillbaster, making her fourth start of the season, held off challenges by Counsel Way and Key Command in the stretch to post her maiden win of the season. Sent off at 3-1 odds, she returned mutuels of $8.60, $5.00 and $4.10.

Counsel Way paid $4.20 and $2.80 for second, while Key Command was the show horse for $3.40.

Five-year-old mare Sunny Barbara overhauled the pacesetter Rome Hanover and Guess Again halfway down the stretch to score her initial success in five tries. Backers received payoffs of $5.50, $3.30 and $2.80.

Guess Again was worth $3.20 and $2.60, and Longshot Rocky Babe $6.80.

New York Met fans thought they'd seen it all — a marvelous Marv Throneberry — a 32-inning doubleheader, you name it — until a slim sidewinder from Southgate, Ky., came along and treated the New Breed to the sweetest sight of all — perfection.

And, as Philadelphia's Jim Bunning set down Met after Met in the first flawless pitching performance in modern National League history—a 6-0, no-hit, no-base runner masterpiece in the first game of a Sunday doubleheader—the Shea Stadium faithful were caught up in the wonder of it all.

They forgot to root for the home team.

The fans were with Bunning all the way and the 32-year-old right-hander, an NL newcomer after nine years with Detroit, didn't let them down. Pinpointing an assortment of curve balls and sliders, he retired each of the 27 batters he faced, a feat last accomplished by Don Larsen of the New York Yankees in a 1956 World Series game.

Charlie Robertson pitched a regular season perfect game for the Chicago White Sox in 1922. Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix hurled 12 perfect innings against Milwaukee in 1959 but lost the game 1-0 on a 13th inning hit. A National League pitcher hadn't won a perfect game since 1880.

Bunning also became the first to win no-hitters in each league, having blanked Boston in 1958 for the Tigers.

The Mets, not to be denied entirely, found a place in the record book, too. Their three hits in the nightcap, won by the Phils 8-2, tied the low hit total for a doubleheader.

While Bunning was spinning gem for the league-leading Phils, the rest of the league went about its business with surprising, though less spectacular results.

Houston climbed into seventh place and sent Milwaukee reeling to ninth with 5-2 and 3-4 victories over the Braves. Chicago swept a twin bill from Pittsburgh 2-1 and 7-2. Los Angeles split with Cincinnati, winning 4-2 and losing 2-1. San Francisco trimmed St. Louis 7-3 in a single game.

Bunning — and everyone else — credited Phil's second baseman Tony Taylor with the game's fielding gem. Taylor dove to field Jesse Gonder's fifth inning bid in the hole and threw Gonder out from a kneeling position.

Elsewhere, Houston's Rusty Staub went on a four-hit, two-homer spree against Warren Spahn and two successors in the opener with Milwaukee. Second game homers by winning pitcher Ken Johnson and Joe Gaiques helped the Colts sweep the four-game set and hand the Braves their sixth straight setback.

Larry Jackson pitched a three-hitter, retiring the last 22 batters in order, and drove in both Chicago runs in the opener. Lew Burdette allowed five hits through seven innings in the second game before yielding to Lindy McDaniel.

Sandy Koufax became the second NL pitcher to win 10 games, checking Cincinnati in the first game with the help of Frank Howard, who drove in two runs with a single and his 15th homer. Aida Pinson doubled and Deron Johnson homered in the first inning of the nightcap for the Reds' margin.

Hal Lanier, son of the former NL pitcher, collected four of San Francisco's 13 hits, including his first major league homer. Willie Mays followed the rookie's shot with his 22nd circuit.

International League Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Jacksonville Suns don't like to share first place in the International League standings with anybody.

The Suns, who took over the top spot about two weeks ago, scored two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning Sunday to defeat Rochester 7-6 and knock the Red Wings out of first place after a one-day stand.

The other six teams split doubleheaders. Buffalo extended its winning streak to 11 games by stopping Richmond in the first game 4-2, but then lost the nightcap 8-1. Syracuse took the first game from Atlanta 6-4 and then lost the second 7-5, while Columbus defeated Toronto 8-5 and then lost 2-0.

Jacksonville opened the ninth with a home run by Mike Shannon to knot the score 6-6.

Joe Damaska and Ron Cox then singled and the Suns loaded the bases on an error. Joe Morgan's single scored the winning run.

Buffalo's longest winning streak in 28 years ended when Richmond blasted the Bisons in the nightcap. In that game Richmond scored six runs in the fifth inning.

Chi Chi Olivo, making his first start of the season after winning eight games in relief without a loss, blanked Columbus 2-0 on five hits in the second game.

Bo Belinsky's mouth says he wants to go to Hawaii, but his left arm isn't helping buy the ticket.

Belinsky, Los Angeles Angels' southpaw, came within one out of hurling his first shutout in nearly two years Sunday but had to settle for relief help and a 4-1 triumph over Cleveland.

The victory was Belinsky's third straight, giving him a 5-3 record. He reduced his earned run average to 3.12 while scattering six hits and striking out nine.

The appearance was the first for the 27-year-old lefty since he revealed last week that he had asked the Angels' management to return him to Hawaii, where he pitched in the minor leagues for a while last season.

The pressure of being a star in the big leagues was too much, Belinsky contended.

So, Bo decided, he better change his ways before ulcers did more damage than American League batters. Hawaii, he was convinced, was the proper prescription for recovery.

His request, however, was rejected, and Belinsky must content himself with pitching for the Angels until he earns the return trip.

The way he's going now, he may have to wait until the winter.

In other AL action, New York moved into first place by sweeping Chicago 2-0 and 2-1 in 17 innings. Boston downed Baltimore 9-6. Detroit defeated Minnesota 4-2 and Washington took Kansas City 13-2 and 5-2.

Belinsky had a four-hit shutout as the Indians got to him for a walk and two hits with one out remaining in the game. Bob Dilliba came on and retired the last batter, preserving the Angels' five-game winning streak.

The Yankees continued their amazing mastery over Chicago, extending their record this season to 9-0 with the White Sox. The double victory moved the Yankees eight percentage points ahead of the Orioles.

Home runs by Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle took care of the opener. New York, however, needed an error by shortstop Al Weis with the bases loaded in the 17th to win the nightcap.

Weis fumbled Bill Stafford's grounder, allowing Hector Lopez to score. Lopez had doubled with one out and reached third on walks to Howard and Phil Linz.

Dick Stuart belted four hits and drove in four runs, three on a homer, as the Red Sox helped dump the Orioles from the top. Carl Yastrzemski had three singles and drove in two runs for Boston. John Orsino and Willie Kirkland homered for Baltimore.

Dave Wickersham beat Minnesota for the fourth time without a defeat this season. The Tiger hurler needed help from Ed Rakow in the ninth after Tony Oliva homered and a walk and singles by Bob Allison and Jerry Kindall brought in another run.

George Thomas singled across two runs for the Tigers in the first while Baltimore's Phillips homered in the seventh.

The Senators cooled off the Athletics, winners of eight of their previous nine games. Don Lock drove in five runs with two homers in the opener and doubled home a run in the second game. Jim King had four hits and two RBI in the first game.

Al Koch held the Athletics to three hits in the nightcap before Ed Charles homered in the ninth. Ron Kaline relieved Koch and retired the side. Koch singled home what turned out to be the deciding run in the fourth.

Legans Is Medalist In Qualifying Round

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP) —Bill Legans, with a one-over-par 73, was the medalist Sunday in Finger Lakes District qualifying play for the New York State Men's Amateur Golf Championship.

Thirty-four competed at the Country Club of Ithaca for the nine berths. Other qualifying rounds are scheduled at 10 other courses in the state later this month and July 1 and 2.

The 42nd annual state tournament will be played July 21-25 at Cooperstown Country Club.

Springfield Is Back on Top Of Eastern Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Springfield Grays climbed back on top of the Eastern League Sunday with a sweep of a doubleheader over the Reading Red Sox, 2-0 and 3-2.

Tommy Arruda pitched a four hitter for the Grays in the opener, winning his eighth game in 11 decisions. Springfield scored both runs in the fifth, with Larry Edmondson knocking one in with a single and Arruda getting the other home with a Texas leaguer.

Doug Gentry (3-3) took the loss.

In the nightcap, the Sox were ahead 2-0 until the sixth inning, when Dan Markowski's three-run homer turned things around and gave the Giants and Fran Kasheha (7-2) the win. Reliever Tom Hallett took the defeat for the Sox.

At Elmira, relief pitcher John Hogg threw a wild pitch that the Charleston Indians in the 15th inning and Martinez came home with the deciding run in a three-hour-25-minute contest.

Martinez had made first on an error, stole second, and gone to third on a wild throw before racing home with the winning tally. Pete Olson picked up the 1-0 win.

The York White Roses, led by the three-hit pitching of Barry Moore (5-7), racked up 10 hits, including two home runs, in trouncing the Williamsport Mets, 9-0.

Jack Krol hit his ninth homer of the year in the first inning, a two-run blast, and Mike Sinerud accounted for two more with a four-bagger in the fourth.

Northeastern Water Ski Tournament

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP) —Al Tyl of Bantam Lake, Conn., and Dickie Ann Hoyt of Fairhaven, N.J., stole the show in weekend competition at the Northeastern Water Ski Tournament.

Tyl, the national trick-riding water ski champion, scored a record 4,004 points Sunday in winning the trick-riding event. Sponsors of the event said the previous high for a single tournament was 3,629 points.

Miss Hoyt, national girls' champion last year, swept the women's division with victories in the slalom Saturday and the jumping and tricks events Friday. She won the slalom with 29 consecutive buoys.

No over-all titles were awarded in the three-day tournament on the Mohawk River, which ended Sunday.

West Point Sports Director To Speak at Sullivan Dinner

JOHN B. KRESS

A testimonial dinner honoring John W. Sullivan for his contributions to an outstanding basketball program over many years will be given Saturday by St. Mary's CYO Basketball Coaches Association.

Guest speaker for the event to be held 7 p. m. at Tommy's Restaurant, High Street, will be John B. Kress, associate director of physical education at United States Military Academy, West Point.

Reservation deadline is Wednesday. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Joseph Stenson or Philip Furnari.

In his present post at West Point Kress is responsible for specialized physical education such as posture, corrective exercise, reconditioning, guidance, weight control and extra instruction. He has been at West Point since 1952 and was formerly soccer coach.

A native of Rochester, Kress is a graduate of Cortland State Teachers College and Columbia University Teachers College where he earned his MA degree. He served as coach of athletics at Franklin Academy, Malone and Ben Franklin High School and Edison Technical High School, Rochester prior to joining the West Point staff.

McAndrew One-Hits S & E, Port Ewen Wins, in City Loop

Port Ewen Merchants pushed across the winning tally in the bottom of the sixth frame on a double by Dave Norton to take a 3-2 verdict over Elmer's Inn in the City League.

Port Ewen moundsman Wayne Johnson limited Elmer's Inn to a lone hit—a triple by Jim Williams in the fifth inning—which went for naught.

The Merchants drew first blood in the bottom of the first when Bob Slover scored on an error. They added another in the second frame when a run was walked in with two men out.

Elmer's bounced back with one run in the top of the third when Brian Bach scored on an error after reaching base on a miscue, and added another in the fifth on a fluke play. In the latter frame, Gene Stoutenburg walked, stole second and scored when the pitcher tripped on the rubber while trying to pick him off second base.

Port Ewen broke the 2-2 tie in the sixth when Bill Slover walked, went to second on a wild pitch and came home on Horton's blast.

The Merchants' Bob Slover made a fantastic catch in right field in the seventh to rob Vince Crantz of an extra base hit for the losers.

The Merchants' Jack Clark led in the base hit department with two hits in three trips to the plate. Port Ewen committed five errors while Elmer's racked up four miscues. Vince Fisher took the loss for Elmer's.

Kingston Merchants racked up two three-run innings in the third and fifth frames in notching the shutout victory over S & E.

McAndrew struck out the first nine men he faced in three innings. His teammates—in an obvious effort to show their appreciation—decided to break the scoring columns. Frank Kuch walked and stole second. McAndrew also walked and Kuch came home on an error by Bill Boice. McAndrew was scored on a fielder's choice. Len Whitten was second seeded in the two-day 2,000-meter championships on Ondaga Lake, the Golden Bears swam confidently to victory by two lengths over Washington's dark horse Huskies Saturday.

Cornell, defending champion and the strong favorite, was third by about another half-length.

California, rowing 39 strokes a minute through the body of the race, sprinted into the lead at about 450-meter mark and opened water the rest of the race. The Bears went to a count of 40-41 at the finish. They made their first appearance in Eastern waters, plan to stay East for the Olympic trials and a possible trip to Tokyo.

"I still don't have permission from the athletic director. Maybe I better call him," Lemmon said with a glint in his eyes.

Washington's crew also plans to stay in the East and compete in the Olympic trials.

But Stork Sanford, whose Cornell crew had hoped to take its 22nd IRA crown was undecided. "We'll wait and see," he said.

That's my daddy," 12-year-old Barbara Bunning told any who cared to listen while her 32-year-old father toiled against the New York Mets.

Then, after slim Jim fired a third strike past Met pinch hitter John Stephenson for the 27th consecutive out and the first National League perfect game in 84 years, Barbara and her mother made their way through the crowd to the playing field.

To the delight of photographers Barbara gave her beaming father a big kiss. Bunning beamed even more.

"It's a wonderful feeling," the Philadelphia right-hander said after the 6-0 victory. "I still can't believe it. I feel wonderful, just wonderful."

"He had everything," catcher Gus Triandos said. "Good fast ball, good slider, good curve. His curve was his best pitch. Most of his strikeouts, maybe all of them, came on the curve."

Little LEAGUERS

Hurley Giants Take Pair by 9-6

The Hurley Giants waxed like their famed big league namesakes in World Series of long ago by beating the Yankees two straight by identical scores of 9-6.

Tom Jansen fanned 10 Yanks in winning Sunday's game in 92-degree heat. A steady build-up of runs gave them the win in Saturday's game.

The Yankees scored three tallies in the bottom of the second with a lone tally. They added one more in both the third and fourth.

The Giants rallied for four in the fifth and the Yanks came back with one to make it 6-5 Yanks. The Giants opened up with four singles in the sixth frame, which along with a Yankee error provided them with the decisive runs. The Yanks went scoreless in the final frame. Jansen walked five batters. Mike Bushnell fanned four and issued as many walks in taking the loss.

Bob Arcus rapped two doubles for the losers in three trips to the plate. Two baggers were also slammed by Yank Glen Littlefield, and the Giants' Bill Francis, who rapped two-for-four, and Dan Waters. Yankee Gary Hoffstatter also poked two-for-four at the plate. Rich Swithers of the Giants had a perfect day with three-for-three.

Jansen got himself out of a jam in the final inning by striking out two batters with one out and two men on base.

The Giants poked 11 hits in the other contest which they won in spite of a five-run spurge by the Yanks in the sixth inning.

Giants scored once in the first, four times in the second and twice in the third while limiting the Yanks to a single tally for a commanding 7-1 lead. They added two more in the fifth for a 9-1 margin until the Yanks blew open in the top of the final frame. However, five was the best the Yanks could manage and that wasn't enough.

Rich Swithers and Cliff Kline stroked doubles for the winners while Bruce Wolford rapped a two-bagger for the Yanks. Tom Jansen whacked two hits in four trips for the Giants while teammate Bill Francis went two-for-three. Yankee Ken Hoffstatter slapped three singles in four appearances at bat.

The line scores:

Giants .....010 044- 9 9
Yankees .....031 110- 6 8
Tom Jansen and Mike Tyrell; Mike Bushnell and Dirk Hoffstatter.

Yankees .....001 005- 6 8

To the delight of photographers Barbara gave her beaming father a big kiss. Bunning beamed even more.

"It's a wonderful feeling," the Philadelphia right-hander said after the 6-0 victory. "I still can't believe it. I feel wonderful, just wonderful."

"He had everything," catcher Gus Triandos said. "Good fast ball, good slider, good curve. His curve was his best pitch. Most of his strikeouts, maybe all of them, came on the curve."

That's my daddy," 12-year-old Barbara Bunning told any who cared to listen while her 32-year-old father toiled against the New York Mets.

Then, after slim Jim fired a third strike past Met pinch hitter John Stephenson for the 27th consecutive out and the first National League perfect game in 84 years, Barbara and her mother made their way through the crowd to the playing field.

Dodgers Win, 7-2, Take Hurley Lead

Dodgers took the Hurley LL half-way championship with a 7-2 playoff win over the Tigers. Each team had an 8-2 record going into the playoff.

The Tigers held a 2-1 lead for two innings, but the Dodgers bounced back with two in the third to post a 3-2 lead. After a scoreless fourth frame, the Dodgers rammed four tallies across. A single by Ricky Vogt, who went two-for-three at the plate, and a double by Don Clune helped produce the bonus runs. The Tigers' Jim Kerl, who saw duty at first base, on the mound and in the outfield, blasted a home run in a losing cause. Team mate Tim Whalen poked two-for-three.

Winning pitcher Erick Assion struck out eight Tigers and walked three in picking up the victory. Losing hurler Kerl fanned two and gave five bases on balls.

The line score:

Dodgers .....012 040 7 5
Tigers .....020 000 2 3
Erick Assion and Bill Van Allen; Richie Whalen, Tim Whalen, Jim Kerl and Scot Smith.

Bob Arcus rapped two doubles for the losers in three trips to the plate. Two baggers were also slammed by Yank Glen Littlefield, and the Giants' Bill Francis, who rapped two-for-four, and Dan Waters. Yankee Gary Hoffstatter also poked two-for-four at the plate. Rich Swithers of the Giants had a perfect day with three-for-three.

Jansen got himself out of a jam in the final inning by striking out two batters with one out and two men on base.

The Giants poked 11 hits in the other contest which they won in spite of a five-run spurge by the Yanks in the sixth inning.

Giants scored once in the first, four times in the second and twice in the third while limiting the Yanks to a single tally for a commanding 7-1 lead. They added two more in the fifth for a 9-1 margin until the Yanks blew open in the top of the final frame. However, five was the best the Yanks could manage and that wasn't enough.

Rich Swithers and Cliff Kline stroked doubles for the winners while Bruce Wolford rapped a two-bagger for the Yanks. Tom Jansen whacked two hits in four trips for the Giants while teammate Bill Francis went two-for-three. Yankee Ken Hoffstatter slapped three singles in four appearances at bat.

The line scores:

Giants .....010 044- 9 9
Tom Jansen and Mike Tyrell; Mike Bushnell and Dirk Hoffstatter.

Yankees .....001 005- 6 8
Pat McGuire (L), Glen Littlefield and Dirk Hoffstatter; Mike Tyrell and Rich Swithers.

Washington's crew also plans to stay in the East and compete in the Olympic trials.

But Stork Sanford, whose Cornell crew had hoped to take its 22nd IRA crown was undecided. "We'll wait and see," he said.

Timely Knight Wins Seventh Straight at MR

MONTICELLO, New York, June 20—Timely Knight, the unbeaten Canadian three-year-old, made it seven straight trips to the winners circle by coming on strong to nose out Royal Domain in tonight's feature $5,000 invitational pace at Monticello Raceway.

The mile went in 2:03 flat, a full second off the good time colt's best previous win mark, set here a week ago.

Roger White, who garnered his 15th victory of the young meet with Timely Knight, pulled away from the starting gate and held the lead by a nose as the opening quarter went in a brisk 30.2.

Howard Beissinger brushed Brown Jet to the top going into the second turn and held Command through the half and three-quarters, kicking off fractions of 1:01.2 and 1:32.3. About mid-way down the stretch, Timely Knight, and Royal Domain, reined by Bobby Camper, closed fast and it took the photo finish camera to decide the winner.

Dayton Freight got home for show money, followed by Cherry Point, Brown Jet and Starboard. Timely Knight, sent off as the even-money favorite by the odds, returned mutuels of $4.00, $2.90 and $2.60. The victory boosted colt's seasonal bankroll to the $14,000 mark.

Royal Domain was worth $3.20 and $2.90 as the place horse, while Dayton Freight got home for a $3.10 show price.

The twin double, consisting of numbers 3-8 and 2-5 returned a $1615.20 payoff.

Kingston Boosters In Default Win Over Albany A.C.

The Kingston Sport Club—like everyone else sweltering from intense heat—set an unwanted league record Sunday when they won by default over the Albany Sons of Italy when the referee declared the game over in the second half to end a 2-2 tie.

Referee Ed Toth awarded the game to the locals when the Albany squad declined to abide by his orders and spectators converged on the field. Tempers flared and spectators rushed out to the Oehler Mountain Lodge playing field. After efforts to settle arguments proved futile, Toth decided the match would have to be categorized as poor sportsmanship and ruled default by the Albanians. The club's refusal to play the match resulted in a forfeit to the Kingston players by the Sons of Italy.

It was reportedly the first time in league history that a game was won by default—at least locally.

Mike Newmierzhy made the first Kingston goal in eight minutes. Albany scored twice before George Visvayri kicked a penalty goal to tie the score.

A decision to Toth early in the second half resulted in the Albanians departure from the field. Toth decided the contest by awarding the win to the Kingston boosters—who now owns a tie for the league lead with the Albany Athletic Club. Two games will be played to decide the league championship. The first will be next Sunday when the Kingston club hosts Albany A.C. at Oehler's, and the second will be July 5 when they play a return match with the A.C. at Zwickerbauer's Field at McCormack's Corners.

In other CNSL games, Albany Athletic Club defeated the Schenectady Sons of Italy 6-3, and Poughkeepsie's Blue & White tied the Albany 2-2. The Poughkeepsie Club ends the season in a third place tie with the Troy Sports Club.

Will they follow him to Scot-d?
Gen. Venturi, who won the Open Golf Championship in focusing heat and pressure, the fellow who got rid of his spanions. . .

player that he is expected a factor in every major c hampionship. He wasn't a facto the Open, after he bogeyed last three holes of the round.
Nicklaus finished way bac
295. The next stop is the Br
Open at St. Andrews, July
It is the only major title m laus has never won. He ha in the bag last year, but finished bogey-bogey and by a stroke.

...didn't have anything like the Army following me
the last few years," Venturi said, "but I had a gang was just as persistent. I ed, them Venturi's vules," hen, after he had convinced self and everyone else that would never pay off on his the promise, Vuturi plodded the Open title the hard-way—the lead for the final nine hours, playing in front of 100,000 spectators.

He finished with 66 and 70 for the second best score ever in the Open.

And now, the golf question is: Jack Nicklaus, the Ohio Buckeye Bear, snap out of the trap that has dogged him of late.

Of course, there are many players who would love to have Jack's troubles. Big Jack is No. 1 on the money list, has two tours and a million dollars.

The Weather

MONDAY, JUNE 22, 1964
Sun rises at 4:21 a. m.; sun sets at 7:36 p. m., E.S.T.
Weather: Cloudy, humid.

The Temperature

The lowest temperature recorded on The Freeman thermometer during the night was 66 degrees. The highest figure recorded up to noon today was 76 degrees.

Weather Forecast

HOT AND SULTRY

Western Catskills, Northeastern New York, Upper Hudson Valley, Mohawk Valley:

Considerable sunshine, warm, and humid this afternoon. High mainly in the low or mid 80s. Mostly fair and a little cooler tonight. Low in the mid or upper 60s. Tuesday considerable sunshine, variable cloudiness and warm and humid. Chance of scattered thundershowers in the afternoon. High mainly in the 80s. Winds light and variable through Tuesday morning, southerly, 10-18, in the afternoon.

Lower Hudson Valley: Diminishing cloudiness this afternoon and rather humid. High in the 80s. Generally fair and a little cooler tonight. Low 55-60. Tuesday variable clouds and sunshine and warm and humid with chance of scattered afternoon or evening thundershowers. High in the mid or upper 80s. Some ground fog likely in rural sections. Tuesday hot and humid, thundershowers toward evening. Light variable winds, mostly northeasterly, 5-10 this afternoon, becoming southerly, 10-20, Tuesday.

Many young men in Laos spend at least a few weeks in a Buddhist monastery before getting married.

State Weather Is To Remain Muggy, To Get Some Rain

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) —The warm, muggy weather blanket that ushered in summer threatens to continue stifling the state, at least until Tuesday.

The Weather Bureau forecast no general breakup today of the small high-pressure areas, responsible for the 90-degree readings, which began Saturday.

Scattered showers, moving out of the western portion of the state, were considered likely, however.

Some relief, in the form of thundershowers, hit widespread spots in Western New York Sunday, the first day of summer, which came officially at 4:57 A.M.

At Hinsdale, in Cattaraugus County, the rains washed out a half-mile of ties beneath the Erie-Lackawanna Railroad tracks, and some cellars were flooded by water overflowing from Olean Creek.

No other flooding was reported.

High readings ranged from 94 in Albany to 85 in Buffalo, Rochester, Rome and Olean. New York City registered 91 degrees.

Names In The News

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ford To Marry In Italy

LONDON (AP)—Henry Ford II and Mrs. Christina Austin plan to marry in Italy next October, says the Daily Sketch.

The London newspaper said Mrs. Austin, an Italian and the widow of a British naval officer, "has told friends that the wedding will most likely be in Milan where she has a home."

The American automobile magnate's first wife, socialite Anne McDonnell, divorced him last February.

Against Separate Treaty

BERLIN (AP)—Walter Ulbricht, Communist leader of East Germany, says he wants no separate peace treaty with the Soviet Union.

An East German news agency quoted Ulbricht as telling a group of visitors from West Berlin that he wants East Germany to become so strong that it can carry through a policy leading to a peace treaty for both German states.

Son for Landons

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actor Michael Landon, one of the stars of the Bonanza television series, and his wife, Lynn, have a new son. The 7-pound, 13-ounce boy was born Saturday night.

Advice to Missionaries

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Quote of the day: Pope Paul VI, speaking to 136 missionary priests on the first anniversary of his election to the papacy: "We are about to send you around like sheep in the midst of wolves. We urge you: Be as prudent as serpents and as simple as doves."

Week's Weather To Be Humid, Rain Spotty

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — Extended forecasts for Upstate New York, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau for the period from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Saturday:

Eastern New York — Rather warm and humid most of the week. Temperatures 5 or more degrees above normal. Scattered showers or thundershowers likely Tuesday night or Wednesday and again near the end of the week. Rainfall will be spotty and generally light.

Western New York — Temperatures will average 4-8 degrees above normal. Cooler about mid-week, otherwise continued warm. Rainfall Tuesday or Wednesday will average around one-quarter inch.

Temperature Normals — Daytime highs 75-82; nighttime lows 55-60.

Passenger Hurt As Car Hits Pole; Driver Arrested

A Greene County motorist was cited for failing to keep to the right, and a passenger in his car was injured at 5:40 p. m. Sunday, when the vehicle left Route 9W, Town of Catskill and hit a utility pole.

Leeds State Police said George M. Ascanio, 31, of Box 58, Maple Avenue, Cementon, was driving south when his car crossed the pavement to the northbound lane and hit the pole off the east shoulder. Troopers summoned Ascanio to appear in local justice's court later.

Sarah Ascanio, 42, same address, a passenger in the vehicle, was taken to Greene County Memorial Hospital suffering a cerebral concussion and lacerations of the face and body.

Kennedy's Condition Improves Bright, Alert, He Asks for Papers

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's condition was described today as "extremely satisfactory" by his attending physician.

Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, who has been caring for the senator since he suffered a broken back in an airplane crash Friday night, said in a morning bulletin that Kennedy is "bright and alert and asked to see the morning newspapers."

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his wife, who suffered less serious injuries in the accident, are also hospital patients. They were expected to remain at the Cooley Dickinson Hospital the rest of the week.

Was Talking to Moss

Bayh said Sunday that Kennedy did not have on a seat belt at the time of impact and was half standing talking to his aide, Edward Moss, 41, one of the two men killed in the crash. The senator is resting on a special canvas rigging instead of a regular hospital bed.

Known as a "Foster frame," it takes the place of a more uncomfortable, unwieldy plaster cast which for years was a must for persons with fractured vertebrae.

The frame will keep Kennedy, 32, as comfortable as possible while surgeons determine whether surgery will be needed for the three broken vertebrae he suffered in a plane crash Friday night in which two persons died.

Recovery to Be Full

Though the freshman Democratic senator, elected 19 months ago to fill his brother's unexpired term in the U.S. Senate, faces six to eight months of recuperation, doctors stress he will recover completely, barring unforeseen complications.

Also at Cooley Dickinson Hospital were Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and his wife. They were in good condition from less serious injuries suffered in the crash but were expected to be held at the hospital the rest of the week.

Can't Be Moved

Kennedy cannot be moved for another 10 to 12 days, Brig. Gen. Henry Murphree, head of the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital in Washington, said Sunday night.

He and Dr. Thomas F. Corriden, who has been attending the senator since he was brought into the hospital early Saturday, said Kennedy continues to show "definite improvement." Doctors had said previously that there was no neurological damage and that Kennedy escaped any paralysis from the broken back.

Kennedy also suffered two broken ribs and fractures of three transverse processes, which extend from the vertebrae and give the spine support.

Ulrich Reelected At Hudson Valley Vols Convention

Henry J. Ulrich of Kingston was reelected vice president for Ulster County at the three-day annual convention of Hudson Valley Volunteer Firemen's Association at Lake George this weekend. Approximately 300 persons were stricken by the 94 degree heat and high humidity.

Ulrich, a member of Weiner Hose Company, here, was a delegate of Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Although there were reports that some of the young band members were stricken, no victims were among the contingent of Boy Scout Troop 12 Indians who led Ulster County parade Sunday afternoon.

The election of officers included the following: Theodore J. E. Berg of North Tarrytown was elected president. He succeeds Elliott Harris of Hudson Falls.

Others elected were William May, of Albany, first vice president; Joseph Gnoechi of Monroe, (Continued on Page 10, Col. 5)

and South, says he thinks the major swing to him by delegates now favoring front-running Sen. Barry Goldwater will start in about a week and a half.

Scranton gave no figures on shifts so far in his appearance Sunday on the CBS radio-television program "Face the Nation."

Has Eye on Columbus

He planned to stay in Harrisburg, Pa., today, but had an eye on Columbus, Ohio, where the 58-vote Ohio delegation is scheduled to meet.

The delegation includes at least 15 Goldwater supporters but is nominally pledged to Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes on the first ballot. A key to Scranton's success is to assure that such delegations stay uncommitted so that Goldwater doesn't go over the top on the first rollcall at the GOP convention at San Francisco.

"If he doesn't win on the first ballot, it would be very difficult for him to win at all," Scranton told newsmen Sunday before he returned to Harrisburg from Washington.

Success, He Says

While in the capital he conferred with the nine-delegate District of Columbia delegation. He called it "a very successful meeting" but declined to elaborate.

The latest Associated Press survey of GOP convention delegates gives Goldwater 694 first-ballot votes—33 more than the number needed for nomination. Scranton is credited with 138 votes.

A spot check of GOP delegates from Missouri, Nevada, Utah, Kansas, Nebraska, Tennessee and Georgia showed Goldwater's strength remained what it was before he voted against the civil rights bill.

Busy Schedule

Scranton's schedule this week includes trips to New Jersey, Delaware, West Virginia, Ohio and Michigan, which together have 163 delegates uncommitted or behind favorite sons.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., who will be permanent chairman of the San Francisco convention, said today Illinois might indicate whether Scranton can take delegates away from Goldwater.

The 58-delegate group, headed by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, meet next Tuesday to hear Goldwater and Scranton state their cases. At present, Goldwater is credited with 37 Illinois votes, while 19 indicated Dirksen and GOP gubernatorial candidate Charles H. Percy are uncommitted.

Demo Developments

There were these developments on the Democratic side: President Johnson returned to Washington well pleased with three days spent in California.

Uptown Business Officers Change Thursday Night

A dinner meeting of the Uptown Kingston Business Men's Association will be held Thursday at 7 p. m. in Hoppe's Restaurant, Wall Street.

Co-chairmen of the meeting are Harold Kaye and H. Van Wyck Darrow. Anyone who has not been contacted and is desirous of attending the dinner may call one of the co-chairmen.

This is the annual dinner meeting at which time the change in officers takes place. George Svirsky, retiring president, will relinquish his duties to the new president, Adrian Kaplan.

CELEBRATES 102ND BIRTHDAY—Mrs. Perry (Ella) Loomis of Phoenixia was 102 years old yesterday. Born in Town of Olive June 21, 1862, Mrs. Loomis is still very alert in spite of her advanced years. She was guest of honor at a party given at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Kay Schnakenberg of Kingston. In her youth the Phoenixia woman was a school teacher and later a principal in a section of the Town of Olive since covered by the Ashokan Reservoir. Her vivid memories include hearing the news of Lincoln's assassination; Grover Cleveland's administration; the first airplane flight and the spectacular deeds of Admiral Dewey. An active citizen throughout her life, Mrs. Loomis also served as a Freeman correspondent for the Town of Olive. She has a daughter, Miss Harriet Loomis of Phoenixia, another granddaughter, Mrs. Jacquelyn Finch and three great-grandchildren.

2 Drownings Push State's Toll to 23

Twenty-three persons were victims of accidental deaths in New York State over the weekend, including an 18-year old Dutchess County youth and an 8-year-old Greene County girl who died in drowning mishaps.

A Poughkeepsie man was killed in a motorcycle accident during races at Middletown.

Wingdale Drowning
South Millbrook State Police said John Monette of Poughquag, L. I. drowned at about 1:40 p. m. Sunday while swimming in Lake Ellis near Wingdale. Troopers reported Monette started to swim across the lake and when he was about 25 feet off shore he shouted for help and then went beneath the surface.

State police summoned members of the department's skin divers organization and also members of the Dutchess County Skin Divers Club. Before they arrived at the lake, Waldemar Kasierski, who was at the lake at the time used his scuba equipment and searched for the body. Troopers said Monette was taken from the water within an hour. The spot where the youth drowned was 40 feet deep, it was said.

Dover Plains firemen assisted state police with unavailing artificial respiration. Monette was pronounced dead. His body was taken to a Pawling funeral home.

Starts Grappling

Leeds State Police, assisted by deputy sheriffs, volunteer firemen and civilians, today continued to grapple in the Hudson River in the vicinity of Four Mile Point, between Cossackie and Athens for the body of a girl believed to have drowned Sunday night.

Troopers said eight-year-old Lynn Capewell and her father, Guy, of Athens went to the river to swim early last night. At about 8 p. m., an unidentified child shouted to Capewell and told him his daughter had disappeared.

Johnston invited Inonu and Papandreu in the wake of reports that Turkey planned to pull troops ashore on Cyprus. The President then ordered Undersecretary of State George W. Ball to Athens and Ankara to express this government's concern over the situation.

Nocturnal Events Open With Movie In Forsyth Park

The 1964 nocturnal season of the Kingston Recreation Department will get under way Tuesday evening with the showing of the movie Naked Jungle at Forsyth Park starting at dusk.

The film stars Charlton Heston and Eleanor Parker, and will be shown Wednesday at Hasbrouck Park and Thursday at Colonial Gardens.

The department plans to have at least one such nocturnal activity a night, Monday through Thursday from now until late August, according to Andrew J. Murphy III, superintendent. Other scheduled events are band concerts by the Kingston Concert Band and a number of park dances.

Neutrality Stressed For Khrushch

Red Leader Gets To Sweden Today

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev sailed into Sweden on a chilly Baltic wind today. He was told straight away that Swedes are dedicated to their neutrality.

He also was met by newspaper demands for information about a Swedish diplomat captured by the Russians in 1945.

Promptly, the Soviet leader tried to warm up the atmosphere. He came, he said at dockside, on "a mission of friendship and good neighborliness" that fully appreciated Sweden's neutral policy. He wanted "sincere talks" with government leaders, he said, to strengthen good relations.

Heavy Security

"I do not think we will have anything to argue about." Many Swedes are not keen about Khrushchev's coming here. The government mounted heavy security. There have been threats against his life.

About 5,000 spectators watched Khrushchev's arrival from across the harbor five miles away. At dockside were the official government reception groups, honor guards and the diplomatic corps, minus the U.S., British and French ambassadors—and, so far as newsmen could tell, the Red Chinese ambassador.

No Change Intended

Premier Tage Erlander, a Socialist, made it plain in his welcoming address that Sweden has no intention of changing its neutral policy, which he said has the objective of peaceful co-existence, Khrushchev's present foreign policy tack.

After the ceremonies Khrushchev drove off in a 1949 Lincoln limousine, the car which is said to have been fitted with bulletproof armor to take him around Sweden.

Khrushchev and his wife, Nina, came ashore in a Swedish motor torpedo boat after sailing through the Baltic Sea from Denmark in the Soviet liner Bashkirta.

Make Demand

In big headlines and outspoken words they demanded an official statement from him on the fate of Raoul Wallenberg, Swedish diplomat who was arrested by Soviet troops in Hungary and has not been heard of since.

What About One House? Asks Carlino

NEW YORK (AP) — Joseph F. Carlino, state assembly speaker, says the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision on legislative reapportionment makes one wonder if the state should consider a single legislative house instead of senate and assembly.

Speaking Sunday on the WGBS-TV program, "Newsmakers," Carlino said that if the same basis (population) is used to fill seats of both houses, "why do you need two houses?"

Roosevelt Leaves Way Clear for VP

Under Secretary of Commerce Franklin Delano Roosevelt Jr., in a strong address Sunday night in Ellenville, urged all Americans to erase the scourge of discrimination and to eliminate the pockets of misery and poverty in this country.

Speaking to more than 500 leading Democrats at the Fallsview Hotel in Ellenville on the occasion of the annual Ulster County Democratic Committee dinner, Roosevelt also emphasized that "... skills are the most important things to teach our children today."

At a press conference prior to the dinner, Roosevelt was asked for a statement about the possibility of his being nominated Democratic candidate for vice president. He stated he was "very flattered" but emphasized the decision lay with the convention, the Party and with the wishes of President Lyndon B. Johnson. Roosevelt, however, left the door open to a nomination by concluding "... if asked, I will serve."

Candidates Present

The dinner was also attended by the Ulster County Democratic candidates for office. They are: John Parete, candidate for county treasurer; Herbert Weiss, candidate for district attorney; Robert R. Mandia, candidate for State Assembly; George A. Majestic, candidate for State Senator; and Joseph Y. Resnick, candidate for Congress.

The guest speaker was introduced by Aaron E. Klein, county chairman. In opening his address, Under Secretary Roosevelt said he was "... very sorry for the Republican Party today. Eisenhower can't make up his mind whether to go right or left. He had trouble making up his mind for eight years in the White House. Goldwater, if nominated, will not be able to find the main stream of American thought much less the main stream of his own party."

Roosevelt touched briefly upon Scranton and Rockefeller. About Nixon, he said: "... in politics, he should know you can't ride two chairs at the same time."

Notes Increase

In reviewing the main issues of today, Roosevelt stressed that in January 20, 1960, the gross national product was $500 billion. Today it is about $610 billion, or an increase of 20 percent.

About unemployment, he stated it was the lowest since 1957. Roosevelt felt the country was doing very well on employment and general growth of economy.

Appalachian Problem

As chairman of the Appalachian Project, Roosevelt stated it was to raise the standard of living in that geographic area not only for the sake of the people living there but for the sake of the country.

"We must remember that if you have a head cold, your whole body feels miserable. So it is with our economy. If we cure these pockets of misery and poverty, our entire country will do better," Mr. Roosevelt believes that this major problem can impede our continued prosperity unless solved.

The second major problem facing the country today, Mr. Roosevelt stated, was unemployment. About it he said:

"Out of the 250,000 unemployed in greater New York, almost 95 percent of them are unskilled. The days of unskilled laborers are almost gone. We have to teach the people the skills before they go to work. We must encourage industries to adopt training programs."

Skills Most Important

"Skills are the most important things to teach our children today. About 75 percent of our children getting out of high school are unskilled. By training them, we will not only progress in the field of employment but we will have done more to end our problems of delinquency. By training the children, it will remove the despair in the hearts of many people."

About minority groups, Mr. Roosevelt was firm in his belief that if the negroes and other minorities are given equal opportunity for education in order (Continued on Page 10, Col. 6)

Battle Is Continued Six Hours

Security Forces Finally Win Out

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Indonesian guerrillas made one of the biggest attacks of the Borneo jungle war Sunday night, only 24 hours after the collapse of the second Malaysian summit conference, a security forces spokesman announced in Sarawak.

Five Gurkhas were killed and five others wounded in the six-hour battle near the frontier about 50 miles west of Kuching, the spokesman said.

The number of guerrilla casualties was not known. The dead and wounded were reportedly carried back across the frontier as security forces forced the guerrillas to retreat.

The spokesman said the attack on the Gurkha patrol continued for six hours in some of the fiercest fighting of the anti-guerrilla campaign.

Tougher Stand

Government officials predicted a major stepup in the Indonesian guerrilla campaign following collapse of the peace conference Saturday in Tokyo.

Radio Indonesia voiced a tougher new stand against Malaysia.

The State Security Council in the Malaysian Borneo state of Sarawak scheduled an emergency meeting. The situation on the frontier is grave, Chief Minister Stephen Kalong Ningkan said. Ningkan said, however, that British and Malaysian security forces could handle the situation if Indonesia tried to send more guerrillas into Sarawak.

Futile Sessions

Indonesian President Sukarno who stalked out of the Tokyo summit meeting, then returned for a final futile session Saturday, has not commented on the conference breakup.

The official government news agency Antara said Indonesian guerrillas "will continue their struggle in north Kalimantan (Malaysian Borneo) as Indonesia's determined answer to neocolonialist 'subversion and encirclement tactics.'"

Foreign Minister Subandrio declared Indonesia considered collapse of the Tokyo negotiations "satisfactory" because Indonesia was no longer bound by previous commitments.

"We now feel free to carry on with this confrontation policy," he said.

Continues Efforts

Philippine President Diosdado Macapagal, whose efforts brought Sukarno and Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman to the conference table continued his efforts for peace.

An aide said Macapagal would mail pleas to both Indonesia and Malaysia to send their foreign ministers to another meeting to seek an end to the undeclared war.

Rahman said the talks collapsed because Sukarno "was not prepared to give anything." He said Indonesia had failed to fulfill the requirement for negotiations, withdrawal of her troops from Malaysian Borneo.

3 Outfits Used To Check Blaze On Paltz Farm

Firemen from three communities battled a fire Sunday afternoon that destroyed a large barn and threatened other buildings including a residence on the property of John Schreiber on Schreiber Lane, New Paltz.

New Paltz Fire Chief Peter Savago was in command of volunteers from his district, Clintondale and Modena as they fought the fire of undetermined origin.

It was reported that some farm machinery and other articles were destroyed. During the height of the early afternoon blaze, heat from the burning barn blistered paint on the Schreiber home and threatened other nearby buildings.

Through the efforts of the volunteers, the fire was confined to the barn. A milk house, tool shed and other nearby frame buildings were saved.

The fire was discovered in the 35 by 60 foot barn shortly before 1 p. m. yesterday.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Any program titled "The Missing Bank of Rupert X. Humpderink" has to be broad comedy, or an attempt at it. Using the same process of deduction, any comedy with John McGiver in the cast is likely to be funny.

Sunday night, unhappily, McGiver's considerable skills were no match for the impossible script that carried the ridiculous title on NBC's "Show of the Week."

McGiver was cast as an irascible, high-living bankrupt with a taste for blondes, quadruple martinis and shady deals.

As the show opened he was being dunned by his most recent ex-wife and trying to remember the name and location of a country bank where, 25 years before on a drunken spree he had opened a $80,000 rainy day account under a name also forgotten.

Somehow he remembered the name of the town and the action then moved to the bank and that well-worn classic character—the shy, quiet bank teller who is quietly dipping into the accounts. The $80,000 account of Rupert X. Humpderink was one of his best sources.

The two collide, with the country bank teller ultimately outwitting the city slicker. A good dependable comedy theme. Unfortunately it was played at a pitch of hysteria and confusion as if sheer noise would make up for the total lack of really good lines.

Ah, well, it has been a very bad year for hour-long comedies in television.

"That Was the Week That Was" on Friday night looked and sounded pretty much the way it has on other Fridays, before its director, Marshall Jamison, resigned in a "policy disagreement" with producer Leland Hayward.

Although Hayward would not be specific about his areas of discontent with the show, he repeated that he "prefers the use of the rapier to the bludgeon"—and it is hard to deny that "TW3" often has been brutally blunt and sarcastic here wit and satire would have been more appropriate.

NBC's "Sunday" recalled, on its 10th anniversary, the Army-McCarthy hearings, with a few well-remembered highlights of the Senate hearings, coupled with short interviews with some of the participants looking back a decade. The program is uniformly an intelligent and interesting feature treatment of the news.

USDA Says Wool Deductions Will Continue in '64

USDA announced that deductions for financing self-help promotion program of wool and lamb producers for 1964 marketing year will continue at same rate as in the past. Deduction rates are one cent per pound from shorn wool payments and five cents per hundred pounds of live weight from unshorn lamb payments.

The 1964 marketing year is calendar year January 1 through December 31. Payments for that marketing year to be made beginning in April 1965. Promotion program is conducted by American Sheep Producers Council, Inc. under agreement with Secretary of Agriculture providing for advertising, sales promotion and related market development activities on wool and lamb as authorized under the National Wool Act.

Present agreement covering the four years for which the Act was extended in 1961 was approved in producer referendum held in 1962. The 1964 marketing year is third of those four years.

USAF Enlisting Up to June 26; Competition Low

Sergeant William Rice, local Air Force recruiter, has announced that he has been authorized to enlist men for the USAF up to June 26, at which time all shipping will be stopped until July.

Sgt. Rice explained that he had been authorized to exceed his enlistment ceiling in June and those men enlisting now "will find the competition not quite so keen as during July, August and September when enlistments are very high."

He warned that there is a possibility that some of the men who can qualify will be ineligible to enlist at a later date. "Even under the current program, some high school graduates have failed to qualify. The mental standards are changing and it might be well for the forward looking person to analyze these facts and enlist now," Sgt. Rice continued.

The Air Force recruiter can be contacted at the Community Theatre Building.

Financing the Council's activities the latest year for which complete figures are available amounted to approximately $2.8 million.

Dinner Is Slated To Honor Resnick At Poughkeepsie

A prominent Ellenville resident, who combines leadership of several large industrial firms with wide community service, will be honored July 13 at the Hellenic Center in Poughkeepsie by friends of the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation.

The well-known business and philanthropic leader is Joseph Y. Resnick, of Diane Drive, Ellenville and the occasion will also mark his 40th birthday.

Resnick attended Ellenville High School and during World War II was a radio officer in the Maritime Service. In 1947 he helped organize of the nation's largest firms producing TV antennas, Channel Masters Corporation, of which he is now Chairman of the Board. He is also a founder of Questron America, Inc. and last year was elected Man of the Year for the Sullivan County Hall of Fame. Resnick is widely respected for his community and philanthropic activities. He has served as a member of the Ellenville School Board and was campaign chairman for the Rip Van Winkle Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He is a founder and officer of Boys Town, Jerusalem. Resnick contributed to the building of the new Veterans Memorial Hospital in Ellenville and his firm has built a baseball stadium for community use.

The Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, inspired by the late President Kennedy and chartered by Act of Congress, is dedicated to continuing the work which Eleanor Roosevelt would be doing were she alive today. Proceeds of the dinner will support the Foundation's programs for human rights, world peace, cancer research, and help to emotionally disturbed, underprivileged children.

The Foundation will also build two Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Wings to the Franklin D. Roosevelt Library at Hyde Park.

TB Group Probes Respiratory Ills In Alert Program

"Chronic cough and shortness of breath are being spotlighted in the current educational information program here in Ulster County during the month of June. Known as the 1964 Respiratory Disease Symptom Alert, our effort partially coincides with the nationwide program sponsored by the National Tuberculosis Association."

The statement was made by Dr. Herbert F. Schwartz, in reporting the activities of the RD Program now being emphasized by the Ulster County TB and Health Association. Dr. Schwartz is chairman of the group's Respiratory Disease Committee.

"Here, we are deeply concerned with the effect this program can have upon our Ulster County people. The RD Symptom Alert has no money-raising aspect. It's geared exclusively to information and education," Dr. Schwartz emphasized, "and is produced entirely by our TB and Health Association as a public service financed by Christmas Seals."

Dr. Schwartz reported that program concern includes Tuberculosis, the Respiratory Diseases, and extends to the severe effect air pollution and cigarette smoking have upon these serious health problems.

Still Shows Increase

"Respiratory Disease—RD—is one of our country's major health problems, and has continued to show serious increase," Dr. Schwartz said. "The category includes not only such chronic ailments as asthma, emphysema and tuberculosis, but also includes some serious acute diseases such as influenza and pneumonia. The RD alert points out that neglect of symptoms usually makes treatment much more difficult, and tells people that shortness of breath or a chronic cough, when evident, should be the occasion for a prompt visit to the doctor."

E. Robert Johnson, association

executive director, reported that Respiratory Disease material has been placed effectively in all areas of the County. Those Township Christmas Seal Chairmen who have worked in this RD information program include Mrs. Harry B. Cole, Denning; Mrs. C. C. DuMond Jr., Esopus; Mrs. Andrew R. Brewster, Gardiner; Mrs. Claude S. Haynes, Hardenburgh; Mrs. Claude G. Paalen and Mrs. Charles T. Guadagnola, Hurley; Mrs. William O. McGinnis, Kingston; Mrs. John C. Miller, Lloyd; Mrs. Ross K. Osterhoudt, Marble-town; Gus Cutrone, Marlboro; Mrs. Raymond J. Morris, New Paltz; Mrs. William D. Lane, Olive; Mrs. Ronald A. Wager and Mrs. Delfin Bilbao, Plattekill; Percy W. Gazlay, Rochester; Mrs. Otto T. Mollenhauer, Rosendale; Mrs. Addison W. Burch, Saugerties; Mrs. Edward Cange, Saugerties; Mrs. Addison D. Crowell, Shawangunk; Mrs. Edmond Frawley, Ulster; Mrs. Willard H. Peet and Mrs. A. J. Anderson, Wawarsing; Mrs. Gordon Taylor, Woodstock.

County Magistrates

To Meet on June 25

State Police Sergeant Edward C. Mathewson will be guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Ulster County Magistrates Association to be held Thursday night, June 25 at the County Court House.

Sergeant Mathewson will explain the new laws that are to become effective this year in regards to Vehicle and Traffic violations.

Thursday's meeting will be the last session of the association until September. Samuel Stokes, president, urges all magistrates to attend as important matters are on the agenda.

Plans will be made for the summer outing. Business that must be transacted before the summer recess will be discussed.

Queen Lends Her Name

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth, the Queen Mother, is serving in the honorary position of patron of the Keep Britain Tidy group, England's counterpart of Keep America Beautiful, the U. S. antilitter organization. Her majesty's name occupies a prominent place on the agency's literature.

Dr. Schwartz noted that the RD Alert has the full support by the New York State Department of Health. The department's "Program Plan for Chronic Respiratory Disease" gives strong official approval of the shortness of breath—chronic cough type of symptom—oriented public information effort.

EQUALITY OF EDUCATION

The big need in American public schools today is to establish equality of education, says Francis Keppel, who is commissioner of education in the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

This does not necessarily mean desegregation, nor giving every child the same quality or amount of education. Paradoxically in Keppel's opinion, it means a deliberate inequality — on the positive side.

"It is time," he says, "that we recognize that children who have been deprived the most need the most, that in their schools they need more, not merely as much, as in other schools."

All too often education has been hesitant and immobile in the face of new challenges, Keppel maintains. He proposes six measures which he believes would make education "a creative agent for change" and not merely a "preserver of stability":

Begin working with children as young as 3 and 4 in nursery schools — "a powerful chance to cancel out deprivations that will otherwise affect every aspect of their lives."

Discard convenient assumptions about the disadvantage child's level of interest; instead, enrich all children's "horizons of experience" in such things as art and music and nature study.

Keep the schools open for perhaps 12 or 14 hours a day and 12 months a year, and offer programs for adults as well as children to make the schools a "full-time resource for the whole community."

Establish a firm and working alliance between the school and home—bring the parents in as partners in the educational enterprise "with an intensity unmatched in history."

Bring the schools into closer alliance with no longer isolated and apart from the community resources so that they are munity they serve.

Create a corps of dedicated teachers who have the "warmth and insight which no legislative act can accomplish."

There is little that is revolutionary about Keppel's recommendations. Some of them, such as parent-teacher co-operation have long been employed in most schools.

What would be revolutionary would be their adoption—with an "unmatched intensity"—in the nation's forgotten schools, whether they are in the slums behind Main Street or hidden in the hills beyond State Route 1.

NO ULTERIOR MOTIVE

A great sociological advancement of this election year is the discovery by both political parties that women are important.

President Johnson, who somehow had projected the image of a man who regarded the opposite sex primarily as dancing partners, is becoming increasingly convinced of their inherent right and ability to hold important governmental posts.

He is, accordingly, naming women right and left to high level jobs.

The Republicans can take a hint. So GOP members of the House Ways and Means Committee are now outraged over the fact that our ladies, heaven bless them, are still paying wartime federal excise taxes on such essential feminine accouterment as lipsticks, beauty creams, cosmetics, jewelry, purses and furs.

"It is difficult to understand," these congressional cavaliers remark acidly in shocked disbelief, "why an administration which professes to be so interested in furthering the career of the American woman should be so opposed to the repeal of these taxes which fall so heavily on American womanhood."

An impartial observer has to rate this as gallantry at its best. Sir Galahad, Sir Walter Raleigh or even Cary Grant couldn't have done better. And you can bet that LBJ and Democrats all down the line are squirming. You can't enjoy fighting chivalry!

The nicest thing about all this, really, is that you just know it has not occurred to either the dotting Democrats or the enrap-

ONCE AGAIN, THE VIEW FROM RUTITANIA

A while ago this column speculated upon what the foreign minister of a country, called Rutitania so as not to raise any hackles, might think of U. S. foreign policy, which seemed to be bent on rewarding enemies and doing dirt to friends. Our conclusion was that the Rutitanian would logically consider that the safest posture in this world would be to be firmly "neutral" against the U. S., meanwhile showing friendship for Khrushchev, Castro and Tito.

Well, time passes, and the foreign minister of Rutitania must be pricking up his ears. Could it be, so he must be asking himself, that the day is approaching when it will be safe to trust the U. S. once more?

The answer to this question must, at this point, be tentative. But the foreign minister of Rutitania, a fact-minded gentleman, could make something out of the pattern of the past six months that would be at least partially reassuring to him.

Item One: The appointment of Thomas Mann to coordinate our Latin American policy, which the "liberals" derided at the time, has resulted in a good deal of honesty in dealing with our anti-Communist friends south of the border. There has been no bewildering compromise with Leftists in Panama. In the case of Brazil, we had the good sense to recognize the regime which nipped a projected Castroite takeover of the country just as it was about to generate steam. In the case of Cuba, we seem to be letting the exiles do considerable pinpricking from unnamed bases, presumably in Central America, without cracking down on them as they move in and out of Miami.

Item Two: There is no disposition on the part of the Johnson Administration to get out of South Vietnam. Senator Wayne Morse calls it "McNamara's War," but he hasn't yet convinced President Johnson that the time has come to bring the boys home and let Southeast Asia go down the drain. As a matter of fact, Johnson has been stiffening about holding the line against Communism in that strategic part of the world. Goldwater scoffs at the "pickled" aircraft have been sending the South Vietnamese, but at least they have wings and can fly. The story is that McNamara has become really engaged in South Vietnam because he has taken a personal liking to the new South Vietnamese boss, General Nguyen Khanh, even to the point of playing tennis with him. It is not normally a good rule to base foreign policy on personal likes and dislikes, but why look this particular gift horse in the mouth? The point is that McNamara has thrown away his computers and slide rules and made a moral commitment to stick by his friends.

Item Three: The fact that eight American jet planes have destroyed Communist gun emplacements in Laos after the local Pathet Lao had shot down American reconnaissance planes is the most reassuring turn in recent U. S. policy. By serving notice to the Laotian Left and their Red Chinese backers that we are prepared to give tit for tat in the type of warfare the Communists have chosen to wage against us, we have redeemed our honor. And in bombing the Laotian Communist headquarters and letting the enemy wonder whether it was intentional or just a mistake, we have shown the world that psychological warfare is not the exclusive property of the Communists.

Chewing on the foregoing items, the foreign minister of Rutitania might indeed decide that the U. S. is worth having as an ally and a protector. But the view from Rutitania must still reckon with some strange utterances by people who have the ear of Lyndon Johnson. There is the recent article by McGeorge Bundy in the April issue of "Foreign Affairs," for example. This article contains an incredible passage about Laos. "It was in Laos above all," so Mr. Bundy writes, "that one could see the advantage to both sides of even the most incomplete disengagement, as against a tightening and sharpening of confrontation."

Reading that sentence, the foreign minister of Rutitania might consider that if his country trusts the U. S., it runs the risk of being "neutralized," too, with the Communists getting from one-third to one-half of good Rutitanian real estate. A nice prospect. Better to keep the U. S. at arm's length as long as Mr. Bundy is around. (Copyright, 1964, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Any of a number of Causes
Can Give Child a Headache

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—Our 11-year-old son complains of a headache on both sides of his head. He says he gets it often, but has not wanted to talk about it. Is this serious?

A—There are many causes for headaches. If your son gets them often he should have a thorough examination. Common causes include fatigue, emotional upsets, eyestrain and chronic sinusitis. From this distance, I can be sure of only one thing: these are not migraine headaches. Although migraine usually starts in childhood, it affects only one side of the head.

Q—What would be the side effects of cortisone when given to a 2-year-old child over an extended length of time?

A—Much would depend on the cause for which this drug is given. In general, prolonged use might cause moonface, abnormal fat deposits, waterlogging, pimples, growth of hair on the face, dryness of the skin, thinning of the hair on the scalp, poor resistance to infection and delayed wound healing. I'm sure your doctor would not give this drug to a 2-year-old for long periods without good reason. He would probably keep the dose to the smallest amount that would give the needed effect. Discontinuation of the drug when it is done, must be gradual.

Q—My son has agammaglobulinemia. What is it and what is the treatment?

A—This is a deficiency of gamma globulin in the blood. The condition is congenital and, like color-blindness, may be transmitted by the mother, but is seen only in boys. Because gamma globulin helps us to fight infections, children with this deficiency get repeated infections and have a hard time to get rid of them.

The victims are especially susceptible to infections involving their joints. Injections of gamma globulin are given to help the victim overcome an infection, but the effect is not lasting and no permanent cure is known.

Q—Is it safe for a mother with asthma to breast feed her baby?

A—It is not only safe, but preferable. When babies develop asthma and other allergies, they usually get them from early infections or cow's milk.

tured Republicans that their tender solicitude may bring out a few more feminine votes for the side that gets there fustest with the mostest.

No, ma'am, this here is just our leaders' bashful way of telling you girls that you are wonderful. Especially right now.

It's predicted that by the year 2000 there'll be 350 million Americans and 155 million cars. They won't have so much a traffic problem as a stalemate.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

Nearest U. S. strategy for Southeast

Asia: hold up on attacking

North Viet Nam; instead, try for a gambit that would play

Soviet Union and Red China against each other in Laos and North Viet Nam.

U. S. use of force in North

Viet Nam now might pull

Russian's Khrushchev and Red China's Mao together on a common Southeast Asian policy.

American diplomats reason. So the carry-the-war-to-the-North plan is being shelved for the present, kept ready as a threat. (It could be pulled off the shelf at a moment's notice.)

U. S. STRATEGISTS ARE PRETTY WELL CONVINCED

the Soviet Union (through anti-American) can't afford to have Red China gain paramount influence over Southeast Asia.

Our diplomatic planners want to encourage that attitude.

A six-nation conference on

Laos of the type proposed by Poland (attended by Britain, the Soviet Union, Poland, Canada,

India and Laos) would put Russia in an inside leadership position and leave Red China outside and fuming. So the United States is backing these talks.

But one trouble with the Russians, as U. S. policymakers see the situation, is that they lack the courage to really buck

the Red Chinese.

So when the conference convenes, the United States hopes to put the Russians on the spot as one of the two chief co-sponsors of the Laotian neutrality treaty. Our diplomats will produce a series of detailed aerial photographs showing conclusive evidence of treaty violations

by the Pathet Lao, the Red

Chinese and the North Vietnames.

These pictures were taken by the Navy planes the United States recently put into Laos to fly reconnaissance. The United States may broadcast the pictures internationally, parade

them before the United Nations.

GETTING THESE PICT-

URES was the real reason for putting reconnaissance planes into Laos, the Lao neutrals and conservative armies had been unable to supply the proof

Americans believed necessary to influence world opinion dramatically.

U. S. diplomats believe the Russians wouldn't be happy about being exposed internationally as openly backing a military take-over of tiny Asian Laos by foreign (North Vietnames and Chinese) Communists

after sponsoring a neutrality treaty especially when this take-over is against Russian interests.

This "exposure" would hurt

Khrushchev's hopes to be considered the champion of small independent countries in Africa and elsewhere in the world.

The Russian story has been that the fighting in Laos is a revolt by unhappy peasant Laotians themselves, with no foreign

Red interference.

AT THE SAME TIME IT

WAS PUSHING the picture evidence, the United States would give the Russians motive to play ball and see that the truce is observed or watch the United States take military steps. The United States will not specify to the Russians what those military steps would be. American threats would be accompanied by discreet shows of force to make them convincing. Planners are working to get other nations to join in these threats and shows of force.

If the Russians should go along, and were successful, they would gain prestige in Southeast Asia (while leaving the door open for continuing native Communist fighting and for less blatant but nevertheless serious penetration of Laos from North Viet Nam).

But U. S. diplomats are willing to gamble that such a gain in Russian prestige would be less harmful to our aims than either continued Pathet Lao-North Vietnamese open military attacks in Laos or direct U. S. military ac-

Q — From whom are the Negroes descended?

A — Noah had three sons Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The Bible says they founded the three great races of mankind. Ham was the second of the three sons. His name is often used by scholars when talking about African peoples.

The Killing—Part One

Helen said she'd like to have a day off. Kathleen was almost over chicken pox. The care of four children, ranging from 7 years of age to fifteen months, can crack a mother. John D. McGrady looked up from the morning paper and said: "How about the track?" Helen liked the idea. Her husband said that Gulfstream would close tomorrow. Helen called her sister Alfreda and said they'd meet in front of the grandstand.

It was a hot day. Waves of heat shimmered from the roof of the McGrady house in Miramar, Florida. John was glad he had the day off. He is short and dark and slender, with patent-leather hair and a casual conversation of the Metropolitan New Yorker. He works from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. as bell captain at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood. The pay is about $45 a week, and the tips average $60 a week.

McGrady is no gambler. He is careful with pennies. So is Helen. They bought the little house in Miramar for $11,990 five years ago. They owe $7,000 now. By the time they found a baby sitter, and gave the little ones lunch, it was 1 p. m. "We'll never make the first race," John said. Helen grimaced at the clock. "I wanted to bet the daily double," she said.

When they left home she had $25 in cash. John had $6. "Out of this," John said, driving east to Route One, "we have to leave enough for a couple of beers." She said he could have the beer. They got to the big track at 1:45 and paid $4 for grandstand tickets. The McGradys now had $27. The first race was over.

The place was jammed with the last of the Florida finery as the season closed. Helen is a big pleasant woman, a little pale for one whose parents came from Lebanon. She met her sister Alfreda behind the fence at the finish line. The women talked, and Helen bet $2 on a horse in the second race. He came in third. The BR was $25. She was still talking as she bet $2 in the third. The horse was out of the money. The McGradys had $23.

John went to a bar under the grandstand and got a beer for 42 cents. "It's hot out there," he said to the bartender. The man took the money, and said nothing. The BR was $22.58. Helen peeked another horse to win in the 4th. He lost. The BR was $20.58. The ladies were asked if they wanted a cold drink. They said no. Helen said she'd like to bet $2 on the twin double.

"Ha!" John said. "We can't pick one race. How can we pick four in a row?" Helen said: "Try it, Johnny. We don't get to a track three times a year. Why not take a big gamble?" He shook his head. "Because it's a sucker's bet, that's why."

The crowd began to saunter to the mutual windows. They queued up like lambs who supervise their own fleecing. McGrady lined up at the $2 win window.

Virginia School Dilemma: The Court or the People?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON — A Federal court judge actually has threatened to put members of a County Board of Supervisors in jail unless they vote this week to appropriate money to reopen public schools and levy taxes to pay for them. The county board will do so, but under formal protest that the money is being illegally appropriated and that the action being taken is contrary to the specific wishes of the people as expressed in a public petition when the books were first closed.

This unprecedented situation may prove to be the climax of the whole controversy over desegregation of public schools. For Judge Oren R. Lewis is acting at the direct behest of the Supreme Court of the United States. This is the first time in American history that a Federal court has told any legislative body how its members should vote and what funds it should appropriate.

Responding to public sentiment in the community, the Board of Supervisors of Prince Edward County in Virginia decided five years ago to close all public schools. Tuition grants were authorized by the state of Virginia for parents in all counties who wished to send their children to private schools. There was no discrimination in the grants as between white and Negro parents.

But now another Federal court judge in Virginia John D. Butzner Jr., has just ruled that parents in Surry County cannot continue to receive tuition grants for their children who attend private schools where racial discrimination is practiced. The public school attended hitherto by white children has been closed while the public schools attended by Negroes are the only ones open.

The Supreme Court of the United States in its guiding opinion for the lower court judges has stated that the public schools must be opened in Prince Edward County because in nearly all of the other counties in Virginia public schools are open.

Does this mean that the Supreme Court of the United States at any time can threaten members of Congress, too, and tell them that, unless they cease to differentiate between different sections of the country in the matter of their appropriations, they also could go to jail for refusal to abide by the court's wishes?

Certainly the members of the local board in Virginia's Prince Edward County have been struggling in the last few days with a strange dilemma — to obey a court order or the wishes of the people of the country. If they decide to go to jail, would many people throughout the United States "demonstrate" in their support and extol them as martyrs? It seems to be popular nowadays for some citizens to dramatize controversial issues by street demonstrations so as to arouse public opinion, even if it means going to jail in behalf of certain causes. Adlai Stevenson, who twice ran for the Presidency of the United States on the Democratic ticket, said a few days ago in a college commencement address that "even a jail sentence is no longer a dishonor but a proud achievement."

It is reported that several citizens in Prince Edward County are already preparing to file suits in state courts to enjoin the county from trying to collect taxes illegally imposed and in disregard of the actual wishes of the county supervisors themselves. It would be charged that the appropriation was made under duress and is a form of blackmail.

The principle of local autonomy also is at stake. If cities and counties, for example, are to be regarded as merely administrative units of the state and their councils or Board of Supervisors are not to be considered autonomous, the question arises as to why the Supreme Court did not impose its decree on the Governor or the state Legislature, which presumably has complete power over the counties and cities.

The Prince Edward County ruling accentuates the far-reaching power assumed by the Supreme Court to prescribe how a school shall be operated. Education has always been considered a state function in Supreme Court decisions since the Republic was founded. Now, however, the rulings indicate that restrictions upon financial aid given private schools and colleges by Federal, state, county or city governments may be imposed by the Supreme Court.

Kennedys Stay While

AUBURN, N. Y. (AP)—The largest crowd ever to attend a Democratic function in Cayuga County Sunday night heard a pledge from Sen. Edward Kennedy that his family intends to remain in public life "as long as there is a job to do."

The Massachusetts senator was injured seriously in a plane crash Friday night and his speech was read to the 1,279 persons at a fund-raising dinner of the Cayuga County Democratic Committee.

He had written: "Some people have asked whether, after all this has happened, the Kennedys intend to remain in public life. The answer is, as long as there is a job to do, we intend to do it."

Kennedy's speech did not elaborate on what had happened, but it was clear that he referred to the assassination of his brother, President John F. Kennedy.

"We intend to devote ourselves to the principles and programs of which the President lived and eradication of the hatred and extremism that took him away," he wrote.

He was one of 18 ordained as Redemptorist Fathers Sunday at Mt. St. Alphonsus Chapel, Esopus. One member of the class of 20 was ordained at St. Thomas, Virgin Islands and another will be ordained at a later date at Puerto Rico. Orleans County Fire Damage Over $100,000

ALBION, N. Y. (AP)—Damage may exceed $100,000 in a fire that destroyed two buildings and caused heavy damage to a third in the business section of this Orleans County community. Five firemen suffered minor injuries in battling the early morning blaze Sunday.

Twenty persons were forced to flee apartments in the buildings.

The fire broke out in the rear of Perfecto Dry Cleaners, next to the community fire station. The dry cleaning shop and the adjoining Navarra Restaurant were destroyed.

The nearby offices of the Orleans Republican American, a

Kingston Native Ordained; First Mass Here Sunday

A native Kingstonian, the Rev. John J. Kiwus, Redemptorist, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kiwus of 14 South Wall Street, Kingston was ordained to the Holy Priesthood Sunday at Mount Saint Alphonsus Chapel, Esopus, by His Eminence, Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York.

Father Kiwus attended St. Joseph's Parochial School and graduated from Kingston High School in 1954. He studied at St. Mary's College, North East, Pa., and after graduation made his Novitiate at St. Mary's College, Ilchester, Md. He then came to Mount Saint Alphonsus to resume studies in September of 1959.

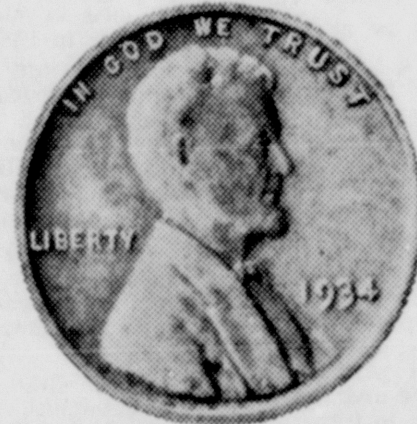

Father Kiwus is a brother of Frank Kiwus Jr., of Schenectady, and Donald Kiwus of Wayne, Pa.

Father Kiwus will celebrate his first Solemn Mass on Sunday, June 28 at St. Peter's Church, Kingston at 10:30 a.m. The ministers of the Mass will be the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St. Peter's as archpriest, the Rev. James V. Keating of St. Joseph's Church, Kingston as deacon and the Rev. John J. Roache of Mount Saint Alphonsus as subdeacon. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. John Zeller also of Mount Saint Alphonsus.

Father Kiwus invites his friends to come to St. Peter's School Hall for his priestly blessing Sunday afternoon from 3 until 5 p. m.

PUT A TIGER IN YOUR TANK!

NEW POWER-FORMULA ESSO EXTRA GASOLINE BOOSTS POWER THREE WAYS:

1 Cleaning Power! Dirt can clog even a new carburetor in a few months of normal operation—causing hard starting and rough idling. Your very first tankful of New Esso Extra will start to clear away these deposits—in new engines or old—to improve power and mileage.

2 Firing Power! Spark plug and cylinder deposits can cause misfiring, pre-ignition and hot spots. New Esso Extra neutralizes these harmful deposits—to help your engine fire smoothly, to help preserve the power of new cars and restore lost power to many older cars.

3 Octane Power! New Esso Extra has the high octane that most cars now need for full smooth performance without knocking. You'll get all these extras with New Power-formula Esso Extra gasoline—it puts a tiger in your tank! Happy Motoring!

Dutchess Driver Races Trooper, Faces 4 Charges

Pursued by a state trooper at speeds in excess of 95 miles an hour late Sunday night, Howard Adams, 40, of Route 44, Town of Pleasant Valley, was arrested on four charges and ordered confined to the Dutchess County jail pending sobriety.

South Millbrook State Police said Adams was charged with speeding, driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, resisting arrest and second degree assault.

According to authorities, State Trooper Dennis Ferriek spotted a car driven by Adams speeding west on Route 44. The trooper pursued the vehicle at speeds up to 95 miles an hour and overtook it at the Sharon Turnpike intersection.

While Trooper Ferriek was arresting Adams on charges of speeding and drunken driving, authorities said, the motorist punched the trooper in the stomach as he snapped the handcuffs on the man.

While the two were engaged in a struggle, Trooper C. F. Coran, who was off duty was passing with his wife, went to assist in the arrest. Adams was subdued.

Adams was scheduled for arraignment later today before Justice of the Peace C. Allerton Morey, Town of Washington. He was ordered held in the county jail pending a court appearance.

Physicians Tough When It Comes To Own Physicals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The average physician is as fearful as anybody else when it comes to getting a physical examination, say doctors attending the American Medical Association convention.

"Getting a doctor to a physical examination is harder than breaking a wrestler's arm," said Dr. Harvey Widrow, of Berkeley, Calif.

The thousands of doctors attending the weeklong convention were urged to take extensive physical checkups by a special clinic, without charge. In past years, such clinics have done a poor business.

Plane Upturned By 'Chuck Hole; Pilot Uninjured

A 32-year-old Poughkeepsie pilot narrowly escaped injury at 4:15 p. m. Sunday when his 1945 Aeronca plane struck a wood-chuck hole and flipped over in an open field on the property of Charles Hoffman south of Red Hook and west of Route 9.

Rhinebeck State Police said John Andrew Toth Jr., of 11 Grubb Street, Poughkeepsie, took off from the Kingston Airport shortly after 4 p. m. for a flight to Paken Airport in Red Hook. The plane's motor developed engine trouble and Toth made a forced landing.

He told troopers he had tried to reach a cornfield but lost altitude and the aircraft hit the hole and overturned. Toth was uninjured. The plane was righted and secured pending examination by the Federal Aviation Agency investigators.

Trooper Michael O'Hara said it appeared the plane escaped with minor damage.

Homemade Rocket Explodes Injuring Boy

A 13-year-old Orange County boy was injured Saturday when a homemade rocket exploded prematurely as he attempted to attach a fuse.

Newburgh State Police said Peter Karrassic, Lakeside Road, Town of Newburgh, was treated for lacerations of the arms which required six sutures.

Police said the boy and two companions were attempting to try out the rocket in a barn owned by Peter's father. They had placed a carbon dioxide cartridge in a pipe on top of broken matches and the injured boy was trying to force the fuse in the pipe when the cartridge exploded.

Cleaners Burglarized

Local police were notified this morning of a burglary at Tops Drive-in Cleaners, 520 Albany Avenue. No money was reported missing, and check on clothing to determine if any was missing was not completed this afternoon. Entrance was gained by the breaking of a side window. A safe in the building was not touched.

ENDS UP IN DITCH—This was a result of a mishap Friday night on West O'Reilly near Belmont Street. Officer Junious Harris inspects the convertible driven by John D. DeKoskie, 20, of 26 Snyder Avenue, who said he swerved to avoid an oncoming vehicle. Edward Prendergast, 19, of 69 Brewster Street, was treated at Kingston Hospital for a cut over the right eye. DeKoskie was charged with failure to keep right, and was fined $5 in city court Saturday. Police said skid marks indicated the car had traveled at considerable speed.

Neutrality

government demanded his return. The Russians for years maintained that they knew nothing about Wallenberg but in 1957 admitted he had been imprisoned in Russia and claimed he died in Lubianka Prison in Moscow in 1947.

Subsequently the Swedish government found increasing evidence that Wallenberg was alive. He was said to be in a prison in Vladimir, 12 miles east of Moscow, as late as 1954.

Asks Postponement
The Soviet leader sent a radio message from his ship requesting a postponement of political talks scheduled for this afternoon.

Khrushchev gave no reason. But Swedish officials privately hazarded the guess that he was a weary man after his visit to Denmark.

Tage Erlander, Sweden's Socialist premier, said on the eve of Khrushchev's arrival that the country would not be diverted from its neutralist policy and would oppose any attempt to change "the status quo in Europe."

Foreign Minister Torsten Nilsson stressed the point at a government reception Sunday night — indicating that Sweden would present the same bland face to Khrushchev's political showman as it did to his predecessor.

Awaiting the Soviet premier were 5,000 Swedish policemen, many of them armed with newly issued pistols. It was Sweden's biggest security drive of modern times.

Leaflets and posters denouncing Khrushchev as a murderer and hangman were scattered through the streets of Stockholm. Some flayed Khrushchev as the "Butcher of Budapest."

Kennedy's

as did other members of the Kennedy family.

Pressure Improves
Kennedy and Bayh, 36 — the two youngest members in the U.S. Senate — had their first meeting Sunday since the crash. Kennedy was taken out of oxygen as doctors reported his blood pressure and breathing considerably improved.

Kennedy was en route from Washington to the Massachusetts Democratic convention in Springfield when the plane crashed in an apple orchard in Southampton.

Killed instantly was the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, 48, of Andover, Mass. Kennedy's aide, Edward Moss, 41, also of Andover, died about seven hours after the crash.

Paltzmen Contest Airmen's Permit; Can't Stand Noise

A New Paltz Zoning Appeals Board official made known Saturday that "a couple of complaints" have been filed by residents opposing issuance of a permit to an airport operator in Libertyville Road.

Abram W. Paradis, chairman of the town Appeals Board, said an application for a permit filed by Carl E. Confer, operator of the airport, will be discussed and probably acted upon at a hearing Wednesday night in the Town Hall.

Dr. Edith C. Russell, Libertyville Road, stated she will attend the hearing with other area residents.

Paradis said the airport has been operating without a permit due to an oversight.

Po'keepsie Man Pulled From Fire Dies in Hospital

A 79-year-old retired Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. employee, died in St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, several hours after he was painfully burned Saturday afternoon in a fire that occurred in a Hyde Park home.

Authorities said Edward P. Kearney, of 1 Flannery Avenue, Poughkeepsie, suffered second and third degree burns. His clothing was burned off from the shoulders to his knees. According to reports a cigarette ignited papers as Kearney was sitting in a chair, and burned the chair and holes in a rug.

Kearney, who is the father of Miss Ellen Kearney, head of the Social Studies Department of Highland High School, was a family friend of Miss Jean S. MacPhail, physical education instructor in Poughkeepsie elementary schools and her sister, Miss Ann T. MacPhail, home economics teacher at Highland.

Kearney was taken to the hospital by Hyde Park firemen, who reported the fire victim was unconscious when they arrived at the Hyde Park home.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The way most Americans are handling their pocketbooks these days is pleasing both the merchants and the economic score keepers. That doesn't always happen.

Revised government figures show that consumers are spending more—which gratifies the merchants and the dealers—but not too much more—which reassures the statisticians and the planners.

This is a lot different from what many were predicting a while back.

At first some economic experts worried out loud lest Americans go on a buying binge when federal income tax rates were cut. February retail sales did make an unusually good showing, just ahead of final congressional action.

Early reports showed March retail sales down a bit and April's even slower. This worried those who feared the consumer wasn't going to come through nobly and help send the economy to new heights with his spending.

Now the Department of Commerce has revised its figures. It finds that April retail sale really went up instead of down. May figures climbed still higher to a record $21.7 billion. Latest preliminary reports show that in the last four weeks sales of both durable and nondurable goods rose 6 per cent above the like 1963 period.

The increase relieved the minds of the merchants, at least the lucky ones who shared in the gains they had been counting on. It also comforted the economic planners who want the tax cut to give the economy a nice boost.

Just as pleased are those who find the increased consumer spending well below the spurge level. No boom has developed, nor is one foreshadowed as yet.

Bankers also are keeping an eye on the trends in consumer debt. At Morgan Guaranty Trust Company, New York, it's noted that the total of such debt apparently increased less during the April and May advance in retail buying than it did in the first three months of the year. The bank thinks "this augurs well for continued retail strength as the year wears on," because it puts consumers in a good position to spend after making monthly instalment payments.

This ability to spend still worries some, despite the consumer's performance so far.

The economist of the Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company, New York, agrees that "the inflationary and anti-inflationary forces in the United States are well balanced at present." But he sees inflation as seemingly gaining ground.

Local Man Named 2nd Term Leader of Hospital Group

Robert M. Schnitzer, administrator of Kingston Hospital, was reelected president of the Hospital Association of Southeastern New York at the annual meeting in Newburgh June 18.

Also reelected were Louis E. Breglia, administrator of Vassar Brothers Hospital, Poughkeepsie, vice president; and Evald Bors-Koefoed, administrator of Veterans Memorial Hospital, Ellenville, secretary-treasurer.

The Association's membership includes 23 hospitals in the six counties of Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan and Ulster. Its purpose is to coordinate the services of these hospitals and to foster a closer relationship between the hospitals and other health and welfare agencies.

Principal speaker at the annual meeting was Dr. Jack C. Haideman, president of the Hospital Review and Planning Council of Southern New York. He described plans for coordinating future expansion of hospitals in the Council area to insure equitable distribution of hospital beds and measures helpful to controlling rising hospital costs.

State, sponsored by the American Legion.

The youths will elect city officials today and choose a governor Thursday. Mock legislative sessions Thursday and Friday will end the program.

Cites Violations Of Wildlife Law

Division of fish and game personnel in Region 8 have received many more reports than usual of persons who have picked up young protected wildlife, an act in violation of the conservation law.

Region 8 comprises Ulster, Dutchess, Orange, Sullivan, Putnam, Westchester and Rockland counties.

Warren H. McKeon, regional supervisor, warns residents and vacationers against attempts to possess fawn and raccoons, animals particularly guarded by the state restriction.

Woodchucks, opossums and similar species may be taken legally and owned as pets, the supervisor adds.

Keating Says CR Vote Hurts Barry's Chances

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., says Sen. Barry Goldwater's vote against the civil rights bill has hurt Goldwater's chances of election, should he win the GOP presidential nomination.

Goldwater's negative vote "places him with a tiny minority of Congress in opposition to the Republican leadership in both houses," Keating told a news conference.

He said the Arizona senator's stand might gain him some support in southern and border states but would cost him votes in New York City, the Northeast and the Far West in a presidential election.

Keating was in Syracuse Saturday to attend the Intercollegiate Rowing Association regatta and to speak to a service club.

Barry Trims Johnson

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater was favored over President Johnson by nearly 2½-to-1 in a poll of area newspaper readers, asked to choose between the two.

The Arizona Republican, considered the front-runner for the GOP nomination, got 1,667 votes to the Democratic president's 707. Only Johnson and Goldwater were listed on the ballot. The results of the poll, which covered 25 counties, were released Saturday by the Syracuse Post-Standard.

PORT EWEN NEWS

Village Activities

All members of the Port Ewen Fire Department will meet at the firehouse Wednesday 7:30 p. m. to receive instruction on water rescue and drowning procedure. Lt. A. F. Van Diavern of the New York State Police will be instructor.

The Club Pack 26 trip to the National Scout Museum at New Brunswick, N. J., was reported a huge success.

Uniform inspection for Troop 26 Boy Scouts will be held Tuesday. Parents will see that badges are properly placed on clean, regulation uniforms.

Saturday 9 a. m. Troop 26 will conduct a paper drive through Port Ewen, Clay Road, Sleightsburg and New Salem to Route 213. Residents should put all papers, magazines and rags securely tied on porches for pick up.

Troop 26 Court of Review and parents night is set for June 30 at 7:30 p. m. at the Port Ewen Reformed Church Hall. Boys will receive badges and awards. Refreshments will be served by the Mothers Club Auxiliary.

Area Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Signor Sr. of Clay Road will celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary June 23. They have a son Lowell Jr. of Winterhaven, Fla. and a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Larkin of Port Ewen.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pisek and Mr. and Mrs. J. Drake of New Jersey spent the weekend at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Secor and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Vincent. Mrs. Drake, formerly Miss Jessie Vincent, is a niece of the late H. H. Vincent. They also attended the 25th anniversary dinner of Mr. and Mrs. S. Rockefeller.

The only upkeep recommended for cedar closets is an occasional dusting.

Drawbridge Opens, Car

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—Just like those chase scenes in the movies, a car sailed from one side of an opening drawbridge to the other last night, police reported.

Raymond Spinosi, 28, of Scranton, Pa., was approaching the U.S. 1 bridge over the Housatonic River when the bridge began to open.

Unable to stop, Spinosi's car went over the top and landed upright six feet away on the other section of the bridge. He was uninjured but his car was damaged.

Police said a lever which unlocks the bridge mechanism apparently tripped accidentally.

Director Surveys UR's Development For Area Realtors

At the regular business meeting of the Ulster County Board of Realtors held at the Governor Clinton Hotel last week, Ralph Marallo, Relocation Director of Urban Renewal, gave a talk of the progress made and answered questions pertaining to Urban Renewal.

Lawrence J. MacAvery, chairman of the nominating committee presented the slate of officers for 1964-65. The slate is Robert Kershaw, president; Peter Weider, first vice-president; Adele Royal, 2nd vice-president; Reta Frederick, secretary, and Ralph Carpino, treasurer. Election of officers will be held at the September meeting with installation in October.

Peter Weider, delegate to the New York State Association Convention, submitted a report, Raymond Korzenidorfer, regional vice-president of the Lower Hudson Valley area also reported. President Dewey Logan announced he would appoint a committee for the installation banquet to be held in October. A committee meeting will make arrangements at a future date. There will be meetings during July and August.

Boy Injured When Bicycle-Car Crash

A Sunset Park boy was injured when his bicycle was involved in a collision with a car on Plainfield Street near the entrance to the Wallace Co. rear parking lot. Deputy Sheriff Carl Swenson said Thomas Harry Kaiser, 11, son of Mrs. Laura Kaiser, of Pine Place, Sunset Park, was taken to Kingston Hospital by Doctor's ambulance. He suffered multiple bruises and abrasions of the head, left leg and right foot, and a possible fracture of the left knee.

The deputy stated the boy rode his bicycle from the parking lot into the path of a car driven by Mrs. William Hanley of 165 Wrentham Street, who applied the brakes of her car as soon as the boy appeared in front of it, but was unable to avoid the mishap.

Sentencing Postponed

Kenneth A. Payne, 20, of 15 Crescent Street, Medford, Mass., charged with third degree assault Saturday afternoon, pleaded guilty in city court today, and sentence was put over to June 25 to permit a pre-sentencing investigation. Bail of $200 was not immediately posted. Police said the charge was lodged by Mary E. Fuller, whose address was not given.

Faces Speeding After Motorcycle, Car in Collision

A driver was charged with speeding after a car-motorcycle mishap and two persons were injured in two others over the weekend. Vincent H. Rudolph, 39, of 102 Hone Street, was charged with speeding after the car he drove and a motorcycle operated by Jacob C. Senor Jr., 26, of Colonial Gardens collided on Broadway near O'Neil Street early Sunday.

Gloria Mary Senor, 24, of Colonial Gardens, was treated at Kingston Hospital for hip and arm injuries. She was taken there by Doctors' Ambulance. Rudolph pleaded innocent in city court today and trial was set down for July 23. Police said different versions were given as to how the accident happened.

Officers Ira Hadel and Oscar Gray investigated. Stephen Connelly, 12, of 51 Jefferson Avenue, was treated at the Benedictine Hospital for leg and foot injuries when the bicycle he rode and a car driven by Irving Wilpan, 51, of 314 Main Street, were involved in a mishap on Main Street near Lafayette Avenue, reported at 7:30 p. m. Sunday.

Sally Bissett, 17, of 53 Mountain View Avenue, suffered a neck injury in a two car mishap on Pine Grove Avenue at 7:15 p. m. Sunday. She was treated by a doctor. The one car was driven by Benson A. Krom Jr., of 77 Valentine Avenue, and the other by Philip Gerlach, 43, of Brabant Road. Officer Thomas Coffey investigated.

Keep Watch on Liner Fire

HOBOKEN, N.J. (AP)—Firemen kept watch over the smoking ruins of No. 2 hold on the Grace Lines freighter Santa Ana today while Coast Guard officials prepared to try to find out what caused the day-long blaze. The fire, which almost caused the docked vessel to capsize, was brought under control 10 hours after it broke out Sunday. Sixteen firemen were injured.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market resumed its advance early this afternoon led by steels, autos and rails. Trading was fairly slow.

The trend was higher from the start of the session. Trading in steel issues was lively as industry orders held up well at a time when a summer lull is normally expected. U.S. Steel was up around a full point and Jones and Laughlin even a little more than that. The noon Dow Jones industrial average was up 2.18 at 827.43.

Supervisors Pass Erwin Road Plan; Awaits State OK

The Erwin Plan for the improvement of town highways in the Town of Plattkill was approved at last week's meeting of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors. Under the plan the town will receive over $37,000 in State aid.

According to Supervisor Joseph Martorana, the plan calls for improvement, repair and reconstruction of 16 miles of town highways over a period of 7 years starting in 1965. Earlier this month the Town Board of the Town of Plattkill approved the proposed plans. The County Superintendent of Highways also indicated his approval and the plans must now be approved by the State District Engineer and the State Superintendent of Public Works.

Under the proposed highway improvement program, all work will be under the control and supervision of the Town Superintendent of Highways, subject to inspection by the County Superintendent and the State District Engineer. Roads will be rebuilt to meet the minimum State specifications as to width, depth, shoulders and materials used.

Supervisor Martorana, commenting on the plan, stated that although the initial cost of reconstructing town roads may be higher because of the higher road-building standards, the difference will be reduced considerably, if not completely, upon the receipt of state aid and the lower annual maintenance costs over the years. In addition, the plan provides a long range plan to meet the residential, commercial, and industrial needs of the community.

second vice president; Colin Jackson of Newburgh, reelected financial secretary; Charles Faies, Stony Point, reelected recording secretary; Henry Kemmel, Beacon, treasurer. The next Hudson Valley convention will be held in Ticonderoga the third week in June 1965.

The Associated Press reported that among the heat victims, the most seriously ill were taken in ambulances, fire trucks and a school bus to Glens Falls Hospital, about nine miles away. Others were treated in a first aid room at Lake George Central School, and an emergency headquarters and in private homes.

Most of those stricken were young band members. Others were volunteer firemen and spectators.

Paul J. Ratford, captain of the Lake George Emergency Squad, estimated that up to 300 persons were overcome Saturday as the temperature climbed to 94 and the humidity ran high. About 50 to 60 persons were treated at the hospital. The only two admitted were released Sunday.

Driver Fined Today In Kingston Court

A driver charged with speeding as a second offender was fined $50 in city court today and four others booked for speeding were fined a total of $50. Thomas Byrnes, 54, of 29 Mary's Avenue, paid the $50. Clarence Wynkoop, 35, of Van Buren Street, charged with speeding and lacking a license, was fined $15 on the former and the other charge was dismissed when he produced the license.

Charged with speeding and fined $10 each were Stanley Earle, 41, of Bridge Street, Wallkill, and Dale Brenner, 23, of Rosendale. Dolores Doyle, 35, of Cottekill, was fined $15.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

Investment Advisor and Analyst
Lack of Bonds Exempt From State, Federal Tax

Q — "Will you please recommend an investment of $25,000 in bonds exempt from both Federal income taxes and similar levies in my own state? I would like to get the best possible return with safety. I am in the 38 per cent income bracket."

A — In your bracket I think you are wise to consider tax-exempt bonds. There appears to be, at present, a dearth of bonds such as you stipulate.

I am going to take the liberty of suggesting some general market issues, wholly exempt from Federal income taxes, but subject to such taxes in your own state. I believe the difference in taxable equivalent yield will not be great.

I suggest Dallas (Texas) Independent School District 3.10's due 1988, offered to yield 3.10 per cent (taxable equivalent, 5.08 per cent). I like also State of California 3 1/2's of 2,000 on a 3.55 basis (taxable equivalent, 5.73) and Port of New York Authority 3 1/2's of 1995 selling at 100 (taxable equivalent, 5.65).

Q — "My wife and I bought 100 shares of Magnavox. After rising for a while, it fell a few points below our purchase price. Do you think this is only temporary, or do you advise sale?"

A — I'm very sorry indeed that you have a loss in Magnavox. This is a very strong stock that saw earnings decline in 1963 for only the second time in the past decade.

The reason for the drop was twofold. Magnavox is a very smart merchandiser, but last year it appeared to lag its competitors in the strong color-TV business. Also, military orders fell off, which contributed to the earnings decline.

I believe that net will be up this year, with bigger production of color-TV sets and a rise in military business. For these reasons it is my opinion that the decline in Magnavox is temporary.

I advise you to hold your stock for recovery. Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Plan Daylight Marches ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. (AP)—Negro integrationists planned new daylight demonstrations to day while preparing to attack a state ban keeping them from marching at night.

The new round of events was planned after simultaneous demonstrations by whites and Negroes. The bands of about 120 Negroes and more than 300 whites passed each other on opposite sides of the street Sunday in one of the more dramatic racial unrest.

The street between the two groups was filled with state and local police who were conveying each parade.

"Only a Few Minutes from Wherever You Live"

Stamp Hobbyists Eye Soviet Space Activity Through Current Issues

BY CHARLES M. MCCARTHY
Freeman Staff Writer

Soviet Russia — which manufactures its history by secrecy — either wittingly or unwittingly is letting the world know about its space activity through the medium of stamps.

And even the philatelist — stamp hobbyist — has to check and double check his facts to determine the accuracy of the stamp.

Recently the Soviet Union issued a stamp bearing a medalion with three profiles next to a picture of a monument. Apparently there was little attendant information about the stamp, although a stamp is understood to commemorate an historic event, or person.

All the evidence there was pointed out that "P. F. Fedoseenko, I. D. Uyskin and A. B. Vasenko" were being memorialized by Russia, but apparently even informed philatelists didn't know why.

An Old Honor

Stamp hobbyists Lowell Hellard, and Mrs. Hellard, of 99 West Chestnut Street, however, weren't satisfied. Determined to find out through the medium of Hellard's king-sized space collection, they turned up this fact: the recently-issued Russian space stamp commemorated the erection of a monument to Messrs. Fedoseenko, Uyskin and Vasenko — who died in a stratosphere balloon accident in 1934.

The stamp had the collectors stumped.

A qualified specialist, writing in a stamp collector's publication, repeatedly posed the question that, with the "superb organization of Soviet space shots, which are planned down to the finished stamp issue for release on the date of the attempt, complete with portrait of astronaut and planned time of flight, duration, and orbital inclination, there must be "some fascinating unissued."

"Unissued" here means stamps which have been minted but not yet issued on the stamp market for circulation.

Never Took Place

The curious thing about it all, the writer said, was that stamps were ready for issuance, but they commemorated space shots that never took place due to last minute technical difficulties or went off and failed, perhaps claiming lives. Brothers Fedoseenko, Uyskin and Vasenko, he theorized, must have been three astronauts who met the latter fate and a stamp commemorating their demise indicated that a memorial was being erected in Saransk — some 350 miles from Moscow, and where newsmen seldom are found.

The Hellard research, however, determined that while the director of the Soviet Post Office firmly denied that any Russian astronauts had lost their lives,

STAMPS TELL THE STORY—Mr. and Mrs. Lowell E. Hellard, of 99 West Chestnut Street, check over voluminous stamp collection to determine latest activities in Soviet Union. Hellard, Kingston High School industrial arts teacher, and Mrs. Hellard, are both stamp collectors and belong to Stamp Trotters Society of Kingston. They have kept up to date with secrecy-ridden Soviet space activity through medium of commemorative stamps put out by USSR. For instance, through extensive research they learned that commemorative stamp (inset) marked dedication of monument to three Soviet men who died in stratosphere balloon accident 30 years ago. Other stamps indicate Russian space progress not yet chronicled in modern history such as landing on moon and plants. Hellard collection will be on display at World's Fair. (Freeman photos) and considered the thought as an "infamous slander" on the USSR, the three men memorialized in the Saransk commemorative stamp had indeed lost their lives in a space experiment 30 years ago — and Russia was about to commemorate that historical fact — in 1964.

Consider Some Cases

Through issuance of stamps, Russia has also showed its "world leadership" in space by commemorating a space shot before it literally "gets off the ground."

Consider some cases: Russian Astronaut Yuri Gagarin, as presumably recorded in history, became the first man in space when he was successfully launched by the Soviet Union on April 12, 1961. Informed stamp collectors have learned through research, however, that the stamp commemorating the event was printed in March 1961, a month before the actual orbital flight — and issued one day after the flight!

Other stamps issued by the USSR indicate that Russia is not only the world leader in space, but has apparently conquered time as well as space. For instance, there are stamps issued in the Soviet or its satellite countries showing man in space without benefit of capsule a la Buck Rogers; cosmic rockets, television satellites, rockets to Mercury, the Sun and Venus, around the Earth, to Mars, Jupiter and Saturn and—in spite of the fact that the Soviet has publicly announced that it has decided not to land on the Moon until 1970—a stamp inferring that the hammer and sickle have already been implanted firmly on "The Big Cheese."

Other Things to Learn

There are a number of other interesting things to be gleaned from the collection of Hellard, a Kingston High School industrial arts teacher. For example, "Cosmos 3" was launched on April 24 last year, one of 12 orbiting by the USSR that year. The unmanned space vehicle was placed into orbit to study temperature, density and wind in the upper layer of the ionosphere. The stamp was printed before the launching; the USSR has officially commemorated the event,

Cuban Schools Teach English as Required Course

By RICHARD DAW

HAVANA (AP)—The teacher's questions boomed out in clear, crisp English:

"Whose classroom is this?" The answer from the 15 students came back in unison, in English equally clear and crisp: "It is ours."

English is the only required foreign language in Cuba's school system.

"You shouldn't be surprised that we require the study of your language," the teacher told a U.S. visitor. "It's only logical."

"Why should we allow ideological differences between our government and yours to affect our teaching of a language that is so necessary these days in international dealings and advanced technological study?"

All Cuban students must begin studying English in the seventh grade and continue through the ninth. From the 10th through the 12th grades those who have demonstrated an adequate knowledge of English may switch to French.

Experimentation is being carried out with classes in Russian for the same grades. Students who want to learn Russian also may do so in special language schools where many other languages also are taught.

The experimental classes in Russian are being held at the Education Ministry's sprawling complex of headquarters and school centers called Liberty City.

Situated on the edge of Havana, Liberty City used to be Camp Columbia, the main base of dictator Fulgencio Batista's army garrison.

About 7,000 students attend school there now.

The education they get is, like that throughout Cuba, Socialist-oriented. They are taught that the Soviet Union is the leader of the free, peace-loving world.

$333 for Noise

TOKYO (AP)—A district court ordered Tokyo's metropolitan government today to pay $333 damages to a family for making too much noise.

Judge Tetsuichi Ishida ruled that Kazuyoshi Ishikawa and his family had been subjected in 1955 to undue physical and mental anguish by day and night noise from subway construction 60 feet from their home.

but no one seems to know where Cosmos is in 1964.

Much of the information on the Soviet Brothers Three was obtained from the 1964 combined edition of the Standard Postage Stamp Catalogue, regarded as the philatelist's "Bible." Sure enough, it said, the three stratosphere balloon boys were victims of the failure and had indeed been memorialized in commemorative stamps.

Some other fascinating facts about Russian stamps:

Some stamps issued by the USSR and circulated in the world market, can't be sold in Russia.

American Astronaut John Glenn is commemorated on Russian stamps in the "fast" company of Gagarin and Gherman Titov.

Other American astronauts such as Cooper and Grissom et al. are similarly commemorated on Soviet stamps in the company of other Russian astronauts such as Pavel Popovich, Andrian Nikolayev, F. Byosky, and Valentine Tereshkova, although there is little doubt as to whom is truly the conquerors of space. These stamps are issued from such countries as East Germany, Albania, Roumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Poland Czechoslovakia, mostly considered as Soviet satellite countries.

The Soviet and other countries agree to recall certain stamps when it is politically and mutually appropriate, such as when a political "leader" is no longer considered expedient to the political cause of the moment.

From the evidence, then, it appears that Russia has mastered the cosmic forces; for their stamps leave little doubt about it. Perhaps the Soviet then, will tell the world in six years, when it has landed on the moon — by printing a stamp. That is, unless it already has landed there and has decided it will wait 30 years to print a stamp to commemorate the event.

Hellard's collection of USSR and satellite countries stamps numbers about 3,000 or some 200-300 short of all those issued through current months. Both he and Mrs. Hellard are members of the Stamp Trotters Society which meets the second and fourth Tuesday of the month at the YWCA. Mrs. Hellard said she and her husband have received notice that their collection will be exhibited at the World's Fair.

It Will Take Time, But—

Courts, Congress Aim to Do What Was Original Purpose

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was supposed to have been done almost 100 years ago. But the Supreme Court was different then.

The mood of the nation and the times were different. And Negroes? They had no power, hardly a voice.

The civil rights bill which Congress is going to pass now is in essence a repetition of what was tried after the Civil War. If it had worked then, the history of America would have been different.

Before the war Southern "black codes" imposed penalties on Negro slaves not only for crimes but as human beings. They couldn't testify against a white man; it was a crime to teach them to read.

The Civil War, and the 13th Amendment of 1865, abolished slavery but new "black codes" began to appear. The freedmen weren't freedmen. The codes put restrictions on them that did not apply to white men.

Strong-willed men in the Republican-run Congress, overshadowing both the president and the Supreme Court, rushed through two additional amendments, the 14th and 15th.

The 14th, making Negroes citizens, said no state could deprive them of the privileges and immunities of citizens; and the 15th said no state could deny citizens the right to vote.

Thus Congress sought to free Negroes—there were 4 million slaves at the time of the war, 27 million whites—in their social and political life. Negroes now number about 20 million in a population of 192 million.

To make Negroes' citizenship real Congress backed up the amendments with a series of civil rights acts: the protection of all laws in all states, assurance of voting rights, protection against the Ku Klux Klan, and so on.

One in particular, passed in 1875, said Negroes must have equal treatment in inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters and amusement places.

But, despite all this effort by Congress, by then Southern states had begun passing segregation laws. And in the North, Negroes didn't get equal treatment. They were discriminated against everywhere.

It took eight years after that 1875 act for Negroes to take to the Supreme Court five cases of discrimination which, they felt, violated the law. For example, the case of a Northern theater which refused to admit Negroes. By then the Northern politicians were getting tired of the struggle to get Negroes equal treatment. The Supreme Court reflected this mood.

This was how it interpreted that 1875 act: It was only intended, the court said, to forbid states to pass laws denying Negroes equal treatment; the law didn't apply to discrimination by individual white people.

Southern states piled up segregation laws and in 1896, the Supreme Court blessed such laws by reasoning that was fallacious on the face of it: the court said Negroes could be segregated so long as they got equal treatment with white men.

The treatment was, and became, very unequal. Between 1875 and 1957 Congress passed no more civil rights acts. From 1896 until 1954 that separate-but-equal doctrine of the court remained the law of the land.

In time, a long time, Negroes once again began to seek action by the government to get treatment truly equal. Any appeal for the first half of this century was hopeless. Negroes hoped the court would undo the 1896 ruling.

But it never did until 1954. It knocked out, beginning in the 1930s, various forms of unequal treatment, like back seats on a bus. But until 1954, it never declared the 1896 court wrong by saying the principle of segregation was wrong.

Then it did so in its ruling banning public school segregation. Stimulated by that, Congress passed a civil rights act in 1957, and another in 1960. These were mainly aimed at protecting Negroes' right to vote. Contrary to the 15th Amendment of 1870, Negroes were kept from voting in many areas.

Now Congress is about to pass one more civil rights act, once more to strengthen Negroes' voting protections and, among other things, prohibit discrimination against Negroes in motels, hotels, restaurants and places of amusement if those places affect interstate commerce.

It's a little lumpy and fulfillment will take time. But Congress and the court now are trying to do what neither did well in those turbulent years almost a century ago.

Jane Goodall, young English scientist, has discovered that chimpanzees fashion and use crude implements.

Aluminum Workers To Return to Jobs

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—About 3,100 workers, idled since May 23 by a work-load dispute, were scheduled to begin returning to their jobs Monday at the Aluminum Co. of America plant here.

Members of the Aluminum Workers International Union Saturday night approved a settlement negotiated Thursday in St. Louis. A spokesman for Local 420 at Massena said the agreement passed by a narrow margin in a vote by some 2,000

Alcoa employees. The dispute involved reclassification of workers in six pot-rooms and had threatened to spread to nine other Alcoa plants in the nation.

The company agreed to idle one of the pot-rooms on each shift to avoid reclassification of personnel, under the settlement reported Sunday.

Alcoa also agreed to make, within six weeks, a month-long work-activity study of crews in three small pot-rooms.

West Saugerties Rebekahs Hold Friendship Night

The Rebekahs of West Saugerties last week honored Mrs. Augusta Schirmer on her 50th wedding anniversary and Lillian Comitello received a gift for her 25th anniversary at a Friendship Night gathering in West Saugerties Odd Fellows Hall.

This concluded the meetings for July and August.

George J. Burghard, grand senior warden of the Grand Encampment of the State of New York, sent a letter of thanks to Anna Yakin, past district deputy president of Ulster County, for her cooperation and also to West Saugerties Lodge for donating to the Cancer Fund.

Lodges representative were from Bearsville, Highland and Saugerties. Among the dignitaries were Florence Gippert past assembly musician; Irene Ronk district deputy president of Ulster District 1 and her marshal, Helen Schaefer; Velma Clearwater, past president of the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchs Militant and many past district deputy presidents.

Members were reminded of the 47th anniversary of the Vineyard Rebekah Lodge on Thursday 8 p. m.

Roberta Whitaker notified the attending Past Noble Grand that there will be a meeting on July 7 at the Highland Lodge.

Ulster County will again be honored by having one of their group, Anna Yakin, receive the Decoration of Chivalry, sometime in the fall.

The evening ended with an entertainment. Barbara Lounsbury, Ethel Jehle, Jean Emmons, Verna Collins and June Lewis, were in a dancing skit and the girls portrayed the Beatles.

The entertainment was in charge of Margaret Siegel, pianist. Mildred Schuchard of Lodge 34, accompanied on the accordion. Sherman Myers on his guitar.

Noble Grand Marie Post, narrated "This Is Your Life" Augusta Schirmer. Community singing was then held. The meeting was climaxed by the Noble Grand reading a poem entitled "Friends."

Members will be called when the Quilting Bee will start.

Lodge was officially notified that Helen Ouker of Phoenixia, was elected district deputy president of Ulster District No. 2.

TO SPONSOR DRUM CORPS—Saugerties Jaycees announced today that the Paulettes, an all-girl drum and bell corps of New York City will be one of three units scheduled to perform at the field day exercises July 4 at Cantine Memorial Field. The others are the Criterions of Kingston and Boy Scout Troop 12 Indians. The Paulettes composed of a 12-girl percussion line, 18-girl glockenspiel line and 12-girl color guard will be sponsored by Saugerties Savings Bank. The three bands will present a one-hour performance after the parade. John M. Robbins, (center), secretary-treasurer of Saugerties Savings Bank presents check to John Southam, Jaycees finance chairman. Richard Cyr, Jaycees president, is at right.

Baptist Church Vacation Bible School Slated

First Baptist Church of Saugerties will conduct a seven-day vacation Bible school beginning Tuesday and continuing through July 1.

The theme for the school is "Around the World with Christ." Sessions will be held daily from 9:30 until 11:40 a. m. Parents desiring to have their children come direct from the Main Street School on Tuesday are asked to send a note with their child to the teacher indicating the same.

Adult supervision will escort the children from the grade school to the church on that day. Classes will be held for children and young people ages 2 to 18.

The teachers for the seven day period are:

Pre-school, ages 2-3 — Mrs. Alberta Cody and Mrs. Nadene Henry; Pre-school, ages 4-5 — Mrs. Sandra Sterritt, Mrs. Linda Cody and Mrs. Carolyn Beck; Primary — Mrs. Pat Bjorkman, Mrs. Martha House, Mrs. Inez Newberry and Mrs. Leona Snyder; Junior — Mrs. Joan Reynolds and Mrs. Joan Yee; Senior — Paul Brooks Henry and Mrs. Muriel Finger.

All children throughout the area are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served daily under the supervision of Mrs. Jessis Myers and M. C. Craw. Nursery care will be in charge of Mrs. Snewa and Mrs. Ruth Caw.

Centerville Home Unit's Luncheon Slated Wednesday

Arrangements for a luncheon 12 noon Wednesday at Beekman Arms, Rhinebeck were discussed at last week's meeting of Centerville Unit of Home Demonstration Department held at Centerville Methodist Church Hall.

From there the members will visit the Vanderbilt Mansion, the Roosevelt Estate, and the county store.

Mary Kamps, who is in charge of the sewing screen project, gave her report. A finished screen was brought in by Margaret McCall. The first group lesson was given at Marje Bishop's home. The next lesson will be announced at a later date.

In the fall Marje Bishop will give the lesson on decorative pillows.

Katherine Helm will be chair-lady of a special luncheon to be given on the first meeting in September, for all past presidents of the unit. The unit was started in 1944, with 25 members.

Brush, Dump Fires

Centerville and Cedar Grove volunteers responded to a brush fire at West Saugerties and two calls at the Quarryville dump off Route 32 and Blue Mountain Road.

The brush fire alerts a pumper truck from each unit at about 2:30 p. m. Sunday. Centerville and Cedar Grove units responded Saturday night and early Sunday mornings to quench a flare-up at the Quarryville dump.

Use All Manpower

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — Sunday motorists passing a shallow irrigation ditch stared in amazement at five youngsters' disdain of the machine age.

Two of them were running along each side of the eight-foot ditch at top speed, towing a fifth youngster riding grandly on water skis.

Streamlined Stock Ticker

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Stock Exchange today introduces a streamlined model of the stock ticker, symbol of Wall Street for years.

The ticker, called the "900," is designed to keep track of up to 10 million shares a day. It changes speed automatically to keep pace with trading.

The ticker replaces a box-like model in use since 1930.

Dear Abby . . .

The Game's The Same!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am an American Airlines stewardess and I love my work, but my problem is the same as every other airline stewardess I know. When a male passenger wants to make conversation with us, he asks two questions:

(1) How do you like flying?

(2) Aren't you afraid to fly so much?

Abby, if we didn't like flying, we wouldn't fly. And if we were "afraid," we wouldn't be flying for a living. I'll bet I answer those two questions fifty times a day! You would do thousands of airline stewardesses a big favor if you would suggest a few more original questions. Please?

MISS A. A.

DEAR MISS A. A.: I was about to suggest: (1) Are you going with anybody? (2) What are you doing tonight? But they are probably more common than the two questions you mentioned. You can't blame a man for wanting to strike up a conversation with an attractive girl. Yours is a great job! Where else can you find men who are already strapped in?

DEAR ABBY: How do you tell your doctor that you would like another medical opinion without implying that you do not trust his judgment? Is it all right to ask him to recommend another doctor or are you expected to find your own? If you should decide to change doctors, is it nifty to ask your old doctor to give your new doctor your records and X-rays? I would like to know how all this is handled as I am very stupid about such matters.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Any patient who would like another medical opinion has the right to tell her doctor so. If she has a doctor in mind, she may request that he be called in. Otherwise her doctor will recommend one. If she should decide to change doctors, the physician in service will (or should) graciously send her records and X-rays to her new doctor on the latter's request.

DEAR ABBY: What in the world is the matter with a certain big store here in town? This is the second run-in I've had with them over their fouled-up bookkeeping. I went on my lunch hour and stood in line to pay ten dollars on my bill, which paid me up in full. Then I got a bill from them showing that I still owed them $9.90, but a credit was put through for TEN CENTS! Now, Abby, you know perfectly well that no store will accept a TEN-CENT payment on a bill! Well, I took my receipt AND my lawyer with me and went down there and told them off but good. Believe it or not, they are still looking for their mistake. Tell your readers to hold on to their receipts. Mine saved me.

NOT SO DUMB

CONFIDENTIAL TO WM. T.: A small salary is often surrounded by a big opportunity. Give it a try.

Troubles? Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-address envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.

Ten From County To Visit Cornell For 4-H Congress

A space-science demonstration, opportunity to gain some understanding of the arts, and a hootenanny are scheduled for the 1,000 4-H boys and girls attending Club Congress at Cornell University, June 24-26.

Ten are attending from Ulster County including Lillian Bogart, Stone Ridge; Jean Gaffney, Kingston; Sharon Legg and Leslie Plastro, Flatbush; Theresa Stopeznski, Lincoln Park; Mildred VanAllen, Hurley; Barbara Williams, Sawkill; Robert Fisk, Kingston; William Ronk, Highland and Ivan Pece, Hurley.

Prof. Wilbur F. Pease, State 4-H Club Leader, N. Y. State College of Agriculture at Cornell, says the program has been planned to give older youth more insight and understanding of 4-H Club work, keener appreciation of the values and opportunities gained through advanced study, and the incentive to "Learn, Live, and Serve Through 4-H."

All delegates to this 38th 4-H Club Congress will hear and see Frank Lucarelli of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration demonstrate how a satellite gets into orbit and stays there. He will also describe the present activities of his agency and their plans for the future.

Mrs. Evelyn Millis Duvall, author and consultant on family life, will address the group on the topic "Growing Up in Today's World." She is director of the Adolescent Study Course for "P-TA Magazine" and has written "When You Marry," "Being Married," and "Family Development."

On Thursday, June 25, each delegate will choose two activities from among 18 offered, ranging from the arts to financing an education, scientific feeding of livestock or performing a laboratory experiment using stretch fabrics. Tours of the campus, the Veterinary College and the traditional citizenship and candlelighting ceremonies are included in the three-day schedule. Accompanying the group will be Miss Patricia Larsen and Mr. Robert Cousins, 4-H Summer Assistants.

Today in History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, June 22, the 174th day of 1964. There are 192 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1807, the American frigate Chesapeake, sent to sea without a single gun in condition to fire, was halted by the British frigate Leopard. Capt. James Barron refused to have his ship searched for deserters and the Leopard opened fire. Unable to defend his ship, Barron was forced to surrender.

On this date In 1773, Dominican friars entered the territory of what now is California and established the first settlement.

In 1812, Napoleon ordered his armies to attack Russia.

In 1937, Joe Louis became world heavyweight boxing champion.

In 1940, the French - German armistice was signed in the forest of Compiègne.

In 1941, Nazi forces invaded Russia.

Ten years ago — President Dwight D. Eisenhower described Japan as the key to the defense of the western Pacific and warned it must not fall to the Communists.

Five years ago — Argentine President Arturo Frondizi's cabinet resigned following the discovery of an unsuccessful plot by retired military officers to oust Frondizi.

One year ago — Liberal party leader Lester Pearson became prime minister of Canada.

Director Elected To Library Frat

Don Sager, the new Kingston City Library director has been elected to membership in Beta Phi Mu, international library science honor fraternity.

Membership is granted to professional librarians who have shown both high scholastic and leadership qualities.

Sager also holds membership in Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary journalism fraternity, and Sigma Tau Delta, honorary English fraternity.

Though much of Edgar Allan Poe's best work is concerned with terror, sadness and despair, the poet was a pleasant companion who talked brilliantly, chiefly of literature, and who could read his own poetry and that of others in a professional manner. He had a sense of humor, often apologizing to visitors for not keeping a pet raven.

DO YOU REMEMBER

By SOPHIE MILLER

Looking through some old Kingston Weekly Freeman, I ran across one of Jan. 7, 1904, at which time Woodstock was without fire equipment, as they wrote, except primitive hand buckets. They felt they were fortunate that they had streams of water everywhere throughout the town. They wanted a gasoline fire engine to be kept in the center of the village and with a team of good horses nearby. They could then be reached by a telephone call from Shady or Van Dale some three miles away and could arrive within 20 minutes. The engine could pump two streams of water on the fire. They also wanted a hook and ladder in Woodstock in 1904.

In the Jan. 7, 1904, there was a fine picture of young Mayor Morris Block and his annual message. He had one item on street and public building lights. He wrote that in 1892 the city of Kingston first was lighted by electricity, the annual cost for this service was $12,918, while the year which just passed (1903) it was $20,400. In 1892 service consisted of 66 arc and 878 incandescent lights. In 1904 they had about 133 arc and 175 incandescent lights. That was just 60 years ago. I wonder how many lights Kingston has today and what it costs to light the city and the government buildings.

The rich were also rich in 1904 like they are today. Col. John Jacob Astor of Rhinebeck and his wife and children and small party of friends were departing on Jan. 20, 1904 on their palatial steam yacht, Nourmahal for a trip around the world.

Red Skelton Puts Serious Self on Public Exhibit

By MIKE GAVIN

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Comedian Red Skelton kicks off his 40th year in show business today with a "straight act" he's been working on secretly since 1943.

The 50-year-old comic puts a collection of his oil paintings on exhibit at the hotel where he is midway through a six-week engagement.

The showing, featuring 50 works completed in the past year, will run to July 14. Red's description of how he started painting sounds like one of his routines.

"I went into a big Chicago department store and just happened to notice some paintings they had on display there. I asked a clerk about one that looked to me like a bunch of blotches. He said, 'Ten thousand wouldn't buy that one.'"

"I told him I was one of the ten thousand and went out and bought my first set of paints that afternoon."

Skelton's paintings fall into three categories — portraits of animals and clowns, elongated caricatures of people, and still life.

Very shy about his painting, he has never attempted a serious portrait of a person—aside from a few clowns in heavy makeup.

His wife, Georgia, who studied art in Los Angeles, came up with the idea of the exhibit.

Skelton was hesitant about putting his serious self before the public, which has applauded his antics since he went on stage at the age of 10.

Skelton grimaces while he makes laughing remarks, but he is keenly sensitive to criticism—whether it comes from another artist, an entertainer or a workman at the hotel.

He works rapidly, sometimes on three or more canvases at one time. He paints indoors, outdoors, even standing in the shallow end of his pool with an easel on the bank.

"When something starts both-

In Las Vegas, Red does most of his work out-of-doors, wearing a straw hat and a plastic raincoat over bathing trunks. The raincoat is a weight-losing device in the 95-degree desert heat.

"I know my stuff isn't good now. Maybe it never will be, but at least people will be able to say, 'I don't like the mouth' or 'The ears are too big for that face.' Nobody will ever walk away from something I do wondering what it's supposed to be," Red says.

City Library Adds New Books On Gardening

A group of new books on gardening is available from the Kingston City Library. It is a special collection on flowers, fruit and vegetable growing as well as flower arranging and lawn care.

This is one of several collections being made available through Mid-Hudson Libraries, the five-county library system with headquarters in Poughkeepsie.

The Secret of the Green Thumb by Henry and Rebecca Northern reveals, in non-technical language, the scientific facts underlying gardening.

Anyone Can Grow Roses, by Cynthia Westcott, not only explains the secrets of rose growing but guides the reader in choosing the proper combination of species.

Herbs, How to Grow and Use Them, is a guide to all those who have wanted to start an herb garden but never knew how. Louise Evans Dooel's delightful book is just the remedy.

The Lawn Book covers every aspect of planning, planting and caring for your lawn. Dr. Robert Sherry, in this guide, aims at dispelling misconceptions concerning lawn care.

Are You Your Garden's Worst Pest? by Cynthia Westcott, poses the interesting theory that some people work their garden to death. Antidotes are given.

Your Garden Soil begins at ground level to solve the readers gardening problems. The author, R. Milton Carleton, combines scientific fact and experience for interesting reading.

Her Garden Was Her Delight, by Buckner Hollingsworth, covers one of America's forgotten pioneers: the famous woman gardener. The story unfolds in 1607 with Mistress Pearce and carries through with the score more women to bring the reader up to 1952 with Mrs. William Starr Dana.

The World of Roses endeavors to show that the world could do with more roses. Written by Bertram Park, it is filled with beautiful color photographs.

Shrubs and Trees for Home Landscape, by James Bush-Brown, reveals, despite the handicap of his name, the value and beauty of selected foliage for the yard.

These and many more titles are available now at the Kingston City Library, your idea center. The library is open weekdays 10:30 a. m. to 8:30 p. m. and Saturdays 1 to 5 p. m.

Coin, Currency Display Is at Rosendale Bank

A collection of United States currency and coins will be on display at the National Bank of Orange and Ulster Counties, Route 32, Rosendale for five days starting June 24.

Leif G. Anderson, assistant vice president of the bank, announced today that the exhibit is made up of eight frames of currency and three frames of coin and includes specimens of money issued or minted from colonial times to the present.

The nation's earliest history is reflected in specimens of the currency issued by the Continental Congress to help finance the Revolution. Overissue of this currency caused its rapid depreciation and gave rise to the expression "not worth a continental." The problems of the Civil War are reflected in the "shipplasters," or fractional currency which had to be issued by the North to replace coin, which had become scarce. Confederate currency will be displayed also.

Of unusual interest is the collection of Federal Reserve notes including the seldom seen $10,000 denomination. The set of notes was printed especially by the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Washington, D. C. for the Federal Reserve Bank of New York through whose cooperation the collection is being placed on display at the Rosendale bank. Each note in the series, although a genuine reproduction is engraved on one side only.

The making of a quarter, il-

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SOCIETIES • CLUBS • PERSONALS

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST A. SCHIRMER of West Saugerties celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 14 while attending a reunion of the "34 Club" at Canoe Island Lodge, Diamond Point on Lake George.

The club, comprised of past district officers, matrons and patrons of the Order of the Eastern Star of New York State during the year 1954 was at the same time observing its tenth anniversary. About 120 members and guests were present for the reunion. Because their parents were out of town on their wedding date, Mrs. Edward Strohman and Mrs. William Baum, daughters of the Schirmers, will hold a 50th anniversary open house on Sunday, June 28, 4 p. m., at the Strohman residence, 122 Market Street, Saugerties. Friends are cordially invited to attend. (Photo Workshop)

Personals

Miss Adele Lehtonen, of Allan L. Hanstein, Inc., was honored by her co-workers at a luncheon held Friday in the Kirkland Hotel. Miss Lehtonen is leaving the Hanstein Agency to be married to Henry J. Bruck Jr., and will reside in Syracuse. Those attending the luncheon were: Edna Jagers, president, Catherine Perry, Helen Lucas, Sally Chaffer, Ronnie Kugelmann, Philis Sjor, Pat Hassett, Nina Wagner, Jeanne Rivenberg and Barbara O'Connell.

Cape Melody Tent Lists Stellar Shows, Borge, Armstrong

HYANNIS — Any star shining in Hyannis skies throughout the evenings of June 29 to July 4 will find itself hard-pressed to outshine the performance of MY FAIR LADY, which will catapult the Cape Cod Melody Tent into its 15th sparkling season.

The schedule for the Melody Tent, which is usually a mecca for Ulster County residents summering at Cape Cod, reads like a "Who's Who" of Broadway hits for the 10-week season. Besides a stellar attraction of musical hits, the Melody Tent this year also will present such favorites as Victor Borge, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington and the Dave Brubeck Quartet during the tent's famed "Sunday Evenings at Hyannis."

Richard Roger's newest Broadway hit, NO STRINGS, opening on July 6, will be followed by an incomparable trio of two-week runs: the enchanting CAMELOT, July 13; a return engagement of the season opener, MY FAIR LADY, July 27; Rodgers and Hammerstein's poignant SOUND OF MUSIC, Aug. 10.

Rounding the season into a perfect musical sphere will be the rousing favorite, THE STUDENT PRINCE, Aug. 24 and Rodgers and Hammerstein's memorable FLOUNDER DRUM SONG, Aug. 31.

This summer the Tent's famed "Sunday Evenings at Hyannis" features five artists of unparalleled renown. The Dave Brubeck Quartet (July 26), Victor Borge (Aug. 2), Louis Armstrong (Aug. 9), Richard Dyer-Bennet (Aug. 16), and Duke Ellington (Aug. 30) will each perform for one night only on the designated dates.

Certain to delight the hearts of children are the Friday matinees of special shows for youngsters which include such favorites as "Hansel and Gretel," "Zippity, the World's Greatest Chimp," "Rapunzel," and "All Baba and the Forty Thieves."

Women Republicans Hold Final Meeting; Fair Chairmen Named

The Ulster County Women's Republican Club held its final meeting of the season June 18 at the Governor Clinton Hotel with Mrs. William A. Krum presiding.

It was announced that Mrs. Gus Parker and Mrs. C. John Bechtold will be co-chairmen of the organization's booth at the forthcoming Ulster County Fair.

Mrs. Raymond LeFever spoke on the proposed Grow Program and named the chairmen of the projected committees. They include Mrs. Leroy Crosswell, ethnics; Mrs. Bertha DeWitt, minorities; Mrs. Fred DuBois, farm; Mrs. Eleanor Bruhn, business and Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, senior citizens.

The club voted to send Mrs. Krum, president, to the New York State Federation of Women's Republicans Clubs in Niagara Falls August 20-21.

Miss Patricia Larsen, assistant county 4-H club agent was guest speaker. She introduced area 4-H participants modeling dresses and suits personally created.

Sharon Lee DeLisio Exchanges Marriage Vows With James E. Joy; Papal Blessing

Miss Sharon Lee DeLisio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DeLisio of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Woodstock, N. Y., exchanged marriage vows with James Everett Joy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Everett Joy of Collingswood, N. J., on Saturday, June 20 at 11 a. m.

The wedding took place in St. John's Church, West Hurley, before a nuptial mass. Officiating was the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Austin V. Carey, pastor.

Music for the occasion was provided by Mrs. Aleksander Narel of West Hurley.

Mr. DeLisio gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length wedding suit of white raw silk. The skirt was sheath style and the semi-fitted jacket had bracelet length sleeves. Her silk illusion bouffant veil was held by a pillbox of silk covered with Alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and ivy.

The bride was attended by Carolyn Mae Dees of Little Rock, Arkansas. She was dressed in a modified Grecian style floor length gown of powder blue de-lustrated silk. A matching silk flowered pail headpiece was also worn and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and ivy.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Ann DeLisio, the bride's sister; Miss Evelyn Spina of Long Island, and Miss Reba Retz of New York City. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the honor attendant except in shell pink. They carried nosegays of pink sweetheart roses.

John Galotto of Hawthorne, N. J., was best man. Ushering were John Fannham of Stamford, Conn.

THANK-YOU NOTE NECESSARY?

Q: My husband and I were guests recently at a buffet supper given by one of our office associates and his wife. I had met our host several times before but it was the first time I had met his wife. When we left I told her we had a lovely time and thanked her for asking us. My husband thinks I should have telephoned or written her a note the next day to thank her again for inviting us. Will you please tell me it was necessary?

A: Not at all. Your thanks when you left were quite sufficient. If you and your husband gave a party sometime in the near future, you should invite them to it.

Introductions at a Large Party

Q: When giving a large party, I never know quite what to do about introductions. I am referring to the arrival of guests who are strangers to most of the others already present. Is it necessary to take them around and introduce them to each and every guest?

A: You introduce the first few arrivals to each other, but after your party has grown to a point where this is no longer practical, you need only introduce the new arrivals to those who happen to be standing near you.

Uncle to Give Bride Away

Q: My father is dead and my mother's brother will be giving me away. After answering the ministers, "Who giveth this woman to be wed," does my uncle take his place beside my mother in the front pew? If so, must his wife also be asked to sit in the front pew or is she seated elsewhere with other relatives?

A: If you possibly can, seat your aunt in the front pew beside your mother on the inside, and after he gives you away, your uncle would take the aisle seat next to your mother.

Saugerties Church Is Scene of Wedding For Nancy Quackenbush, John D. Dooley

On June 13 at 3 p. m., marriage vows were taken by Miss Nancy Lou Quackenbush of Saugerties and John Desmond Dooley of Malden-on-Hudson. The wedding took place in St. Mary of the Snow, Saugerties. Officiating was the Rev. John Hamilton, assistant pastor. Mrs. Charles Dickman was the organist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Quackenbush and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Brendan Dooley.

Altar vases of white gladioli decorated the church for the occasion and the family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mr. Quackenbush gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory peau de soie and Alencon lace in chapel length. The lace bodice featured a Sabrina neckline and elbow length sleeves. The skirt was a modified A-line and was caught at the back waistline with a rose of matching material. The French silk illusion veil was fingertip length and shirred to a flower headpiece. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses, lilies of the valley, ivy and stephanotis.

Miss Carolyn Halpert of Saugerties was the honor attendant. She wore a floor length gown of white taffeta with embroidered pink rosebuds at the waistline and a butterfly bow at the back. Her headpiece was a shell pink picture hat and she carried deep pink roses.

Miss Roseanne Dooley of Malden-on-Hudson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Theresa Spada of Glasco, served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the maid of honor except in shell pink. They carried roses.

Brendan H. Dooley of Wait-ham, Mass., the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Ushers were Joseph Benjamin of Saugerties, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Richard Benjamin of Saugerties.

A reception was given at the Flamingo Restaurant for approximately 110 guests.

The bride was graduated from Saugerties Central High School, class of 1960. She is a graduate also of Cortland State Teachers' College and a member of Alpha Sigma Sorority. Her husband is an alumnus of Charles E. Gordon High School, Yonkers, and attended Ithaca College. He is a retail specialist for Atlantic Oil Refining Company.

When Mr. and Mrs. Dooley return from their wedding trip through the south, they will be at home at 249 Manning Boulevard, Albany.

Lake Katrine Scouts Hold Joint Court of Awards Ceremonies

The Girl Scouts of the Lake Katrine Area recently held a joint Court of Awards program at the Lake Katrine School which was attended by 225 relatives and friends of the seven Girl Scout Troops participating in the program.

Brownie Troop 87, presented the Flag Ceremony. Mimi Sife, Cadette Girl Scout Troop 60, gave the welcome address. Brownie Troop 116 sang the welcome song "Make New Friends."

Membership Stars for one year's attendance were presented to the members of the troops as follows:

Brownie Troop 12 presented by leader, Mrs. William Hannever assisted by Mrs. Frank Mongillo; Brownie Troop 87, leader, Mrs. John Murdoch assisted by Mrs. Joseph Castle; Brownie Troop 116, leader, Mrs. Stephen Dominis, assistant, Mrs. Henry Barten; Brownie Troop 161, leader, Mrs. Andrew Juhl; Junior Troop 35, leader, Mrs. Olav Sande; Cadette Troop 60, leader, Mrs. John Schlegel, assistant, Mrs. Richard Ryan.

Brownie Wings were presented to the girls in an impressive fly-up ceremony as follows:

Troop 12, Louise Carrion, Charlene Gregory, Beverly Hall, Robin Hannever, Patricia Loeffler, Corinne Martensen, Mary Ruth McDonald, Janet Moore, Barbara Van Elten.

Troop 87, Kathi Castle, Diane Colen, Amie Geelen, Marie Sande, Denise Stymfal, June Wolfersteiz.

Troop 161, Linda Castrone, Mary Ellen Foley, Susan Smith.

Troop 35 and Junior Troop 164, Mrs. Fred Schabot leader, held a candlelight investiture service for the new Junior Scouts who were flying-up into the Junior Troops.

Troop 35 and Cadette Troop 60 presented the rededication ceremony, in which each of the Girl Scouts reaffirmed their pledge to the ideals of the Girl Scout program.

Junior Troop 35 and Cadette Troop 60 then held a Court of Awards program. Each girl was awarded the ranks and badges she earned during the past year.

After the awards presentation Troops 35 and 60 presented a song and instrumental selection "Girl Scouts Together" conducted by Kathleen Ryan, with Bonnie Neice and Gail Adin, flutes; Nancy Schlegel, Linda Murdoch, Karen Waller and Patty Sande, clarinets; and Patty Ljutic, violin.

Brownie Troops 12, 87, 116, Junior Troop 35, and Cadette Troop 60 are sponsored by the Lake Katrine School Parent-Teacher Association; Brownie Troop 161 by St. Catherine La-boure Mother's Club and Junior Troop 164 by the Ruby Rod and Gun Club. All of the troops are members of the Uptown Kingston Neighborhood of the Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts which is a member agency of the Ulster County Community Chest.

Rhinebeck Wedding Is Announced Here; Lana Rita Mehlig Weds Bruce Cookingham

Miss Lana Rita Mehlig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Mehlig, Rhinebeck, and granddaughter of the late Dr. Charles F. C. Mehlig, New York City, and Bruce Holt Cookingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Cookingham, Rhinebeck, and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Cookingham, Rhinebeck, were married at the Good Shepherd Church in Rhinebeck at nine o'clock Saturday, June 20. The Rev. Msgr. John J. Joy officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Elsa Casey was organist and accompanied the soloist Mrs. Rita Fichera. The altar was decorated with arrangements of white delphiniums, carnations and white pompons.

The bride, who was escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of ivory peau de soie accented by ecru Alencon lace. It was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, capped sleeves, and a chapel train. Her bouffant veil of ivory illusion was caught by a circlet topped with a wreath of miniature rosebuds and she carried a cascade arrangement of cala lilies and English ivy.

Miss Carole Mehlig, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Sandra Cookingham, sister of the groom, of Lebanon, Ind., and Miss Jane Erickson of Rockport, Mass. Their identical full length gowns were champagne colored peau de soie trimmed with embroidered sash of tiny colored roses. The headpieces were pastel blue circlets with a cluster of roses set inside the band, matching shoes and each bridesmaid carried a cascade of pink delphiniums with English ivy.

Miss Susan McKeefrey, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. Her floor length frock was blue tulle over blue taffeta. Her headpiece was a band of blue delphiniums. She carried a bouquet of pink and blue delphiniums and English ivy. Jeffrey Decker served as ringbearer.

William McKeefrey, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushering were Ronald McKeefrey, brother of the bride, and Robert G. Decker.

The reception was held at Norrie Point Inn, Statburg. After a wedding trip to New England, the couple will reside in Peabody, Mass. For travel, the bride selected a bone two piece linen suit with matching pillbox hat and accessories and a corsage of blue delphiniums and blue lily of the Nile.

A graduate of Academy of St. Ursula, Kingston, 1962, the bride is enrolled in Boston University, class of 1966, where she is an English major.

The bridegroom, a 1960 alumnus of Red Hook Central School, was graduated June 7 from Dutchess Community College where he studied accounting and data processing. He is employed as payroll supervisor at Carter Overton in Auburndale, Mass.

They couldn't see what held him to the earth. With hollow spheres, magnets, and needles I tried to explain gravity.

The next day I asked them to write about what we had discussed. The cork penholders were compressed by determined fingers. Anxious voices asked for the spelling of this word or that. Surely the lesson had been a

Hollywood News, Views

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What do movie beauties think of the proposed topless bathing suit for women?

None appears to be embracing the idea, although some opine that the fashion might catch on.

The controversy began when a New York fashion house featured swim suits without the associated with feminine beach wear. Orders poured in from many stores, but beach clubs, sheriff's offices and several million males were placed in perplexity.

Is the fashion for real?

Several film figures were asked how they felt about the nude deal.

Vivien Leigh: "The women in Japan bathe at the seashore without bothering with a top, so why shouldn't women be allowed to do it in California? There should be an age limit on those who are eligible to wear the style."

Debbie Reynolds: "I don't think the topless suit will catch on. Reality can seldom measure up to men's imaginations. You can put me down as saying I think the fad will be a flat bust."

Kim Novak: "All or nothing at all."

Felicia Farr: "Bosoms are for boudoirs."

Angie Dickinson: "They're just great—to wear while shampooing one's hair in the privacy of one's home."

Elke Sommer: "I hate them. I go around nude at home, but I wouldn't wear one of those. Show a man too much too often and he'll get tired of it."

Connie Stevens: "I suppose they're okay if you have the figure and the nerve. Anyhow, I'm playing it safe and keeping my husband (Jim Stacey) home from the beaches this summer."

Mamie Van Doren: "I already own a topless suit but I have no intention of wearing it in public."

Health for All

Back to the Igloo?

Consider the Eskimo — for warmth or for cooking, he builds a fire right on the floor in the middle of his igloo. The smoke goes straight up and out through a hole in the top. Usually this businesslike arrangement works fairly well. For the most part, the Eskimo breathes clean, warmed air.

But sometimes in the spring, just before breakup, wet snow will fall into the fire or some special weather condition will prevent the "chimney" from functioning. Then the inner wall gets black with soot, and the Eskimo and his family must put out the fire or go choking and stumbling into the fresh air outside.

Civilized nations, with all the scientific resources at their command, naturally are doing a more efficient job than the Eskimo. They are smoking up not single dwellings, but whole cities. The smoke that pours out of home and factory chimneys, automobile exhaust pipes, bonfires of burning leaves, and tobacco in its various forms, is filling the air with hydrocarbons, sulphur dioxide and other noxious gases. So full, in fact, that only a moderate flight of fancy is needed to predict a day when we'll all have to go choking and stumbling into outer space. Unfortunately there's no air there, either.

Individual courtesy in disposing of our aerial refuse isn't really enough. Superburning of gaseous wastes renders them harmless and is more efficient, but the necessary chimney attachment seems expensive to a lot of people. Clean air legislation is as necessary now as were laws providing clean pure water 50 years ago. Check your own furnace, chimney, and car exhaust first; then do what you can to make it a community clean-up. If there is a cleaner air committee in town, find out how you can help its efforts.

Stratton Lashes Out Again at RFK Possibility

HAMILTON, N. Y. (AP)—Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., lashed out again today at the possibility that U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy might be his rival for the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator from New York.

"The growing tendency to focus on nationally famous personalities as candidates for public office, rather than on those with more plausible local associations but less nationwide glamor, has very disturbing implications for the future of democracy," the congressman asserted.

Stratton's speech was prepared for delivery at the annual Boys State, sponsored by the American Legion.

Stratton is generally considered a candidate for the senatorial nomination although he has made no formal announcement. Some party leaders, however, have urged nomination of Kennedy to oppose Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating in the November election.

Mikoyan in Indonesia

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan began an 11-day visit to Indonesia today, apparently anxious to curtail Red China's influence in Indonesia's Communist party.

in April by Alfred B. Fitt, deputy assistant secretary of defense for civil rights.

Since then, the individual armed services have moved to put the order into effect.

Fitt told The Associated Press it was found there were 24 or 25 forms that still carried racial listings. "In most cases, they shouldn't have," Fitt said.

The Pentagon's civil rights chief has been carrying on a campaign for nearly a year to eradicate all traces of racial discrimination within the military establishment, and to ease discrimination against Negro servicemen in areas surrounding military bases.

Affected forms included personnel security questionnaires, reports of transfer or discharge, statements of personal history, evaluations of WAC or WAF applicants, Navy applications for enlistment, certain medical records and others.

These included papers relating to casualty reports and disposition of a serviceman's remains.

Also allowed to carry racial designations are "wanted" posters and other forms connected with men AWOL or deserters from the armed forces.

Ricky Barthel Wins Herdegen Memorial Golf Tournament

Ties 63 Record Set At Woodstock Course

Richard Barthel of Twaalfskill captured the Herdegen Memorial golf tournament and on his victorious journey tied the 63 course record set at the Woodstock Country Club.

Barthel, a member of the New Paltz College team, overcame an eight-stroke lead at the half-way mark to win the tournament by a two-stroke margin over defending champion, Buzzy Costello.

Following his 63-seven under par-round at Woodstock, the young sharpshooter from Twaalfskill went to the final round at the Shawangunk Club on Sunday with a lead of one stroke and posted a 70 to go two strokes over his closest rival, Costello. Youth was not to be denied as the two college stars led the field in the 72-hole Ulster County Golf Championship. None of the 23 finalists could come within 10 strokes of the two leaders who battled for the traditional green coat that goes to the champion.

Highlight of the tournament was Barthel's brilliant performance on Woodstock's well-groomed links. The young teacher-to-be fired seven birds and eleven pars. His 282 total score was put together with 71-78-63, 70 at Twaalfskill, Wiltwyck, Woodstock and Shawangunk respectively.

About 100 people encircled the 18th green as the new champion held out his last putt, but the real turning point of the final day's play came on the 12th hole. Costello had gained the lead, he had lost after 34 holes of play and was in front by one stroke only to find himself trailing by two as the result of a double boggie six as Barthel scored a birdie three. Both players had approximately the same 50-foot shot to the sloping green.

but the big break came when Barthel's chip dropped into the cup and Costello needed two putts.

Leon Randall, the Wiltwyck veteran who has won every title in the Hudson Valley, finished in third place with 294. Bill Van Aken of Woodstock was fourth followed by Bost. Making a fine showing at 302 was Neil Pauker of the Kingston High School team. Jimmy Turk finished seventh ahead of George Hughes and Harold Van Aken, who tied for eighth spot.

Monticello DD 3-1 Pays $46.40

MONTICELLO, N. Y., June 22—Miss Filibuster, a seven-year-old bay mare reined by Carl Ernst, went gate-to-wire to win tonight's opening dash at Monticello Raceway in a brisk 2:04.2 to set up a $46.40 daily double payoff on the 3-1 combination.

The 8-5 favorite Sunny Barbara topped the second half of the DD in 2:05.1 for driver Jim Grundy.

Miss Filibuster, making her fourth start of the season, held off challenges by Counsel Way and Key Command in the stretch to post her maiden win of the season. Sent off at 3-1 odds, she returned mutuels of $8.60, $5.00 and $4.10.

Counsel Way paid $4.20 and $2.80 for second, while Key Command was the show horse for $3.40.

Five-year-old mare Sunny Barbara overhauled the pace-setting Rome Hanover and Guess Again halfway down the stretch to score her initial success in five tries. Backers received payoffs of $5.50, $3.20 and $2.80.

Guess Again was worth $3.20 and $2.60, and Longshot Rocky Babe $6.80.

Bunning Hurls Perfect Game; Yanks Move Into First Place

By DICK COUCH

Associated Press Sports Writer
New York Met fans thought they'd seen it all—Marvelous Marv Throneberry, a 32-inning doubleheader, you name it—until a slim sidewinder from Southgate, Ky., came along and treated the New Breed to the sweetest sight of all—perfection.

And, as Philadelphia's Jim Bunning set down Met after Met in the first flawless pitching performance in modern National League history—a 6-0, no-hit, no-base runner masterpiece in the first game of a Sunday doubleheader—the Shea Stadium faithful were caught up in the wonder of it all.

They forgot to root for the home team.

The fans were with Bunning all the way and the 32-year-old right-hander, an NL newcomer after nine years with Detroit, didn't let them down. Pinpointing an assortment of curve balls and sliders, he retired each of the 27 batters he faced, a feat last accomplished by Don Larsen of the New York Yankees in a 1956 World Series game.

Charlie Robertson pitched a regular season perfect game for the Chicago White Sox in 1922. Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix hurled 12 perfect innings against Milwaukee in 1959, but lost the game 1-0 on a 13th inning hit. A National League pitcher hadn't won a perfect game since 1880.

Bunning also became the first to win no-hitters in each league, having blanked Boston in 1958 for the Tigers.

The Mets, not to be denied entirely, found a place in the record book, too. Their three hits in the nightcap, won by the Phils 8-2, tied the low hit total for a doubleheader.

While Bunning was spinning gem for the league-leading Phils, the rest of the league went about its business with surprising, though less spectacular results.

Houston climbed into seventh place and sent Milwaukee reeling to ninth with 5-2 and 5-4 victories over the Braves. Chicago swept a twin bill from Pittsburgh 2-1 and 7-2. Los Angeles split with Cincinnati, winning 4-2 and losing 2-1. San Francisco trimmed St. Louis 7-3 in a single game.

Bunning—and everyone else—credited Phils' second baseman Tony Taylor with the game's fielding gem. Taylor dove to stop Jesse Gonder's fifth inning bid in the hole and threw Gonder out from a kneeling position.

Elsewhere, Houston's Rusty Staub went on a four-hit, two-homer spree against Warren Spahn and two successors in the opener with Milwaukee. Second game homers by winning pitcher Ken Johnson and Joe Gaines helped the Colts sweep the four-game set and hand the Braves their sixth straight setback.

Larry Jackson pitched a three-hitter, retiring the last 22 Pirates in order, and drove in both Chicago runs in the opener. Lew Burdette allowed five hits through seven innings in the second game before yielding to Lindy McDaniel.

Sandy Koufax became the second NL pitcher to win 10 games, checking Cincinnati in the first game with the help of Frank Howard, who runs with a single and his 15th homer. Vada Pinson doubled and Deron Johnson homered in the first inning of the nightcap for the Reds' margin.

Hal Lanier, son of the former NL pitcher, collected four of San Francisco's 13 hits, including his first major league homer. Willie Mays followed the rookie's shot with his 22nd circuit.

BOB BARTZ rolled 208-209-562 in the Mid City Mixed Four-some League. Carol Bahr posted 201-534. Bob Whittaker 206-529. James Linnart 210-529. Joe Coughlin 541. Jim Shier 532. John Cook 534. Rod Phillips 529. Team results: Gloria's Diaper Service 3, Zippy By Pass Pizzeria 1; Beach Construction 3, Ella's Beauty Shop 1; Charles Nationwide Insurance 4, Mitchell Sales 0; J. H. ## International League Results

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Jacksonville Suns don't like to share first place in the International League standings with anybody.

The Suns, who took over the top spot about two weeks ago, scored two runs in the bottom of the ninth inning Sunday to defeat Rochester 7-6 and knock the Red Wings out of first place after a one-day stand.

The other six teams split doubleheaders. Buffalo extended its winning streak to 11 games by stopping Richmond in the first game 4-2, but then lost the nightcap 8-1. Syracuse took the first game from Atlanta 6-4 and then lost the second 7-5, while Columbus defeated Toronto 8-5 and then lost 2-0.

Jacksonville opened the ninth with a home run by Mike Shannon to knot the score 6-6. Joe Damaska and Ron Cox then singled and the Suns loaded the bases on an error. Joe Morgan's single scored the winning run.

Buffalo's longest winning streak in 28 years ended when Richmond blasted the Bisons in the nightcap. In that game Richmond scored six runs in the fifth inning.

Chi Chi Olivo, making his first start of the season after winning eight games in relief without a loss, blanked Columbus 2-0 on five hits in the second game.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bo Belinsky's mouth says he wants to go to Hawaii, but his left arm isn't helping buy the ticket.

Belinsky, Los Angeles Angels' southpaw, came within one out of hurling his first shutout in nearly two years Sunday but had to settle for relief help and a 4-1 triumph over Cleveland.

The victory was Belinsky's third straight, giving him a 5-3 record. He reduced his earned run average to 3.12 while scattering six hits and striking out nine.

The appearance was the first for the 27-year-old lefty since he revealed last week that he had asked the Angels' management to return him to Hawaii, where he pitched in the minor leagues for a while last season.

The pressure of being a star in the big leagues was too much, Belinsky contended.

So, Bo decided, he better change his ways before ulcers did more damage than American League batters. Hawaii, he was convinced, was the proper prescription for recovery.

His request, however, was rejected, and Belinsky must content himself with pitching for the Angels until he earns the return trip.

The way he's going now, he may have to wait until the winter.

In other AL action, New York moved into first place by sweeping Chicago 2-0 and 2-1 in 17 innings. Boston downed Baltimore 9-6, Detroit defeated Minnesota 4-2 and Washington took Kansas City 13-2 and 5-2.

Belinsky had a four-hit shutout until the Indians got to him for a walk and two hits with only one out remaining in the game. Bob Dilliba came on and retired the last batter, preserving the Angels' five-game winning streak.

The Yankees continued their amazing mastery over Chicago, extending their record this season to 8-0 with the White Sox. The double victory moved the Yankees eight percentage points ahead of the Orioles.

Home runs by Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle took care of the opener. New York, however, needed an error by shortstop Al Weis with the bases loaded in the 17th to win the nightcap.

Weis fumbled Bill Stafford's grounder, allowing Hector Lopez to score. Lopez had doubled with 42nd and reached third on walks to Howard and Phil Linz.

Dick Stuart belted four hits and drove in four runs, three on a homer, as the Red Sox helped dump the Orioles from the top. Carl Yastrzemski had three singles and drove in two runs for Boston. John Orsino and Willie Kirkland homered for Baltimore.

Dave Wickersham beat Minnesota for the fourth time without a defeat this season. The Tiger hurler needed help from Ed Rakow in the ninth after Tony Oliva homered and a walk and singles by Bob Allison and Jerry Kindall brought in another run.

George Thomas singled across two runs for the Tigers in the first while Bubba Phillips homered in the seventh.

The Senators cooled off the Athletics, winners of eight of their previous nine games. Don Lock drove in five runs with two homers in the opener and doubled home a run in the second game. Jim King had four hits and two RBI in the first game.

Al Koch held the Athletics to three hits in the nightcap before Ed Charles homered in the ninth. Ron Kaline relieved Koch and retired the side. Koch singled home what turned out to be the deciding run in the fourth.

Legans Is Medalist In Qualifying Round

ITHACA, N. Y. (AP)—Bill Legans, with a one-over-par 73, was the medalist Sunday in Finger Lakes District qualifying play for the New York State Men's Amateur Golf Championship.

Thirty-four competed at the Country Club of Ithaca for the nine berths. Other qualifying rounds are scheduled at 10 other courses in the state later this month and July 1 and 2.

The 42nd annual state tournament will be played July 21-25 at Cooperstown Country Club.

Springfield Is Back on Top Of Eastern Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Springfield Grunts climbed back on top of the Eastern League Sunday with a sweep of a doubleheader over the Reading Red Sox, 2-0 and 3-2.

Tommy Arruda pitched a four hitter for the Grunts in the opener, winning his eighth game in 11 decisions. Springfield scored both runs in the fifth, with Larry Edmonson knocking one in with a single and Arruda getting the other home with a Texas leaguer.

Doug Gentry (3-3) took the loss.

In the nightcap, the Sox were ahead 2-0 until the sixth inning, when Dan Markowski's three-run homer turned things around and gave the Grunts and Fran Kasheta (7-2) the win. Reliever Tom Hallett took the defeat for the Sox.

At Elmira, relief pitcher John Hogg threw a wild pitch with Tony Martinez on third base for the Charleston Indians in the 15th inning and Martinez came home with the deciding run in a three-hour-25-minute contest.

Martinez had made first on an error, stole second, and gone to third on a wild throw before racing home with the winning rally. Pete Olson picked up the 1-0 win.

The York White Roses, led by the three-hit pitching of Barry Moore (5-7), racked up 10 hits, including two home runs, in trouncing the Williamsport Mets, 9-0.

Jack Krol hit his ninth homer of the year in the first inning, a two-run blast, and Mike Sinnerud accounted for two more with a four-bagger in the fourth.

Northeastern Water Ski Tournament

SCHENECTADY, N. Y. (AP)—Al Tyl of Bantam Lake, Conn., and Dickie Ann Hoyt of Fairhaven, N.J., stole the show in weekend competition at the Northeastern Water Ski Tournament.

Tyl, the national trick-riding water ski champion, scored a record 4,004 points Sunday in winning the trick-riding event. Sponsors of the event said the previous high for a single tournament was 3,629 points.

Miss Hoyt, national girls' champion last year, swept the women's division with victories in the slalom Saturday and the jumping and tricks events Friday. She won the slalom with 29 consecutive buoys.

No overall titles were awarded in the three-day tournament on the Mohawk River, which ended Sunday.

West Point Sports Director To Speak at Sullivan Dinner

JOHN W. SULLIVAN

A testimonial dinner honoring John W. Sullivan for his contributions to an outstanding basketball program over many years will be given Saturday by St. Mary's CYO Basketball Coaches Association.

Guest speaker for the event to be held 7 p. m. at Tommy's Restaurant, High Street, will be John B. Kress, associate director of physical education at United States Military Academy, West Point.

Reservation deadline is Wednesday. Tickets may be obtained by contacting Joseph Stenson or Philip Furnari.

In his present post at West Point Kress is responsible for specialized physical education such as posture, corrective exercise, reconditioning, guidance, weight control and extra instruction. He has been at West Point since 1952 and was formerly soccer coach.

A native of Rochester, Kress is a graduate of Cortland State Teachers College and Columbia University Teachers College where he earned his MA degree. He served as coach of athletics at Franklin Academy, Malone and Ben Franklin High School and Edison Technical High School, Rochester prior to joining the West Point staff.

McAndrew One-Hits S & E, Port Ewen Wins, in City Loop

Port Ewen Merchants pushed across the winning tally in the bottom of the sixth frame on a double by Dave Norton to take a 3-2 verdict over Elmer's Inn in the City League.

Port Ewen moundsman Wayne Johnson limited Elmer's Inn to a lone hit—a triple by Jim Williams in the fifth inning—which went for naught.

The Merchants drew first blood in the bottom of the first when Bob Slover scored on an error. They added another in the second frame when a run was walked in with two men out.

Elmer's bounced back with one run in the top of the third when Brian Bach scored on an error after reaching base on a miscue.

The Merchants' Bob Slover made a fantastic catch in right field in the seventh to rob Vince Crantz of an extra base hit for the losers.

The Merchants' Jack Clark led in the base hit department with two hits in three trips to the plate. Port Ewen committed five errors while Elmer's racked up four miscues. Vince Fisher took the loss for Elmer's.

Kingston Merchants racked up two three-run innings in the third and fifth frames in notching the shutout victory over S & E.

McAndrew struck out the first nine men he faced in three innings. His teammates—in an obvious effort to show their appreciation—decided to break the scoring columns. Frank Kuch walked and stole second. McAndrew also walked and Kuch came home on an error by Bill Boice. McAndrew scored on a fielder's choice. Len Whitten was issued a base on balls and scored when Dick Bartsch was caught in a run-down.

Kingston added the other three runs in the fifth when the bases were loaded. McAndrew scored on a passed ball and two bonus runs came across on a single by Bartsch.

McAndrew had a perfect game going when he was touched for a single by John Bruck for the S & E Farm's first and only hit of the game. Chick Boice made first base on an error. They became the only—baseless—base-runners as McAndrew retired the side after facing but 23 men in seven innings.

Losing pitcher Mike Spada walked four Merchants and fanned five.

Port Ewen and Kingston are tied for the league lead with 2-1 records. Elmer's has a 1-1 record while S & E Farms lost two and is out for its first win. Kingston Merchants meet Elmer's at 8:15 tonight in Dietz Stadium. S & E Farms and Port Ewen clash at the same time Tuesday at Dietz.

The line scores:

Bring on Harvard Says California

By HERBERT PELKEY

Associated Press Sports Writer SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — "Bring on Harvard" chanted Jim Lemmon's juliant California varsity crew Monday as they finished celebrating their decisive victory in the Intercollegiate Rowing Championships.

Now it was back to work for Lemmon's strapping unbeaten crew, who will work out on Cornell's Cayuga Lake before traveling to New York for the Olympic trials at Orchard Beach Lagoon June 8-11.

Second seeded in the two-day 2,000-meter championships on Onondaga Lake, the Golden Bears swept confidently to victory by two lengths over Washington's dark horse Huskies Saturday.

Cornell, defending champion and the strong favorite, was third by about another half-length.

California, rowing 39 strokes a minute through the body of the race, sprinted into the lead at about 450-meter mark and opened water the rest of the way. The Bears went to a count of 40-41 at the finish. They made their first appearance in Eastern waters, plan to stay East for the Olympic trials and a possible trip to Tokyo.

"I still don't have permission from the athletic director. Maybe I better call him," Lemmon said with a glint in his eyes.

Washington's crew also plans to stay in the East and compete in the Olympic trials.

But Stork Sanford, whose Cornell crew had hoped to take its 22nd IRA crown was undecided. "We'll wait and see," he said.

Little LEAGUERS

Hurley Giants Take Pair by 9-6

The Hurley Giants waxed like their famed big league namesakes in World Series of long ago by beating the Yankees two straight by identical scores of 9-6.

Tom Jansen fanned 10 Yanks in winning Sunday's game in 92-degree heat. A steady build-up of runs gave them the win in Saturday's game.

The Yankees scored three tallies after the Giants opened the game with a one-run lead in the bottom of the first. The Giants rallied for four in the fifth and the Yanks came back with one to make it 6-5 Yanks. The Giants opened up with four singles in the sixth frame, which along with a Yankee error provided them with the decisive runs. The Yanks went scoreless in the final frame. Jansen walked five batters. Mike Bushnell fanned four and issued as many walks in taking the loss.

Bob Arcus rapped two doubles for the losers in three trips to the plate. Two baggers were also slammed by Yank Glen Littlefield, and the Giants' Bill Francis, who rapped two-for-four, and Dan Waters. Yankee Gary Hoffstatter also poked two-for-four at the plate. Rich Swithers of the Giants had a perfect day with three-for-three.

Jansen got himself out of a jam in the final inning by striking out two batters with one out and two men on base.

The Giants poked 11 hits in the other contest which they won in spite of a five-run slump by the Yanks in the sixth inning.

Giants scored once in the first, four times in the second and twice in the third while limiting the Giants to a single tally for a commanding 7-1 lead. They added two more in the fifth for a 9-1 margin until the Yanks blew open in the top of the final frame. However, five was the best the Yanks could manage and that wasn't enough.

Richard Swithers and Cliff Kline stroked doubles for the winners while Bruce Wolford rapped a two-bagger for the Yankees. Tom Jansen whacked two hits in four trips for the Giants while teammate Bill Francis went two-for-three. Yankee Ken Hoffstatter slapped three singles in four appearances at bat.

The line scores:

R. H.	Giants	000 010 044 9 9
R. H.	Yankees	000 031 110 6 8
R. H.	Yankees	001 005 6 9
R. H.	Giants	000 142 02x 9 11

Mother, Daughter See Performance

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK (AP) — The bright-eyed little girl with the blonde curls and the big smile sat behind home plate on a Father's Day doubleheader at Shea Stadium and listened to the fans talk about Jim Bunning and his quest for a perfect game.

"That's my daddy," 12-year-old Barbara Bunning told any who cared to listen while her 32-year-old father toiled against the New York Mets.

Then, after slim Jim fired a third strike past Met pinch hitter John Stephenson for the 27th consecutive out and the first National League perfect game in 84 years, Barbara and her mother made their way through the crowd to the playing field.

To the delight of photographers Barbara gave her beaming father a big kiss. Bunning beamed even more.

"It's a wonderful feeling," the Philadelphia right-hander said after the 6-0 victory. "I still can't believe it. I feel wonderful, just wonderful."

"He had everything," catcher Gus Triandos said. "Good fast ball, good slider, good curve. His curve was his best pitch. Most of his strikeouts, maybe all of them, came on the curve."

Dodgers Win, 7-2, Take Hurley Lead

Dodgers took the Hurley LL half-way championship with a 7-2 playoff win over the Tigers. Each team had an 8-2 record going into the playoff.

The Tigers held a 2-1 lead for two innings, but the Dodgers bounced back with two in the third to post a 3-2 lead. After a scoreless fourth frame, the Dodgers rammed four tallies across. A single by Ricky Vogt, who went two-for-three at the plate, and a double by Don Clune helped produce the bonus runs. The Tigers' Jim Kerl, who saw duty at first base, on the mound and in the outfield, blasted a home run in a losing cause. Team mate Tim Whalen poked two-for-three.

Winning pitcher Erick Assion struck out eight Tigers and walked three in picking up the victory. Losing hurler Kerl fanned two and gave five bases on balls.

The line score:

R. H.	Dodgers	000 012 040 7 5
R. H.	Tigers	000 020 000 2 3

Fitzgerald Hurls Giants Shutout

Don Fitzgerald hurred an 11-0 shutout as the Dodgers routed the Giants in a National Little League contest.

The Dodger pitcher gave up only three hits while Mike Fisher, Gary Noble and Tony Darwack doubled for the winners. Steve Ellsworth scored a triple.

Larry Woerner, Ron Dreiser and Earl Edmunds won the singles for the Giants. Losing hurler Fred Hommel struck out 10 and fanned 5.

The line score:

R. H.	Dodgers	000 101 423 11 12
R. H.	Giants	000 000 000 0 0

Don Fitzgerald, Paul Saeholoff; Fred Hommel and Mike Pugliese.

Wrens in 6-4 Win Over J-C Eagles

Wrens stood off a late three-run spurge by the Eagles and copped a 6-4 win in the Jay Cee LL.

Bob Markes gave up eight hits in racking up the victory and set the pace in the stickwork department with three hits in four trips to the plate, including a double. Team mate Don Lackaye wacked two-for-four including a two-bagger. Craig Murray slammed two hits in three appearances for the Eagles in a losing cause. The Wrens chopped out seven hits.

The Wrens broke a 1-1 tie with two tallies in their half of the third. They added three more in the top of the fifth. The Eagles retaliated with three runs in the bottom of the fifth, but the scoring ended there. Bob Mitchell took the loss in relief of starting hurler Don Williams. The Wrens led the league in the first round with a 9-1 record.

The line score:

R. H.	Wrens	000 012 030 6 7 2
R. H.	Eagles	000 100 030 4 8 0

Bob Markes and Don Lackaye; Don Williams, Bob Mitchell and Craig Murray.

Giants' 3 Homers Drop Braves 11-6; Clausi Waves 12

Paul Watzka and Bob Clausi took all the gravity with three home runs to lead the Giants to an 11-6 victory over the Braves in a Glensco-East Kingston Little League match.

Clausi's homers in the second and sixth innings drove in five runs for the winners. Watzka scored in the third, with two men on base. Both Watzka and Clausi pitched for the Giants.

Watzka and Steve Pasqua doubled for the winners. Losing hurler Howard Hackney got two bases for the Braves.

Clausi struck out 12 and walked 10. Hackney waved 13 and walked 10.

Three men did all the hitting for the Giants, while two batters saw action on the Braves squad.

The line score:

R. H.	Giants	000 113 024 11 6
R. H.	Braves	000 004 020 6 2

T-Man Choices At Monticello

9. Lucille Brewer, Waycount, Evergreen Direct.

Best bet: Square Deal (3rd).

Timely Knight Wins Seventh Straight at MR

MONTICELLO, New York, June 20—Timely Knight, the unbeaten Canadian three-year-old, made it seven straight trips to the winners circle by coming on strong to nose out Royal Domain in tonight's feature $5,000 invitational pace at Monticello Raceway.

The mile went in 2:03 flat, a full second off the good time set here a week ago.

Roger White, who garnered his 15th victory of the young meet with Timely Knight, pulled away fast from the starting gate and held the lead by a nose as the opening quarter went in a brisk 30.2.

Howard Beissinger brushed Brown Jet to the top going into the second turn and held Command through the half and three-quarters, kicking off fractions of 1:01.2 and 1:32.3. About midway down the stretch, Timely Knight and Royal Domain, reined by Bobby Camper, closed fast and it took the photo finish camera to decide the winner.

Dayton Freight got home for show money, followed by Cherry Point, Brown Jet and Starboard. Timely Knight, sent off as the even-money favorite by the crowd of 8437, returned mutuels of $4.00, $2.90 and $2.60. The victory boosted colt's seasonal bankroll to the $14,000 mark.

Royal Domain was worth $3.20 and $2.90 as the place horse, while Dayton Freight got home for a $3.10 show price.

Kingston Boosters In Default Win Over Albany A.C.

The Kingston Sport Club—like everyone else sweltering from intense heat—set an unwanted Central New York Soccer League record Sunday when they won by default over the Albany Sons of Italy when the referee declared the game over in the second half after a 2-2 tie.

Referee Ed Toth awarded the game to the locals when the Albany squad declined to abide by his orders and spectators converged on the field. Tempers flared and spectators rushed on to the Oehler Mountain Lodge playing field. After efforts to settle arguments proved futile, Toth decided the match would have to be categorized as poor sportsmanship and ruled default by the Albanians. The rubarb resulted over alleged hacking at the feet of Kingston players by the Sons of Italy.

It was reportedly the first time in league history that a game was won by default—at least locally.

Mike Newmerzhycy made the first Kingston goal in eight minutes. Albany scored twice before George Visvay kicked a penalty goal to tie the score.

A decision to Toth early in the second half resulted in the Albanians departure from the field. Toth decided the contest by awarding the win to the Kingston boosters—who now owns a tie for the league lead with the Albany Athletic Club. Two games will be played to decide the league championship. The first will be next Sunday when the Kingston club hosts Albany A.C. at Oehler's, and the second will be July 5 when they play a return match with the A.A.C. at Zwickelbauer's Field at McCormack's Corners.

In other CNSL games, Albany Athletic Club defeated the Schenectady Sons of Italy 6-3, and Poughkeepsie's Blue & White tied the Ulster International 2-2. The Poughkeepsie Club ends the season in a third place tie with the Troy Sports Club.

NEW YORK HARNESS RACING RESULTS

By The Associated Press

Eight foreign-owned trotters step into the New York State harness racing picture this week, but the probable favorite has a well-known American name — Hanover.

The eight are in the $45,000 Transoceanic Trot at Yonkers Raceway Thursday night. Although the event is limited to foreign-owned entries, three of them, including the probable favorite, Pack Hanover, are American-bred.

Pack Hanover and Fury Hanover, both sons of Hoot Mon, will represent Italy in the 1 1/4-mile race. Canada's Sprite Kid is a son of Kimberly Kid-Sprite Hanover.

The other entries are Granit and Legion from the Soviet Union, Oscar R.L. and Philosopher D. from France, and New Zealand's When. When was second in the Transoceanic last year.

The Transoceanic is the second leg of Yonkers' international trotting series. The first four-finishers are eligible for the third leg, the $90,000 United Nations Trot, July 2.

Two Canadian-owned sons of Good Time won feature races in the state Saturday night.

Timely Knight, a 3-year-old owned by Allen Leblanc of Quebec, posted his seventh straight victory in the $5,000 Invitational Pace at Monticello Raceway. He paid $4.00.

At Saratoga Raceway, Good Flyer captured his fourth straight win in the $5,000 Jefferson Pace. The 4-year-old, owned by Armstrong Brothers Ltd., of Brantford, Ont., paced the mile in 2:02 2/5 and returned $3.50.

Other feature race winners: Yonkers Raceway — Worth Seen ($5.20) in the $12,500 trot. The time for the mile was 2:03 4/5.

Buffalo Raceway — Dudley Chip ($21.20) covered the mile in 2:03 1/5 and won the $4,500 Invitational Pace.

Vernon Downs — Campbell-ton ($8.30) won the $3,000 Invitational Trot in 2:02 1/5.

State Weather Is To Remain Muggy, To Get Some Rain

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP) — The warm, muggy weather blanket that ushered in summer threatens to continue stifling the state, at least until Tuesday.

The Weather Bureau forecast no generally breakup today of the small high-pressure areas, responsible for the 90-degree readings, which began Saturday.

Scattered showers, moving out of the western portion of the state, were considered likely, however.

Some relief, in the form of thundershowers, hit widespread spots in Western New York Sunday, the first day of summer, which came officially at 4:51 A.M.

At Hinsdale, in Cattaraugus County, the rains washed out a half-mile of ties beneath the Erie - Lackawanna Railroad tracks, and some cellars were flooded by water overflowing from Ocean Creek.

No other flooding was reported. High readings ranged from 94 in Albany to 85 in Buffalo, Rochester, Rome and Olean. New York City registered 91 degrees.

Ford to Marry in Italy

LONDON (AP) — Henry Ford II and Mrs. Christina Austin plan to marry in Italy next October, says the Daily Sketch.

The London newspaper said Mrs. Austin, an Italian and the widow of a British naval officer, "has told friends that the wedding will most likely be in Milan where she has a home."

The American automobile magnate's first wife, socialite Anne McDonnell, divorced him last February.

Against Separate Treaty

BERLIN (AP) — Walter Ulbricht, Communist leader of East Germany, says he wants no separate peace treaty with the Soviet Union.

An East German news agency quoted Ulbricht as telling a group of visitors from West Berlin that he wants East Germany to become so strong that it can carry through a policy leading to a peace treaty for both German states.

Son for Landons

Week's Weather To Be Humid, Rain Spotty

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Extended forecasts for Upstate New York, prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau for the period from 7 p.m. today to 7 p.m. Saturday:

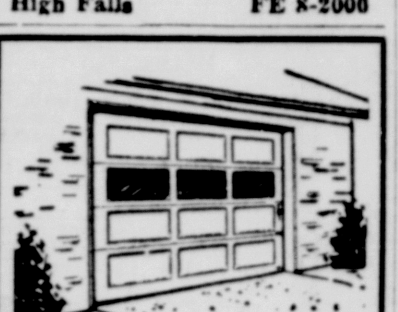

Eastern New York — Rather warm and humid most of the week. Temperatures 5 or more degrees above normal. Scattered showers or thundershowers likely Tuesday night or Wednesday and again near the end of the week. Rainfall will be spotty and generally light.

Western New York — Temperatures will average 4-8 degrees above normal. Cooler about mid-week, otherwise continued warm. Rainfall Tuesday or Wednesday will average around one-quarter inch.

Temperature Normals — Daytime highs 75-82; nighttime lows 55-60.

NEW TEACHING ALPHABET — Dr. John K. Duffy, speech and hearing consultant for Ulster County Cerebral Palsy Center discusses with Mrs. Constance Ottesen, member of the board of directors of the United Cerebral Palsy of Ulster County and school psychologist for the Kingston Consolidated School System, the new method of teaching speech used at the center since last fall. The method, called the "Initial Teaching Alphabet" developed by Sir James Pitman has been pronounced "a remarkable success" in Britain. Dr. Duffy is chief of speech and hearing at Lenox Hill Hospital, and through this association met Sir James Pitman.

Po'keepsie Rules No More Smoking On School Ground

Designation of a smoking area on the grounds of Poughkeepsie High School, which permitted students to smoke, has been rescinded by the Board of Education, according to reports from that city.

Supt. of Schools Edwin L. Hunger said Saturday smoking by students on the school grounds will be prohibited. The new rule becomes effective July 1.

The school official noted that two considerations are involved in the action banning student smoking at the high school.

"The first," Hunger said, "is that Subdivision 5, Section 484 of the Penal Law makes it a criminal offense for anyone to provide tobacco products to anyone under 18 years of age. This regulation is a mandate with which the Board of Education can take it as a proper basis to promulgate rules and regulations. In other words, the right of the Board of Education to prescribe conduct or regulate in violation of the law cannot be questioned."

Supt. Hunger continued: "The second factor which I think is pertinent is the information dealing with the effects of smoking. Particularly of cigarettes, which the Surgeon General of the United States released. It has official sanction, so that school authorities can take action on the premise that smoking is a serious health hazard."

Hunger stated that during the hours when students are in attendance, the school authorities are in "loco parentis" and have such care and custody of them, as is necessary to educate them, to maintain them in a safe and proper condition and to safeguard their moral and physical well-being, for all which school authorities can exercise the power of discipline.

The school superintendent, in a letter to the high school principal, said, "although I foresee some problems, the subject of smoking has now taken on such importance that educators cannot ignore it. It is my hope that the educational process which we have been emphasizing in our health classes, in general assemblies and through the media of communication will tend to make the pupils cooperative and receptive to the restriction on smoking."

Hunger pointed out that it has been his experience that the students in Poughkeepsie have been most cooperative in accepting and abiding by the rules and regulations, especially those concerned with their health and safety.

It is estimated that 40 per cent of all U. S. wives are employed outside the home.

Capitol News In Brief

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

Changes Visiting Dates

WASHINGTON (AP) — Italian Premier Aldo Moro will visit Washington Aug. 3-4 instead of July 7-10 as originally planned, the White House said Sunday.

Soviets Lag, He Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd claims Soviet industry "is lagging further and further behind the West" and is "growing more dependent on it."

The Soviet Union is suffering from shortages of copper, tin, nickel and lead, the Connecticut Democrat said Sunday, and increased East-West trade "may well be a matter of survival" for the Communist nation.

Conference Concerned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Catholic Welfare Conference said Sunday its legal department is concerned with the flood of suggested constitutional amendments to permit public schools prayers.

The conference, which speaks for the Roman Catholic hierarchy in the United States, called the existing clauses of the First Amendment — which guarantee separation of church and state — "of incalculable benefit."

Business Expansion

WASHINGTON (AP) — Business in the United States will continue to expand through all of this year and at least the first part of 1965, Walter W. Heller, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, predicted today.

Heller told U.S. News and World Report in a copyright interview that he is not willing to forecast beyond the first part of next year "not because I expect a downturn later in '65, but because I get beyond the bounds of my crystal ball."

Passenger Hurt As Car Hits Pole; Driver Arrested

A Greene County motorist was cited for failing to keep to the right, and a passenger in his car was injured at 5:40 p. m. Sunday, when the vehicle left Route 9W, Town of Catskill and hit a utility pole.

Leeds State Police said George M. Ascanio, 31, of Box 58, Maple Avenue, Cementon, was driving south when his car crossed the pavement to the northbound lane and hit the pole off the east shoulder. Troopers summoned Ascanio to appear in local justice's court later.

Sarah Ascanio, 42, same address, was injured.
